Social World Takes Pleasant Spring Tonic in Form of House Parties.

COUNTRY house parties take the majority of the members of New York's fashionable world out of town from Friday until Monday morning, for most of the owners of big estates on Long Island, along the Hudson, over in New Jersey and at Tuxedo and Lenox entertain guests at this time of the year over the week-end. Sporting affairs in which society is interested are scheduled for almost every Saturday from now until the beginning of summer, and in the evening dances are arranged for the entertainment of the guests. Yesterday afternoon the Meadow Brook Steeplechase Association held a meet at Harry Payne Whitney's estate in the Wheatley Hills, and there was a large gathering of society at this fixture. The Whitneys have a large party at their house, and others on the island who have guests over Sunday are Dr. and Mrs. Preston P. Satterwhite, who gave a garden party yesterday afternoon at Martin Hall, their place at Great Neck; Mr. and Mrs. August Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Boyer, the Graces, the Phippses and many others.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Barney took a number of guests up to Yama Farms Inn, Nanuet, N. Y., on Friday, where a dance was given last night. In the party are Mr. and Mrs. Alexander D. B. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Snowden Fahnestock, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould, Miss Clara Fargo, Miss Angelica S. Brown, Miss Lisa Suydam, T. Chesley Richardson, Jr., William R. Stewart, Jr., Francis Roche and others.

In St. James's Church, Hyde Park, N. Y., next Saturday at noon Miss Anne Pendleton Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Rogers, of 25 West 133d st., will become the bride of J. Griswold Webb, of this city. The Rev. Dr. Endicott Peabody, head master of Groton School, will perform the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception at Cromwell Hall, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Rogers. Mrs. Kenneth B. Schley will act as her sister's matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Sara Delano, Miss Ruth Wales, Miss Margaret E. Trevor and Miss Catherine D. Colt. Miss Elizabeth S. Rogers, a niece of the bride, will be the flower girl. H. Walter Webb, brother of the bridegroom, will be best man, and the ushers will include Herman L. Rogers, Frederick Parker, Jr., Chase H. Davis, Thomas H. Frothingham, John S. Parker, Walter Tufts, Jr., Henry B. Gardner, Gordon H. Balch, Vanderbilt Webb, Carleton Burr, H. Curtis Dewey, Samuel M. Felton, Jr., Chesley G. Burden, Darragh A. Park and George von L. Meyer, Jr.

Mr. Webb gave his farewell bachelor dinner on May 2 at the Copley Plaza, Boston. He is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. Walter Webb, of Boston, and a nephew of Dr. W. Seward Webb and Major G. Croighton Webb, of New York.

Miss Alice Dix Wardwell, daughter of Henry L. Wardwell, will be married to Harold Otis, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison Otis, next Thursday in the Church of the Holy Communion. Miss Wardwell will have no attendants. Miss P. Read will be best man, and there will be no ushers. The engagement was announced on December 1.

Among the notable summer weddings will be that of Miss Sybil White Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howland Davis, of 24 Madison av., to Charles Stearnson Davis, Jr., of Boston. It will take place on June 27, at Long Point, the country home of the bride's parents, at Plymouth, Mass. The couple, although having the same name, are not related.

Mrs. Charles D. Osborne, of Auburn, N. Y., and Mrs. Geoffrey, of Shanghai, China, are his sisters.

Miss Julia W. Robbins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian W. Robins, will have her sister, Mrs. John W. Minturn, as her matron of honor and only attendant at her marriage to Lydie Hoyt, which will be celebrated on June 3 in St. George's Church. Mr. Hoyt will have his cousin, Charles L. Appleton, as his best man, and the ushers are to be Edmund P. Rogers, Sheldon Whitehouse, Bertram de N. Cruzer, Eliot Cross, Samuel A. Welldon, Spencer Turner, Henry W. Bull and Chalmers Wood, Jr. A reception will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robbins, 33 East 74th st.

The marriage of Miss Marjory Bruce Stuart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clarence Stuart, to Charles Evans Hughes, Jr., son of Justice Charles E. Hughes, of the United States Supreme Court, will take place on June 17 in the chapel of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. Miss Stuart is at Vassar College, but will be graduated next month, and will be the first bride of her class. The engagement of the young couple was announced a year ago. Mr. Hughes was graduated from Brown University in 1909 and later from the Harvard Law School.

Another engagement announced last week was that of Miss Marguerite E. Schley, daughter of Dr. J. Montfort Schley, of 24 West 64th st., to J. Harper Bonnell, 2d, son of the late John Harper Bonnell, and a great-grandson of the late John Harper, one of the founders of the firm of Harper & Brothers. Miss Schley is a niece of the late Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, U. S. N., and a granddaughter of the late Henry Spaulding. Her older sister, who was Miss Katharine B. Schley, was married last autumn to Dr. Arthur D. Variell, of Waterbury, Conn.

S. Bevan Miller, of 701 Cathedral st., Baltimore, announced last Friday the engagement of his daughter, Miss Elise Miller, to Henry Fairfax Ayres, of this city. Miss Miller is the granddaughter of Mrs. Edgar G. Miller, also of Baltimore. Mr. Ayres is the son of Mrs. Charles Greenleaf Ayres and of the late Colonel Ayres, U. S. A., and a grandson of the late John Walter Fairfax of Virginia. His sister, Miss Emily Dearborn Ayres, was married last October to George Emlen Starr, of Philadelphia. The wedding will take place in the autumn.

Governor and Mrs. Martin H. Glynn, Mayor and Mrs. John Purroy Mitchel, the wife of the Secretary of War and many other distinguished visitors have accepted invitations to attend the Baltimore subscription dance to be held in the ballroom of the Biltmore on next Friday evening. The proceeds of the ball are to be divided between the Army and Navy relief societies of New York and Washington.

Great interest has been shown in this ball not only by members and friends of the army and navy, but by many public-minded, patriotic citizens. Among the patrons and patronesses are Mrs. William McAdoo, Mrs. James Roosevelt, Admiral and Mrs. F. J. Higginson, Mrs. Leonard Wood, Captain and Mrs. Albert Gleaves, General and Mrs. Charles F. Roe, Mrs. Charles G. Ayres, Mrs. Os-
