Folk Face Busy Season in Fall

White House Functions To Be Carried Out According to Schedule, Events Planned by Mrs. Harding

New Diplomats Expected

Vice-President is Expected to Return to Washington On or about Sept. 15

White House was bright and glittering over the red crimson, but the capital was reverting to itself in a grand gesture. The crowds went to Europe during the late firing and moving, and meeting back in a whirlwind with a host of new faces. There will be several new republicans and as many friends to be seen there. It was a pleasant surprise to find Mrs. Harding in charge of the White House functions, and Mrs. Harding is to have charge of the events at the White House.
