Masquerade Ball
Feature of Week
At Hot Springs, Va.

Dance Given at Homestead Casino for Benefit of Hos- pital, Pet Charity of Fashionable Folk at the Resort

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
HOT SPRINGS, Va., Nov. 6.—The election period proved to be only a short lull in the successful autumn season at the Virginia Hot Springs, for the arrivals of the week paralleled the departure of home-going voters.

The largest shooting expedition of the week was that of Count Robert de Chalmont, who took a number of friends to the Falling Springs Valley.

A feature of the early part of the week was the masquerade ball in the Homestead Casino for the benefit of the Hot Springs Hospital, which is the pet charity of the colonists. The active patronesses of the event were Mrs. Melville E. Ingalls, Mrs. Robert A. Black, Mrs. George A. Ellis Jr. and Miss Katherine Fay. Among those at the ball were Mr. and Mrs. John C. Tappin, Mr. and Mrs. John Cleveland Oggood, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bigelow, Mrs. Craig Piddie, Mrs. William H. Force, Mrs. Katherine Force, Edward Nicoll Dickerson, W. Earl Dodge, Frank McGovern and Count de Clairmont.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fellowes Mor- gan and Mrs. Francis McNeil Bacon, who arrived from New York Wednes- day, registered at the Club House.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Tappin gave a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Tappin at the Homestead early in the week.

Sir Mortimer B. Davis, of Montreal, had as dinner guests the Baron and Baroness Rosenkrantz, Mrs. Gerard L. Jackson and A. J. Wasserman.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Campbell Graef and Miss Olive Graef were dinner guests on Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Maximilian Surth.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Bosworth en- tertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williams.

Mrs. William H. Force gave a lunch- on at the Oaks.

Mrs. George A. Ellis Jr., Mrs. Arthur Kelly Lyman and Mrs. Frederick Pear- son also entertained at the Oaks dur- ing the week.

Mrs. Edward E. Hutton gave a lunch- on at Valley View.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Valentine left for New York Wednesday.

Mrs. Robert W. de Forest, Mrs. Charles L. Atterbury, Grosvenor Atter- bury and Mrs. Edward J. Borward ar- rived from New York on Wednesday.

Mrs. T. De Witt Cuyler and M. Mason Campbell were mid-week vi- sitors from New York, as were Dr. David Johnson, Jr., and Mrs. Dal- lace Pratt, Mr. James H. Perkins, J. Lawrence Aspinwall, J. R. Kimball, Luther L. Gidda, Malcolm Maclean and Daniel J. Sullivan.
