

WEAKNESS OF NAVY PROVED BY ADMIRALS

Facts in Tribune's Exposure Substantiated Before House Committee.

SOME ARE CONCEDED EVEN BY DANIELS

Lack of Submarines and Practice in Manoeuvres and Gunnery Admitted.

Washington, Dec. 20. Within a fortnight from the initial publication of the Tribune's series of exclusive articles exposing the inefficiency, incompetence and neglect of the present administration of the Navy Department and the depreciation of the sea-fighting force, every statement in those articles has been officially and substantiated by the evidence of officers of the navy of command rank and in some instances prominently admitted by the Secretary of the Navy himself, in testimony before the Naval Committee of the House.

CRAZED BY WORK ATOP PERU PEAK

American Engineer Made Temporarily Insane on Mount Huascan.

Driven temporarily insane by working at an altitude of 18,000 feet on Mount Huascan, Peru, Thomas Davis, a civil engineer, was taken to the psychiatric ward in Bellevue yesterday on arrival of the steamship Advance, of the Panama Railroad Steamship Line. There was an exciting scene on the ship before Davis was removed. It is believed that a change of scenery and air will bring about his recovery.
