White Wins Medal on Nassau Links

Hundred and Fifty Amateurs Battle with Par and Bogie.

FLUSHING PLAYER ON GAME THROUGHOUT

Veterans Also Show Well in Qualifying Round of Invitation Tourney.

Keeping up the same good golf that enabled him to defeat Francis Ouimet at Greenwich as well as win his matches in the intercity series at Baltusrol last week, Gardiner W. White, of Flushing, won the medal with a score of 79 in the eighteen-hole testing round of the invitation golf tournament of the Nassau Country Club yesterday. The feat was all the more praiseworthy from the fact that no less than 150 amateurs drove off, comprising one of the largest fields of the season.

The presence of so many players recalled interesting golf history, for, included among those who made the first sixteen were Herbert M. Harriman and Walter J. Travis, a pair of former national title holders, who were recognized as two of the nation's foremost amateurs fifteen years ago.

Over that same Nassau course back in 1899 Harriman won the metropolitan championship, defeating Reginald Brooks in the final round. Earlier in the tournament Harriman had disposed of Travis, the match being carried to an extra hole. That Harriman has not forgotten how to handle driver and iron was shown by his score of 77, a stroke better than Travis's effort.

From the moment White brought off a thirty-foot putt for a 3 on the third green it was easy to see that he was in a happy golfing vein. Long putts on the sixth and seventh greens enabled White to go out in 36. His only really poor hole was the twelfth where he sliced his drive and after reaching the green on his third shot took three putts. He had been able to bring off a five-footer on the home green the Flushing golfer would have completed the round in 71.

His card was as follows:

Gardiner W. White, Flushing
Out	4	4	5	3	4	5	3	4	5	4—36
In	3	4	5	4	3	4	4	4	5	5—37—79

Apropos of oldtimers, there was Louis Livingston, of Westbrook, with a 76—a score that almost seemed to suggest an inspiration from the moving pictures he had taken of the last amateur championship of Great Britain at Sandwich. Others with the same score were Max Marston, of Baltusrol, the Greenwich winner; W. R. Simons, the Florida title holder; John N. Stearns, 3d, holder of the Nassau championship, and E. A. Lynch, of Rockaway.

Among those whose reputations may have suffered through failure to make the first sixteen were Fred Herreshoff, Percy B. Pyne, 2d, and W. L. Hicks, the Nassau record holder. So fast was the race over the baked-out turf that those with scores of 81 found themselves tied for last place in the first division.

The draw for the first match round in the chief division is as follows:

Lynch vs. Livingston; Hyde vs. White; Bottome vs. Bredemus; Travis vs. Perin; Stearns vs. Hare, Marston vs. Dunning; Marston vs. Cape; Turner vs. Topping.

The scores were as follows:

N. Y. YACHT CLUB MEETS

Annual Election of Officers To Be Held on December 17.

Commodore Dallas B. Pratt presided, last night, at the fifth general meeting of the New York Yacht Club, held at its house in West 44th st. Vice-Commodore George F. Baker, jr.; Rear Commodore J. P. Morgan, former Commodores Arthur Curtiss James and Cornelius Vanderbilt, James B. Ford and Walter Luttgen were among the thirty yacht owners present who voted for the following members as a nominating committee:

Lewis Cass Ledyard, Frederick G. Bourne, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Arthur Curtiss James, Wilson Marshall, F. H. Von Stade, Daniel Appleton, George Allison Armour and Grenville Kane.

The annual election of the club will be held on December 17. Eight new members were elected last night, and Secretary George A. Cormack read, for the information of those present, the last cable message received from the Royal Ulster Yacht Club, agreeing to the postponement of the race for the America's Cup on account of the war in Europe.

COLLEGE BASEBALL PLANS

Yale, Harvard and Princeton in a Three-Game Series.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 1.—Harvard, Yale and Princeton will play three games with each other in baseball next spring, according to a new agreement which has just been reached.

A tentative schedule has been drawn up as follows: May 22, Princeton vs. Harvard, at Cambridge; May 29, Princeton vs. Yale, at New Haven; June 5, Harvard vs. Princeton, at Prineton; June 12, Yale vs. Princeton, at Princeton; June 15, Yale vs. Princeton, at New York; June 18, Harvard vs. Princeton, at New York.

The Harvard-Yale series will be played on Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday of the following week.

LANGFORD EARNS HONORS BY SHADE

Boxes Ten Fast Rounds with Joe Jeannette at the Stadium Club.

Joe Jeannette, of Hoboken, still owns the mastery of Sam Langford, the well known Boston "Tar Baby."

The men met in a ten-round bout at the Stadium Athletic Club last night, and after a fast bout Langford earned the honors by a slight margain.

It was the eleventh time the men have met, but this did not detract a whit of interest. A fair-sized crowd watched the contest and cheered the good work as enthusiastically as they booed the dull moments.

The men did not warm up for several rounds, but once under way things began to happen.

In the seventh, eighth and ninth rounds Langford had a decided advantage, and the wonder was that Joe remained on his feet until the end. One reason for Joe's lasting was his ability to hold on.

His belated rally in the tenth round failed to stem the tide, however.
