1By Telegraph to The Tribune 1
Cambridge, Mass., May 16.—The Harvard-Yale dual track meeting will be held in the Stadium to-morrow. Yale has been a strong favorite ever since the Cambridge team was crippled by the loss of several of its best sprinters, hurdlers of several of its best sprinters, hurdlers and middle distance men.

Twenty points has been suggested as Yale's possible margin, but the few warm days have brought improvement in several of the Harvard performers, and the Crimson, although not expecting to win the meet, does expect that Yale's margin will be small.
