

Counsel for Bucholz Pleading that he was Only a Thief and Not a Murderer—Interest of Women in the Accused—Curious Ex

the wire and telegraph workers' nation. It was just strange that he spoke of being struck with a wire, which he claimed was not true, and with it inflicted the wound on himself. He said the time he was definitely fixed by the defence would meet that issue squarely, and he proceeded to do so by several calculations, which gave Bucholz from 14 to 39 minutes in which to get his master and hide the money. Then he spent about carefully over every bit of testimony. The speech was a masterpiece of money. The speech was made on the day from the day he started from the Sonne Hotel in New York until his arrest, was carefully weighed.

prisoner. Then the defence began to take testimony. It was of little seeming importance at first; but yesterday it became of much impor-

Nervous debility and weakness of generative organs positively cured by Allen's Brain Food. B. L. Ditman, Fort Lincoln, Mo., 1-20 Broadway, Allen's, 212 1st St. Send for circular -

This City Paying Over Fifty Per Cent. of the Entire State Taxation—Comptroller Olcott Urging Economy in Local Expenses.

Awaiting Gen. Grant's Arrival.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—The City of Tokio has been expected hourly during the day, but as yet nothing has been heard from her. The weather still remains very foggy. There is little doubt that she will arrive outside during the night.

Statian Island's Historian.
The Rev. John J. Clute, the author of a history of Statian Island and of some war poems, died in his home in West Brighton at the age of 72 years. The burial was in the New Dorp Moravian Cemetery.

my Hall last evening. Among those there were ex-Assemblyman Fitzgerald, Maurice J. James, Mayor Duffy, ex-Aldermen O'Brien, Bu-

ELIZABETH, N. J., Sept. 19.—Robert and Peter Goetz of New York are the holders of Elizabeth funded debt bonds to the amount of $129,000, the principal not being due until 1893. On the last of July last some $7,500 interest was due and remitted unpaid. Recently the holders of the bonds brought suit to recover that amount in the United States District Court in Trenton, Judge Nixon presiding. Without giving notice to the city, Judge Nixon issued a writ of mandamus to the city clerk to cause the United States marshal came to this city with an execution, but he was obliged to mark on the writ "No property found." City Attorney Chetwood of Elizabeth charged the city with the interest on the bonds, but the claim was unjustifiable, and on Tuesday next he will petition before Judge Nixon to have the judgment reopened for the purpose of hearing arguments in the case.

Negroes in the Lake Road Spreading the Disease by Stealing Infected Clothes and Bedding - Kisses on the Deathbed.

The weather will be fine, with a good track, and, in so, this will be the fastest race ever run over the course. Both Boards of the General Council, and other City of Memphis, will be present. There has never been such an array of fine horses at a race track in America. The meeting will probably last ten days to oblige the large owners.

Two Lives for a Cow.

St. Louis, Sept. 19.—Advices from Tanoy County, in the southwestern part of this State, say that on Tuesday last two brothers, named Burr and James Burr, were out on Kirbyville, got into a quarrel about a cow, and James shot and killed Burr. A younger brother then went home, procured a rifle, and shot his brother James through the heart.

of public and private economy for a time, trade must infallibly revive, seeing that England was not, like the Continental powers, JOTTINGS IN AND NEAR THE CITY.

Mrs. Teresa Hughes of 478 Dean street, Brooklyn, attempted to make her late father's funeral here today by leaving her home at 11 o'clock, but her clothing was set on fire. It is thought that she was fatally burned.

Messrs. Laroque and Bookstaver resumed their discussion of Sheriff Reilly yesterday, and Deputy Sheriff Cummings was present. The meeting was held at a meeting of deputies called by the Sheriff. The Sheriff told them that he would hold them to a strict account for all their wrong doings, and he wanted to say that they must be governed absolutely by the statute, and no one who did otherwise might expect to be at once removed. He stated that he had no objection to their being removed, so long as their political claims or influence might be

Two Hundred and Fifty Democrats who Support Regular Nominations Named as a Committee of Arrangements—Who They Are.

The Hon. James G. Jenkins, of Milwaukee was yesterday nominated by the Wisconsin State Electoral College for Governor of Wisconsin, in place of Alexander Welch, declined Mr. Jenkins, who is a prominent banker and politician, has accepted the nomination.

After the first sitting of the Governor's jury, and that of the Sheriff's jury, at the trial of John A. Hunter, on Monday morning of Sept. 8, with the door open and his pockets full of the Hunter's Ranch Hotel, near Dunnings, Wis., and dressed by him in overalls, he left behind him, and took to the road, a party of three men, one of whom said Meyer was now the day before,