GERMAN OFFICIAL.

GERMAN OFFICIAL.

The official statement follows:
East of Ponieweach the Russians retreated behind Jara.

Towards the west front of Kovno progress was made, and 500 Russians were made prisoners and two machine guns taken.

The armies of Generals von Scholz and von Gallwitz have, after stubborn fighting, broken the resistance of the enemy near Lomza and the mouth of the River Bug.

The total results of the fighting from August 4 to August 6 amount to 85 officers and more than 14,200 men being taken prisoners. Six cannon, eight bomb-throwers and 69 machine guns were also captured.

At night every restaurant was jammed with people waving flags. This was the informal part of the celebration. It exceeded the demenstrations following the fall of Przemysl and Lemberg.

Germans Tell of Joy in Warsaw at Capture

Berlin, Aug. 7.—The German troops were welcomed to undamaged Warsaw as liberators according to the report forwarded to Berlin by Kurt Aram, a special correspondent of the "Lokalan-zeiger." Aram places emplasis on the statement that the city was not evacubeing taken prisoners. Six cannoneight bomb-throwers and 60 machine guns were also captured.

The troops investing Novo Georgievak have penetrated as far as the Narew River.

The fort of Demba was taken from the south. The Vistula, as far as Bienkow, has been reached.

In Warsaw the position is unchanged. The Russians continue to bombard the town from the eastern bank of the Vistula.

Our airships dropped bombs on the railway stations of Nowominsk and Siedlee.

Near and north of Ivangorod the position remains unchanged.

Between the Bug and the Vistula the German troops stormed the enemy positions near Ruskowola, southeast of Lubartow and northeast of Lentschna, and forced the enemy to evacuate his positions there.

RUSSIAN OFFICIAL.

The text of the official announcement follows:

Given Out in Petrograd Last Night.

Between the Dvina and the Niemen rivers the fighting continued Friday without any essential change

Between the Dvina and the Niemen rivers the fighting continued Friday without any essential change of front.

Near Kovno the enemy attacked the positions of the first line of the fortress on the left of the Niemen. Our heavy batteries are bombarding them vigorously.

Near Ossowetz the enemy at dawn Friday developed an intense fire, and, launching great clouds of asphyxiating gas, began an assault on the fortress positions. He carried works near Sosna, but was dislodged by our fire and our counter attack.

On the Narew there was desperate fighting. On the roads to Ostrov the enemy on Friday, after a series of sanguinary collisions, succeeded in progressing somewhat and extending the ground which he had occupied. Desperate enemy attacks in the Serok region on the previous evening were successfully repulsed.

On the Vistula there was a cannonade. Our heavy artillery successfully counter attacked the work On the Vistula there was a cansonade. Our heavy artillery sucessfully counter attacked the work of pontoon parties on the Vistula turing Thursday night.

Between the Vistu's and the Bug typers most despectate actions are of pontoon parties on the Vistula during Thursday night.

Between the Vistus and the Bug rivers most desperate actions are fought in the direction of Kurow to Kotsk and in the region on the right bank of the Vienz River north of Leczns.

AUSTRIAN OFFICIAL.

The following official statement was saved to-night at the Vienna War Office:

Between the Vistula and the Bug Columns.

fice:

Between the Vistula and the Bug fighting is proceeding. Austro-Hungarian troops south of Lubartow, we and the Germans northeast of Leczna, penetrated the enemy's lines.

Munich Celebrates Fall •

of Polish Capital

Munich, Aug. 7.—A crowd of more than 100,000 persons, representing all casses of society, assembled at evening to-day on the historic Königsplatz Munich to celebrate the German and Wirtemberg-ing troops carried the western forts, so that all four German kingdoms were represented in the victory.

The troops attacking from the west had at times to do severe fighting in working their way within storming distance of the forts. The Russians resisted stubbornly and retired under the cover of night.

This gathering -s being taiked of togreatest in the history of The patriotism shown was e, as well as the deep religous feeling of the crowd. During the order that the Polish capital might ters humming above the thousands escape damage. The retreat was busiinch of the great square, from a code and orderly.

All the war stock had been previ-the Glyptothek to the art museum and from the Propylaen to the Arcistrasse, was filled. With bared heads the people stood in the setting sun while pray- The Russians planted artillery to pre-and.

on began at 7:15 p. m. vent the rebuilding of the Vistula bridges by the Germans. The celebration began at 7:15 p. m. with the ringing of church bells. For two hours people had been streaming to the Königsplatz, bedecked with flags for the occasion. At 7:20, to the accompaniment of a military band, the crowds sang the Ambrosian "Te Deum." Detachments of police and firemen were present to preserve order, but their services were not needed. They joined in the second anthem, "Now Thank Ye All Our God." led by Herr ven Burscht, Mayor of Munich.

After this the Mayor made a short patriotic address, closing with a call for three cheers for King Ludwig of Bavaria, Emperor William and Em-

Bavaria, Emperor William and Emperor Francis Joseph.

After this the assemblage joined in spiring all all the Figure 2. singing "Hail to the King," the melody deal like the Venus of Milo. There is not much left of his arm, but it is all right as far as it goes."

> Heywood Broun, too, isagooddeal like the Venus of Milo. There's just enough of him each morning to make you want for more. And every morning you find some new charm in his baseball stories in The Tribune.

The Tribune

fications on the right bank of the Vistual River, has been captured by Ger-tula River, has been captured by Ger-man troops.

Other patriotic songs followed.

It was dark when the demonstration ended. At night every restaurant jammed with people waving flags. This was the informal part of the celebra-tion. It exceeded the demonstrations

ITALIANS TAKE KEY TO GORIZIA IN SHELL STORM

City's Fall Likely to Follow Capture of Monte San Michel.

SAY SHRAPNEL SUNK AIRSHIP

Germans Say Pola Raider Was Destroyed Before Doing Damage.

Paris, Aug. 7.—After a desperate battle the Italians have stormed and captured the summit of Monte San Michele, which dominates Gorizia. says a "Petit Journal" dispatch from Turin. The fall of Gorizia, twenty-two miles northwest of Trieste, on the Isonzo, now is believed imminent, the dispatch

Berlin, Aug. 7.—An official statement given out to-day by the German government says: "At midnight of August 6 the Ital "At midnight of August 6 the Italian airship Citta de Josi, while endeavoring to approach over Pola, was brought down by shrapnel before it could do any damage. All the crew, consisting of three naval officers, one mechanic and two men, were taken prisoners. The airship was taken into Pola.

AUSTRIAN OFFICIAL. From Vienna the following official report was received:

In the Gorizia district the front east of Polazzo and Redipuglia was very heavily bombarded by the enemy in the foremoon, Several Italian battalions attacked this sector in the afternoon, but after a short engagement ceased to advance.

In the Tyrol and Carinthia there were only artillery actions.

The loss of an Italian dirigible balwas officially admitted on August by the Italian government, though name of the aircraft was not given.

Austrian U-Boat Sinks Italian Submarine

Paris, Aug. 7 .- The Italian submarine Nereide is reported to have been sunk in an encounter with an Austrian submarine off the island of Pelagosa, in the Adriatic Sea, according to a spe-cial dispatch from Rome.

The Nereide, which was built in 1913, was 134 feet long, with a beam of 14 feet and a displacement of 315 tons gross. Her peace time complement was 17 men.

Italians Report Gains

tacks on them, supported by the fire of numerous groups of artillery which were combated by ours and reduced to silence. Both attacks were repulsed.

Germans Held in Warsaw evacuated by the Russians without a

by Russian Artillery

detachments which sought to extinguish the fire. Nevertheless, the dash and energy of our troops enabled them, after a while, to confine the fire and to limit considerably the darage.

$250,000,000 WAR ORDER TO MORGAN

Banker as Agent for Russian Government.

of the river, notwithstanding the bring-ing up of heavy German reinforcements and the apparently serious efforts made in the last three days to break through into the rear of the Russian Warsaw Cleveland, Aug. 7 .- Shrapnel, shells and other munitions of war to the value of $250,000,000 have been ordered in New York through Morgan & Co. by the Russian government, it In the vicinity of the Baltic capital of Riga the Germans have been forced back toward Mitau. The Teutons appear for the time being to have abandoned their efforts in the direction of Riga and intend instead to prevent the fanking of their positions from the direction of their positions from the direction. was learned here to-day, when it was announced that Cleveland factories would turn out $10,000,000 worth of the shells.

the snells.

The order was placed ten days ago and intend instead to prevent the anking of their positions from the diection of Poniewesch. Nevertheless it is expected in Petrograd that Riga will the the scene of an early renewal of ctivities.

The snells.

The order was placed ten days ago and while hints as to some features of it had been given out in New York the vast extent of the order was first bared of the railroads are not taking ship-sents destined for Riga Historia. flanking of their positions from the di-rection of Poniewesch. Nevertheless it is expected in Petrograd that Riga will be the scene of an early renewal of ments destined for Riga. Historic monuments are being removed from the city and the exodus of the people continues.

Russians Retreat While Holding Warsaw Suburb [By Cable to The Tribune.]

Zurich, Aug. 7 (Special dispatch to "The London Chronicle").—A special telegram this afternoon to the Zurich "Neue Zeitung" from Berlin states that the Russians still firmly occupy the Warsaw suburb of Praga, on the eastern bank of the river. Fresh artillery duels are taking place across ments destined for Riga. Historic monuments are being removed from the city and the exodus of the people of 13,000,000 si

KING SANCTIONS MEDAL FOR MINOR NAVAL FEATS

London, Aug. 7 .- King George has sanctioned the establishment of a medal to be known as the naval general service medal. This will be awarded for service in minor naval operations, whether in the nature of belligerency or of police duty, which may be considered of sufficient importance to justify an award in cases where no other medal would be appro-

It is stated that these medals will be awarded to the officers and men of the warships employed in the operations for the suppression of traffic in arms on the Arabian Sea and the Persian Gulf between October, 1909, and August, 1914.

JAPAN STRIPS OWN FORTS FOR RUSSIA

Big Guns from Northeastern Fortifications Shipped to Galicia.

Tokio, July 15 (Correspondence of The Associated Press) .- Now that the danger of war with China is over all Japan and Corea are engaged in making sup-pied in making something when they are not selling something. These shops are really the factories of the empire. It is here that cloth goods and innumerable articles needed to keep huge armies in supplies are turned out. handed over to commission merchants, assembled in great quantities and distributed to Russia, France and even England. Practically every household in Corea is hard at work making cloth for Russia. Corea is making also big quantities of boots and ammunition cases.

were repulsed.

In the Carso a stubborn struggle which lasted all day yesterday was decided toward evening by the material success of our arms, especially in the centre, where we took part of the depression descending toward Doberdo, and made 140 prisoners.

On the right wing the enemy artillery fired incendiary bombs on the depot of Monfalcone, succeeding in starting a big fire and by violent salvos of artillery tried to step our detachments which sought to extinct the Japanese armies is timated at 500,000, and it is understood by the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz by the German auxiliary cruis

MIMIC WAR AGAIN TO TEST FLEET

Atlantic Squadron Will Be to Germany, The situation is made still more Cleveland's Share Reveals the protecting the Eastern seaboard from embassy in saving valuables in a fire department chiefs are confirmed.

AMBASSADOR LEADS FIGHT WITH FLAMES

Beverly Blaze.

IMPORTERS FUME DOUBT BRITAIN BECAUSE GOODS ARE STILL HELD

and Plan Illegal.

SAY MANUFACTURERS EXPORTS EMBARGO

Tentative Scheme, Completed Experts Believe Chance of Profit Here, Will Be Cabled for Keep Staple Here. Minister's Indorsement.

Washington, Aug. 7 .- American importers who have contracted for Belgian merchandise and whose shipments have been held up by the British order in council are flooding the State Department with requests for an opportunity to release their goods, even under the last British proposal that Washington. payment be made through London financial agents to prevent any pos-sible benefit to German interests. Ar-Assuming that the total of this year's sible benefit to German interests. Arrangements probably will be made soon for the release of a small quantity of goods under this plan.

Much of the Beigian products now held at Rotterdam and other neutral ports already has been paid for, and the importers are urging the department to obtain some concession from Great Britain that will allow their shipments to come out, holding that they cannot be expected to pay twice. This phase of the question has been presented to Great Britain through Sir Richard Crawford, the commercial attache here.

ment of British Tie-

Up Order.

RUSSIA MAY LIFT

and Corea are engaged in making supplies for Russia and her Allies.

The war brought big financial losses to Japan, but the gaps are being filled in part by the furnishing of guns, ammunition and general necessities to the armies at the front—particularly the armies of Russia.

Japan has given practical expression to her friendship toward Russia by going so far as to dismantle some of her fortifications on the northeastern clast of the empire. Big coast guns from these fortifications have been shipped to Vladivostok and thence to Galicia to strengthen the artillery of the Czar.

American who received the Russia and the State and Commerce departments participating. The plan will be cabled to the Russian Minister of Finance for indorsement.

Under proposals made by the United States and accepted in principle by Russia, all Russian exports to this country will be consigned to the Secretary of Commerce and delivered by him to local consumers under guarantee that none will reach Russia's enemies by re-exportation.

As formulated to day the agreement provides for the deposit by importers when the respective provides for the Russian that the result of the runtile provides for the commercial activate here.

Arranging final details to lift the Russian embargo on exports to the Russian e

As formulated to-day the agreement provides for the deposit by importers of a bond satisfactory to the Russian Embassy with the Secretary of Commerce, covering all goods to be imported from Russia. It would be held by the Secretary of Commerce pending satisfactory evidence of the final consumption of the goods in this country, or until the end of the European war. Imports to be liberated by the lifting of the embargo include hides, furs and fur skins, vetch seed, mineral oil and numerous other products.

by the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz cotto here to-day, especially because of the popular belief that Sweden is decidedly pro-German, and in view of the fact that the British authorities have regarded goods going from this country to Sweden as being ultimately destined to Germany.

mapping out the problems of another war game, to take place after the target practice in Narragansett Bay next were towed to Swinemunde.

GRAFT BARED

Inquiry On Into Charges That Employes Got Money from Enlisted Men for Promotions.

Department, it was learned to-day, into Count di Cellere, Italian Envoy, charges of graft brought against certain employes of the department, who are alleged to have secured money from enlisted men about to be promoted in that the troops from the Antipodes Beverly, Mass., Aug. 7.—Count V. ment has been discharged as a conse. Australia a corporal and evidently was Macchi di Cellere, the Italian Ambas- quence of the investigation, and other sador, led a detail of attaches of the heads may fall if the suspicions of the

COULD BUY ALL U. S. COTTON

Would Be Prohibitive

WOULD SELL ABROAD

Would Be Too Tempting to Washington, Aug. 7.-England's plan to buy all the cotton of the United States which is usually exported, in order to avoid complications and possibly to realize a little profit by reselling it, is causing considerable speculation in diplomatic and financial circles in the amount which would reasonably be exported, were it not for war conditions, would be about 8,000,000 bales, the remainder being spun in this counplan, England would have to buy about 8,000,000 bales.

to-day that the government of the

As formulated coasy the agreement provides for the deposit by importers of a bond satisfactory to the Russian Embassy with the Secretary of Commerce, covering all goods to be imported from Russia. It would be held by the Secretary of Commerce pending satisfactory evidence of the final consumption of the goods in this country, or until the end of the European war. Imports to be liberated by the lifting of the embargo include hides, furs and fur skins, vetch seed, mineral oil and numerous other products.

PROTESTS RULING OF PRIZE COURT

U. S. Charges Germany Violated Treaty in Sinking Indian Prince.

Washington. Aug. 7.—The United States will protest against the decision of the German prize court in the case of the British steamer Indian Prince.

Washington. Aug. 7.—The United States will protest against the decision of the British steamer Indian Prince, sunk with a cargo of American owned coffee in the South Atlantic last winter by the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich. The court had justi-eral men who gave their home as the United States when volunteering with Australian contingents for the war have lately appeared in the published lists of casualties cabled from Turkey.

AN AMERICAN

geant Major A. L. Sherbourne, who en geant Major A. L. Sherbourne, who en-listed in a New South Wales command. Sherbourne was a native of Indiana and was thirty-one years old. He was a trolley car conductor in Newcastle. He was seriously wounded in the first landing of Australian troops upon the Gallipoli Peninsula, but in a recent let-ter to a friend in Newcastle he an-nounced his intention of soon returning to the troot. He did so and met his Sergeant Major Sherbourne served in the United States navy in the war with Spain and subsequently served in the British army in the Boer war. He was present at the capture of Santiago in the former war and in the latter he earned a medal. After the Boer war he joined the Cape Mounted Folice in South Africa and received special commendation for courageous condu. Later he entered the railway service in South Africa. He was a man of tine physique and an expert boxer and athlete. He also had considerable literary attainments and was the

ROSE, BRYAN INTIMATE, QUITS STATE DEPARTMENT

viser to Resume Law. Washington, Aug. 7 .- Robert F. Rose, close friend of William J. Bry-

Mr. Rose is both a lawyer and short- from New York for Archangel, when Mr. Rose is both a lawyer and shorthand reporter of considerable note.
He travelled with Bryan during the campaign of 1896 and reported all his speeches, often as many as thirty a day. When Mr. Bryan became Secretary of State he asked Mr. Rose to rine halted the bark, and the British enter the department.

For the past six months Mr. Rose concealed themselves in a cabin.

HOW SINGLE GERMAN WORSTED 5 BRITISH

Resigns as Foreign Trade Ad. Captured American Skipper Aided Capture of Prize Crew.

Washington, Aug. 7.-How a British prize crew of an officer and four mer was taken into a German port by an, resigned to-day as Foreign Trade Adviser to the State Department. Mr. Rose has been in the department two years, and lately has been in charge of the informal negotiations with Great Britain for the release of American

The bark had 5,000 bales of sotte-

The bark had 5,000 bales of cotton says, he has been trying to resign in order to return to his professional work, but remained in office at the earnest request of Mr. Bryan, and, later, of Mr. Lansing. Through his efforts important markets for American goods have been opened up in Europe, and it was he who finally persuaded the Common government to permit the extractions of the captain's fear that the captain's fear that German government to permit the exportation of dyestuffs and cyanide when American manufacturers were crippled for want of them.

"trouble would follow" any attempt on their part to overcome the German officer.

FINAL CLEARANCE

of Summer Styles must be effected at any

$55 to $125 Dresses—$35

$45 to $85 Dresses—$25 Street and afternoon styles, of silk and cloth.

Of net-crepe and batiste.

$25 to $35 Morning & Country Dresses at $8.

$45 to $125 White Gowns—$35 to $65 Of lace, lingerie and net. (More expensive styles reduced accordingly)

$150 to $300 Evening Gowns-$65 & $95 Models of the most luxurious character.

$35 to $55 Silk Wraps—$10 to $25

$35 to $55 Coats—$15, $18, $25

$25 to $65 Linen Suits - $15

$45 to $95 Suits (Silk & Cloth) - $22

$65 to $145 Higher-cost Suits—$35, $45 ($125 to $165 Silk Costume Suits at $55)

$15 Fashionable Outing Skirts—$9 Awning stripe, corduroy, cotton gabardine and chevy-chase style

Importations just received on the S. S. Espagne, via Bordeaux-from our representatives now in Paris-will be on display, for the first time, to-morrow-

-Madelaine-Odette and others.

Also Preliminary Displays of Autumn Modes-in GOWNS - WRAPS - SUITS - COATS and DRESSES-from the World's Fashion Authoritiesbring Paris to your very door, and are already to be seen in splendid array-for Immediate selection-or made to your special order. (Fren h Salon, 4th Floor)

the war deasanged of France, and no former in 180 may First to Last-the Truth : News-Editorials-Advertisements

The Italian statement said that the air-ship, after throwing bombs on several points, fell "for reasons which it has been impossible to establish" into the to strengthen the artillery of the Czar.
Americans who visit Japan are especially astonished at the almost limitless number of tiny shops in the big cities of this nation miles upon miles of streets filled with them all occu-pied in making something when they

Rome, Aug. 7.—The following official communication from Lieutenant General Count Cadorna, chief of staff of the Italian army, dated August 7, was given out here to-night:

In the Playa sector our troops are establishing themselves in the conquered positions. The enemy during the night of August 6-7 tried two attacks on them, supported by the fire of numerous. countries, and Japan is anxious to fill out her own reserve stock. The available number of rifles for the reserve strength of the Japanese armies is estimated at 500,000, and it is understood

Called On to Protect Coast in Fall Game.

Newport, R. L., Aug. 7.—The Atlantic fleet is again to be put to the test of protecting the Eastern seaboard from invasion by a supposed foreign fleet. Admiral Frank F. Fletcher, its commander, announced to-night that officers of the Naval War College were at work was injured by the captors. The latter was indicated in the report received by the get practice in Narragansett Bay next According to Admiral Fletcher, the manœuvres will be based on lessons derived from the mimic war of last June, when the "enemy" fleet accomplished its purpose in effecting a landing on the shores of Chesapeake Bay. As in the previous war game, it is expected that the Atlantic fleet will be called on to protect the coast from Eastport, Me., to Cape Hatteras.

Aids in Saving Valuables at

Complain to State Depart- Washington Thinks Price

crop should be about 12,000,000 bales, Therefore, under her proposed State Department officials pointed out

United States could not sanction such a plan, as it would be strictly a conmercial transaction between Englanc, and the cotton planters and factors of the South. If there were one dealer who could bargain with England on the price of the 8,000,000 bales, and deliver the entire quantity to her, the situation would be comparatively simple.
But officials view an attempt to buy 8,000,000 bales on the market as similar in its results to an attempt to buy control of a railroad on the New York Stock Exchange. The price would boom at the first news of such a plan, and would jump higher with every purchase until it reached a prohibitive figure. Thus England would have to pay a stiff price for the first thousand bales she bought, and with every purchase the price would go higher.

By the time four, or five million bales had been bought and taken off the market by England such a price would a plan, as it would be strictly a con-

AUSTRALIAN HERO

Sergeant Major Who Died in Battle Served in War with Spain. Sydney, July 10.-The names of sev-

Notable among those killed was Ser to the front. He did so and met his death. Sergeant Major Sherbourne served in Washington, Aug. 7.—A sweeping in-literary attainments and was the author of a number of short stories vestigation is being made at the Navy In a letter written by him to a Sydney newspaper before the Australian expeditionary force was shifted to Turkey he defended the conduct of the Australian soldiery in Egypt, it having been reported in some quarters promoted when in Egypt.

ITALIAN SOCIALISTS

J.M. Gidding & Co.

cost-hence these extremely low prices.

For afternoon and dance wear.

$35 to $45 Dresses—$15

Afternoon styles in coats, coatees and throws

In white and colors—small groups to close.

$45 to $75 Shantung Coats—$22, $35, $48.

Remaining stock of high class styles in linen-Also a few cloth suits

Remaining styles in outing, trotteur and travel suits.

$8 to $15 Summer Blouses—$3 & $6

-leStyle parisien-

Model Hats- from Maison Lewis-Georgette-Lanvin-Reboux-Maria Guy