160 Printing Shops Open

An Increase of Eighteen Within Few Days, Say Employers

One hundred and sixty of the 250 member firms of the Printers' League are now operating, according to an announcement made yesterday at the office of the league in the Flatiron Building. This is an increase of eighteen within the last few days, it was stated. The league held a meeting at the Hotel Astor yesterday morning, after which William Green, chairman of the labor committee of the league, announced that never during the seven weeks of the controversy were the employers as optimistic as they appeared at the meeting.

Mr. Green said the league gave his committee a vote of confidence to counteract rumors that the organization was dissatisfied with the committee and intended to reorganize it.

Fire Not of "Red" Origin

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Nov. 21.—The fire which last night destroyed part of the United States disciplinary barracks here originated in the kitchen of the Exchange Building, outside the wall, according to Colonel Sherburne Whipple, executive officer. The fire is not attributed to radical activities, it was added. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

Legion Starts Anti-Red War

Special Correspondence

BOSTON, Nov. 21.—Organization of the 234 Legion posts of Massachusetts for a concerted fight against Bolshevism has begun. Committees have been nominated to enlist the aid of every member in a campaign of vigilance—and action, if necessary—to supplement the work of the military intelligence department.

If the tide of Bolshevism should grow any stronger they will apply for the right to store machine guns and other weapon at their various headquarters, under guard, and put themselves ready for an instant call for military action, should it be demanded, it was said to-day.

Newspaper Story Leads To Recovery of Lost Child

ROCHESTER, Nov. 21.—Reading in a Buffalo paper as he ate his luncheon that a child found here last Saturday was at the Shelter unclaimed, John Guscott, of Niagara Falls, became convinced that the child was his little son, Gordon. He came here, and a picture, together with the child's recognition of him, assured the authorities of his right to the baby. The child was given to him.

Other People's Weather

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Pressure is moderately low over North Canada and extreme Southern California and generally high elsewhere, abnormally so over the extreme Central West, the middle Atlantic states and the South. There were light rains in the lower Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys and the upper lake region, also light local rains in Texas and New Mexico. Elsewhere the weather was fair. It is considerably warmer east of the Mississippi River and in the extreme Northwest, and slightly cooler from Texas northeastward to Lake Superior.

There will be light local rains Saturday in the lake region, extending by Saturday night and Sunday through New England. Otherwise fair weather will prevail Saturday and Sunday east of the Mississippi River. It will be slightly cooler Saturday in the Ohio Valley, the south upper lake and west lower lake regions.

Forecasts for Special Districts.—Western Pennsylvania—Cloudy Saturday, probably light rain in the morning; Sunday, fair.

Western New York—Light local rains Saturday; Sunday, fair.

Eastern New York—Cloudy Saturday, with light local rains in interior, and warmer in east and south portions; Sunday, fair.

Southern New England—Cloudy Saturday, slightly warmer on the mainland, local rains at night or Sunday.
