

Travis Proves That He is Still a Factor

Veteran Golfer Captures Chief Cup in Nassau Club Tourney.

WON NATIONAL TITLE THERE DECADE AGO

"Old Man" of Links Easily Defeats Stearns in Final, After Early Triumph Over Hyde.

Walter J. Travis once again laughed defiance at that mythical "never come back" theory by winning the chief cup in the Nassau Country Club tournament yesterday.

The winner's form in this meeting was reminiscent of his success over the same course in the national amateur championship eleven years ago.

Travis played with all of his old-time confidence in the final, and he fact that he almost always had a half stroke, and he became 1 on at the fourth, where he laid Stearns a half stroke, and for that reason the former Princeton never looked like a winner.

COVINGTON WINS THE ARMY CUP

General Wood Sees Stirring Finish at Piping Rock Horse Show.

LOVE SHOWS SKILL IN HANDLING MOUNT

Defeats Captain Platt on Chance in Final Drive of Six-Mile Struggle.

General Leonard A. Wood, commander of the Department of the East of the United States Army, watched General Charles McDougall's good bay gelding, won the Army Challenge Cup for the Piping Rock Horse Show at Piping Rock, Long Island, yesterday afternoon.

General Wood saw a stirring finish in the Cavalry, Covington won the annual race by a nose in a driving finish over Captain A. H. Platt's Chance, and another good mounting of the day.

The four starters all were in his class, and the riding was national grade, and the riding was national grade, and the riding was national grade.

Miss Lida L. Fleitman, who won the honors for horsemanship, received a special blue ribbon, and was the Boring Class Memorial Cup for the best display of horsemanship in the saddle classes throughout the show.

In the competition for the "Crested Purple" Cup for the woman displaying the best horsemanship over a specially trained hunter's course, she defeated eleven other performers as Miss Helen Hitchcock, Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock and several others.

The Hitchcock jumpers had a fall day. Not alone did Cavalier win the Meadow Brook Cup, but later in the day, with Cavalier's partner, he made a splendid performance in the same class.

Miss Vera A. H. Cravath emerged what amounted to a monopoly on the class, in which she completed the splendid day's gelding Warwick captured the Piping Rock Challenge Cup.
