Whitman Was a "Lobbyist," Asserts Senator Thompson

"Yes, that is what he (Cheney) refers to." answered Thompson.
"And the first time Burke spoke to you about the proposition was at the Republican Club?"
"I guess so."
"And the only proposition he made was the governorship and the $500,000 fund?"

Tried Everything in World

Wets Also Plan Drive

Thompson, who had been answering the questions somewhat listlessly, leaned forward as Burlingame finished and answered earnestly:

"No, I did not, He tried everything in the world, I quest, to find out what I "No, I did not. He tried everything in the world. I guess, to find out what I wanted. There seemed to be everything tried that I wanted. And there are some disordered minds that think a man in the Senate must want something, and if it was not one thing it must be another; and having tried everything else, why, it must be Governor. And he found out that that was another thing I did not want."

"From your mental state, the matter

sumed his cross-examination of Thompson.

Q.—Well, now, when you left Governor Whitman's hotel, did you deem that you had been offered a bribe? A.—What is that?

Q.—When you left the St. Regis Hotel, where you had had luncheon with Governor Whitman, did you deem that you had been offered a bribe? A.—Within the meaning of the Penal Code?

Q.—Oh, no, in any sense, that there was an clott to bribe you? A.—I thought that he was lobbying in the full meaning of the term.

F. A. Muschenheim, J. B. Regan and Fred Sterry."

The letter, published at the time, asked New York City liquor dealers to contribute 5 per cent of their gross receipts of 1918 and those outside of the city to give 2 per cent to fight prohibition.

"Is there any way you could suggest to the committee a connection between this letter and anything that would be worth while for the committee to take was a lobby or that there was an clott to bribe you? A.—I thought that he was lobbying in the full meaning of the term.

The Cost of Campaigning

Q.—Well, now, Senator, tell the committee, is there any other source of information that you know of that will chable us to get any closer to this situation of lobbying whereby you were offered a $500,000 slush fund to run for Governor, as the result of your proposed vote—change of vote?

MASHINGTON, May 15.—In an order to collectors of internal revenue issued here to-night by Daniel C. Roper, head of the Internal Revenue Bureau, they are instructed to proceed with the collection of tays on all beer which are

What Was Called a Joke

Why He 'Phoned Whitman
Q.—Well, why did you call the Governor up the succeeding Monday morning on the telephone? A.—He had asked me to see him in relation to the bill and had sent me a copy of the bill and had sent me a copy of the bill and had saked me to see him the next day, and he had asked me to see him Monday morning; and I called him up for the purpose of telling him that I was not going to see him.

Q.—Well, you parted as friends when you left him after luncheon, didn't you? A.—Oh, I guess we were just as friendly then as we ever were.
Q.—And you did not take this bribe situation as serious, did you, until some time after? A.—No, I took it seriously then. I do not like to have you say a bribe situation. It was an improper practice, no question about that.
Q.—Well, you were not very much heated over the matter right away, were you, when you left him? A.—Well, I was kind of heated over it the next day.
