THE PROPOSED INTERNATIONAL RATING RULES.

"Some of the writers on yachting matters in the French papers rather ridicule the idea of an international rating rule.

The same paper, speaking of Commodore E. M. Brown's steam yacht Sylvia, the new flagship of the New York Yacht Club, recently navigated the steam yacht Sylvia, 195 tons, from Queensboro to New York City.

TROTTER HORSE MEN GLAD THEY THINK THE OUTLOOK FOR 1895 IS VERY BRIGHT.

OWNERS AND TRAINERS AT FLEETWOOD PARK YESTERDAY JUBILANT OVER THE BIG EIGHT LIST FOR THE GRAND CIRCUIT MEETING.

There was a sort of justification meeting yesterday around the store in the club house at Fleetwood Park. Quite a number of owners and trainers who had gathered at the track on Saturday last, were present.

Some of the trainers who had entered their trotters and pacer in the heavily filled stakes were not so jubilant over the outlook before them. John J. Gibbs has a genuine good horse in Cephus, who trotted the half-mile track at Golden last season in 2:14, but Gibbs said yesterday, half in earnest, that after looking up the last year's performances of the thirty-five trotters entered against him in the 2:15 stake he couldn't see any clear to beat Cephus.

The prospects of a clear field and spring breezes are beginning to warm up the latent lacrosse fever among the students of Stevens Institute, and the attendance at gymnasium practice has increased so that the little space allotted to the purpose is becoming cramped.

BOSON'S RACE MEETING.

Representative Men to Give a Great Five Day Meeting.

Horses, Feb. 24.—Several of the wealthy men of this State, who are interested in the development of the racing horse, both from the standpoint of sport and that of breeding, and who are also interested in the new association at Boston, have decided to give a five day meeting at the track for a five days' running meeting beginning May 18. A guarantee fund of $10,000 has been subscribed, and among those who have contributed are Messrs. J. Murray Foster, J. Malcolm Forbes, Bayard Taylor, Col. John L. Thayer, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Malcolm W. Thomas, etc.

First-class meetings for the light harness horse are held every week during the season on the New England circuit, but a high-class meeting of this kind has not been held in this country for many years. It is proposed to include the following in the program: A five day meeting at the track for a five days' running meeting beginning May 18.

TRYING TO INDUCE PRINCETON NOT TO PLAY PENNSYLVANIA.

Frank B. Ellis Shows How the Scheme is Being Worked by the New Haven Students—Harvard Approached, Too, but the Cambridge Men Are Disposed to Treat the Quakers in a Sportsmanlike Manner.

The unexpected triumph of the University of Pennsylvania at the Intercollegiate Athletic Association meeting on Saturday will simply serve to widen the breach between the Quakers and Princeton and Yale. Indeed it can be stated on the authority of Frank B. Ellis of the University of Pennsylvania's advisory committee that a movement has been on foot for the past two months to freeze the Philadelphia out of any further baseball or football contests with Yale.
