

ISIDORE WORMSER. Montone, France, June 24.—Isidore Wormser, of New York, died from pneumonia last night at Soquel, in the Alpes-Maritimes, near Nice.

PETER OF SERBIA RESIGNS THE HELM

Appoints Crown Prince Regent Owing to Continued Ill Health.

ABDICATION RUMOR PROVES BASELESS

Court Circles in Belgrade Believe Step Is Preliminary to Total Withdrawal.

KING PETER OF SERBIA.

TOLSTOY DISCIPLE HERE

Brings Money and Whiskers Enough, but Few Clothes.

Equipped with plenty of money and a knowledge of some twenty tongues, Paul Kaminitski, a disciple of Tolstoy, arrived here yesterday from Naples in the steerage of the liner Hamburg.

NEW HOME FOR WORKERS

Spring St. Neighborhood to Have Bates Memorial.

There was great rejoicing last evening at the Spring Street Presbyterian Church. Colored lanterns were strung about the church and the church there were speaking and music.

OXFORD HONORS PAGE

American Ambassador in London Receives Degree of D.C.L.

London, June 24.—A very enthusiastic reception was accorded to Walter Hines Page, American Ambassador, by the University of Oxford.

WILL HOLD MEMORIAL

Street Cleaners to Attend Service Sunday.

The street cleaners of the city will hold their annual memorial services on Sunday afternoon for those who have died during the year.

ACTON DAVIES QUILTS 'SUN.'

Acton Davies, the dramatic critic of "The Evening Sun," announced last night that he had resigned from that newspaper.

MILITANTS RESUME ACTIVITY.

London, June 24.—The activities of the militant suffragettes, which have been in partial suspension since Premier Asquith agreed to receive a deputation of East End working women, were resumed to-day in the shape of attacks on city pillar boxes and an organized raid on man West End theatres.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY.

Free admission to American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Aquarium.

CITY BOWS TO-DAY TO THE SUPERBABY

Fat, Dimpled 99 Per Cent Perfect Infants in the Fifth Av. Parade.

MAYOR AT PLAZA TO GIVE THE BIG PRIZE

Brooklyn Procession Will Move on Coney Island and Take Luna Park.

FRESH AIR MEANS "BETTER BABIES"

Tribune Fund Continues the City's Campaign All Summer.

FAMILIES OF PLAGUE VICTIMS GET OUTING

Mothers and Children to Camp Near Hospital Where the Fathers Are.

"Better babies?" Tribune Fresh Air Fund. That puts a question and answer—problem day at 12. All underlined, superfluous, or homely babies will be kept out of sight and in the grand Fifth Av. Parade.

Families Going to Otisville. Of course, these were not all infants in arms. Some were in fact most were babies between five and twelve years.

These mothers and their babies are to be sent to Otisville for a ten-day outing. They will not be kept at the sanatorium, of course, but will live in tents near the village.

Rest for Tired Mothers. The fortnight of good food and fresh air may be just what is necessary to build up the children and enable them to overcome a tendency toward the terrible white plague.

Brooklyn Babes to Surf Av. In the afternoon Brooklyn's five hundred superbabies will have their parade, which will start from the Grant Monument at 2 o'clock, and be received at the Washington Irving High School.

Another group of candidates for baby betterment will be taken to the Erie station somewhat later in the afternoon, when the kindergarten of Public School 14 sets out on its journey to Happy Land.

Contributions, preferably by check or money order, should be addressed to The Tribune Fresh Air Fund, The Tribune, New York.

HERE TO PICK BEAUTIES

London Manager Selecting Girls for Hippodrome.

"The Passing Show of 1914" at the Winter Garden is to consist of the greater part of the girls which Albert de Courville, manager of the London Hippodrome, is trying to gather from all over the world.

PLEADS FOR PALISADES

Morse Attacks Plan to Run Trolley Through Reservation.

Wild Grant Morse, one of the original Palisades commissioners appointed by Governor Morton and author of the Palisades National Reservation bills for the New York, New Jersey and national legislatures, at a reception of the Edison Manufacturing Company yesterday, made a vigorous attack on the plan to put a trolley line through the reservation.

TAFT GETS LL. D. AT AMHERST.

Amherst, Mass., June 24.—William H. Taft received the degree of Doctor of Laws here to-day, at the ninety-third commencement of Amherst College.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

John C. Fisher has engaged Wadsworth Harris and Robert Fischer for the cast of "What Happened at 22," the new play by Isidore Wood which is to be produced in August.

AT BAR HARBOR.

Bar Harbor, June 24.—Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., arrived at Bar Harbor, Maine, this afternoon.

AT SOUTHAMPTON.

Southampton, June 24.—Mrs. George Q. Whitney is at Percy Payne's cottage in First Neck Lane.

AT NEWPORT.

Newport, June 24.—Count J. H. von Bernstorff, German Ambassador, was the guest of honor at a dinner this evening, given by the councillor of the German Embassy.

MISS ROECKER BRIDE OF HARRISON TWEED

Ceremony performed on Farm of General Greene, at East Greenwich.

WEDDING FEAST IN TENT ON LAWN

Miss Summerhays Becomes Wife of Stanley Taylor Chase, of Buffalo.

PHOTO BY HARRISON

They were gowned alike in white tulle, fashioned with long tunic and sash bows of tulle, chiffon bodices over pink, with a tiny pink rose at the belt.

The bridegroom was attended by Harold S. Vanderbilt, of New York. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. William G. Thayer, of St. Mark's School, Southboro, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Daniel Goodwin, of East Greenwich.

ROCKEFELLERS IN $10,000 GIFT

Widows, Too, Send Their Mite to Police Fund—Carnival Plans Complete.

The Honor Roll Relief Fund of the Police Department has been augmented by $10,000 given by John D. Rockefeller and his son, John D. Jr., Police Commissioner Woods received the checks yesterday.

Rest for Tired Mothers. The fortnight of good food and fresh air may be just what is necessary to build up the children and enable them to overcome a tendency toward the terrible white plague.

MISS DREW IN CAR CRASH

Actor's Daughter Hurt in Auto Collision Near Quogue.

The smartly gowned young woman who was injured last Saturday afternoon in an automobile collision near Quogue, Long Island, was discovered to-day, was Miss Louise Drew, daughter of John Drew, the actor, who is spending the summer in Southampton, Long Island.

AT NEWPORT.

Newport, June 24.—Count J. H. von Bernstorff, German Ambassador, was the guest of honor at a dinner this evening, given by the councillor of the German Embassy.

AT SOUTHAMPTON.

Southampton, June 24.—Mrs. George Q. Whitney is at Percy Payne's cottage in First Neck Lane.

AT BAR HARBOR.

Bar Harbor, June 24.—Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., arrived at Bar Harbor, Maine, this afternoon.

AT NEWPORT.

Newport, June 24.—Count J. H. von Bernstorff, German Ambassador, was the guest of honor at a dinner this evening, given by the councillor of the German Embassy.

MISS ROECKER BRIDE OF HARRISON TWEED

Ceremony performed on Farm of General Greene, at East Greenwich.

WEDDING FEAST IN TENT ON LAWN

Miss Summerhays Becomes Wife of Stanley Taylor Chase, of Buffalo.

They were gowned alike in white tulle, fashioned with long tunic and sash bows of tulle, chiffon bodices over pink, with a tiny pink rose at the belt.

The bridegroom was attended by Harold S. Vanderbilt, of New York. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. William G. Thayer, of St. Mark's School, Southboro, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Daniel Goodwin, of East Greenwich.

Rest for Tired Mothers. The fortnight of good food and fresh air may be just what is necessary to build up the children and enable them to overcome a tendency toward the terrible white plague.

MISS DREW IN CAR CRASH

Actor's Daughter Hurt in Auto Collision Near Quogue.

The smartly gowned young woman who was injured last Saturday afternoon in an automobile collision near Quogue, Long Island, was discovered to-day, was Miss Louise Drew, daughter of John Drew, the actor, who is spending the summer in Southampton, Long Island.

AT NEWPORT.

Newport, June 24.—Count J. H. von Bernstorff, German Ambassador, was the guest of honor at a dinner this evening, given by the councillor of the German Embassy.

AT SOUTHAMPTON.

Southampton, June 24.—Mrs. George Q. Whitney is at Percy Payne's cottage in First Neck Lane.

AT BAR HARBOR.

Bar Harbor, June 24.—Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., arrived at Bar Harbor, Maine, this afternoon.

AT NEWPORT.

Newport, June 24.—Count J. H. von Bernstorff, German Ambassador, was the guest of honor at a dinner this evening, given by the councillor of the German Embassy.

AT SOUTHAMPTON.

Southampton, June 24.—Mrs. George Q. Whitney is at Percy Payne's cottage in First Neck Lane.

AT BAR HARBOR.

Bar Harbor, June 24.—Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., arrived at Bar Harbor, Maine, this afternoon.

AT NEWPORT.

Newport, June 24.—Count J. H. von Bernstorff, German Ambassador, was the guest of honor at a dinner this evening, given by the councillor of the German Embassy.

AT SOUTHAMPTON.

Southampton, June 24.—Mrs. George Q. Whitney is at Percy Payne's cottage in First Neck Lane.

AT BAR HARBOR.

Bar Harbor, June 24.—Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., arrived at Bar Harbor, Maine, this afternoon.