JOHN NOLAN'S GREAT RACE.

THE FOUR-YEAR-OLD GELDING CAP-TUBES THE CLASSIC TRANSILVANIA.

A Stirring Contest of Fire Hents, in Which the Game and Trusty Son of Prodigal wins a Glorious Victory-Pilot Boy Wins B Outfoots William Pean and Rilma LEINGTON, Oct. 10.-Beneath a clear Indian summer sky, and in the presence of a cosmosummer say, and in the presence of a cosmo-politan crowd of 7,000 persons, John Nolan, a son of Prodigal, bred among the hills of Montana, owned by Joseph Hubinger of New Haven, and driven by the Texan, Wallace Foots, won the great Transylvania Stake for rottern of the 2:13 class, after a desperate battle, and the fastest five-heat trotting race op record. The honors, money, and the salvos from these 7,000 persons were all for the netor, and a memorable race it was. Each of the five heats was fought for, and the thrilling fnishes awoke the most lethargie soul that gazed on the struggle. It was the tenth renewsl of the classic event of the trotting turf. and down into history had gone the brilliant and down into the other into going the britisht contests of bygone years. Ten starters were named, but Equity, the representative of the Village Farm, was drawn just before the first score, leaving nine to race for the prize, and in that bunch were horses from all points of the compass. It is said that $103,000 was wagered in the pool boxes alone on the result, while $30,000 would not cover the speculation in heats. Of the nine starters three were selected as the most likely win-ners, John Nolan, Bingen and Eagle Flannagan. Boston and the talent backed Bingen, Kentucky stood by Eagle Flannagan, while the money of the great starchmakers of Connecticut, the Hubinger Brothers, poured in on Nolan. Here and there Grattan Boy from Missouri, Dione from California, and Pilatus from the same golden slope were backed for big money. It was a great betting race, and until the last heat the dollars were wagered in lively style.

Each starter received a cheer as he or she appeared, and when the field scored down the first time no racetrack crowd was ever so excited. Every heat was looked for to be a royal battle, and hopes were realized. In the first heat Bingen, Eagle Flannagan and Dione fought from wire to wire, Eagle Flannagan winning by two lengths from Bingen, with Dione third and Grattan Boy fourth. The latter finished so strong that he crashed into Dione's sulky, but fortunately no one was hurt. The time was 2:07%, the fastest mile ever trotted for the Transvivania. John Nolan was laid up in this heat.

In the second heat Grattan Boy and Bingen gave battle to Engle Flannagan, and the thre worked around the ring in close order to the homestretch, when a bruising drive ensued. Grattan Boy won in a stagger by a length and a half, Eagle Flannagan being second, a length in front of Dione. The latter beat out Bingen in the last length. Time, 2:08. The son of May King after this acted as if he was sore and was not a factor again.

John Nolan made a move for the third heat. and he won it after a keen race all the way. Eagle Flannagan was laid up while Pilatus and Grattan Boy raced with Nolan. All through the stretch they fought, Nolan finishing a length in front. Pilatus was second and Bingen third. Time, 2:08%.

In the fourth heat Eagle Flannagan and Pilatus hung to John Nolan all the way and the fourth driving finish resulted. Nolan won by three-quarters of a length, Pilatus being half a ength in front of Eagle Flannagan.

The fifth and final heat was the most desperate of all. John Nolan, Grattan Boy, Pilatus, Bingen and Eagle Flannagan went down to the turn in a bunch, and around the backstretch they moved in the fast falling shades of evening, the immense crowd straining every nerve to distinguish them. On swinging into the homestretch every driver used his whip and voice, and what a battle was on! First one and then the other would show in front. At the distance stand out shot John Nolan, tired bitgame, and with Foote driving like a demon he kept the son of Prodigal in the lead. winning by a length. Grattan Boy was sec-winning by a length. Graftian Boy was see-ond, a head in front of Eagle Flannagan, he a half length in front of Pilatus. It was a thrilling finale to a great race, and established a record for Driver Foote that has never been equalled in the history of the clas-sic Transvivania. In 1850 Foote drove Gov-strong to second place in the stake. In 1857 he piloted Riima to victory, and this year he duplicates that victory by winning with John Noian. Joseph Hubinger, the owner of Noian, and his brotner. Nick Hubinger, won at least $30,000 on the race.

and his brother. Mek Hubinger, was a statistic $30,000 on the race. The first race was the unfinished 2:03 trot from last week. It was won by Pilot Boy, an outsider. The second race, the 2:13 pace, was won by The Bishop, after Hal B. had captured the first two heats. The fourth race was the 2:17 trot, and only, two heats were decided when darkness caused it to go over till to-

John Nolan's winning performance in the Transvivania places him at the head of all winners of the year, and gives to the four-year-old son of Prodigri a record as a campaigner which has never been equalled by any trotter during his first season on the turf. His earnings aggregate $15,800. Since June 13 he has started in twelve races, winning sight and getting a part of the purse in all except one. Nolan not only wound up the campaign with the fastest five-heat race on record, but placed to his credit a race in which the time of every heat was better than 2:10.

His next start was at 8t Joseph, Mo., where, on July 5. he defeated McKinney, Cuerist, Major Chew and other sensational green ones in straight heats, cutting his record down to 2:13%. It was here that W. O. Foote saw him and bought him for J. E. Hubinger of New Haven, paying something like $5000. Foote did not start him again until the opening of the Grand Circuit at Detroit. The raw for the and for the first and only time during the compaign failed to win any part of the purse. He did not start at Columbus, but won at Fort Wayne the following week. Tournament.

Many women golfers were at the Ardsley Club links yesterday taking advantage of the last day's practice prior to the woman's cham-pionahip, which begins this morning. A few aiterations have been made to the course to make it more suitable for the occasion. The ninth and fourteenth holes have been shortened by about filty yards each. The first tee is mored back about thirty yards each. The first tee is mored back about thirty yards each. The tees on the gully holes have been placed on the edge of the embankment. The rocks in the bunker on the erag hole have been taken out and a new turf bunker erected instead, which makes the hole much less difficult. The regular women's tee is being used on the seventh hole. Miss Beatrix Hoyt, the champion, made her best round of the course on Saturday, which was 48 for the full eighteen hole course, and Miss Griscom of Philadelphia did it in 10. The Philadelphia contingent are stopping at the Cottenet House, and they have played consid-eraby upon the links, but decline to let their scores be known, as they regard it as mere practice. Miss Edilitz, Artisley's crack player, was out with John Forman, the club's professional, and did the first in holes in 40, and it is said she completed her round in 102. Among those out letting their scores be known were Mirs. A. De Witt Cochrane, Miss Brace Chauncey, Mirs. H. C. Chatfield Taylor of Chicago, Mirs. An Archbold, Miss Lucy Hayes Herron, Miss Elsie Casett and Miss Brooks. It is said with-out letting their scores be known were Mirs. PRESIDENT RESTORES COL. ANDELL.

Court-Martialled for Feeding a Horse, Used as a Canteen, at Government Expense.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 .- The President has come to the relief of aColonel of a German regiment who was court-martialled and sentenced to be suspended for six months on half pay for feeding at Government expense a horse used as regimental canteen, whose only duties were those pertaining to the transportation of the beer drank by the members of his regiment. Col. Andell is in command of the Fourth Illi-nois Volunteers, a regiment recruited from the southern part of the State, in that portion known as Egypt. The majority of his command are Germans. A mutual assessment plan soon provided them with a daily invoice of beer, but how to transport it from place to place, especially when on the move, was the question over which these patriotic Germans ong pondered without reaching a satisfactory conclusion. They were willing to buy a horse for the purpose, but when they found that it could not be cared for by the Government, this idea was abandoned. But there was a brilliant mind in that regiment who solved the difficulty. The Chaplain ment who solved the difficulty. The Chaplain was entitled to a horse, to be fed at the Gov-ernment expense, but the Chaplain did not be-lieve himself able to purchase the animal in the first instance, so he was not and never had been mounted. Why not, then, buy a horse and carry it on the rolls as the Chaplain's horse and carry it on the rolls as the Chaplain's horse and never had been was made to Col. Andell, and that official, not stopping to think of the fine dis-tinctions made in the War Department? The suggestion was of the service, agreed, and the travelling canteen was established. Bubsequently friction arose in the regiment and several charges were made against the Colonel, which finally took the share of a court-martial. He was tried and convicted on the

and several charges were made against the Colonel, which finally took the share of a court-martial. He was tried and convicted on the sole count in which the horse incident played a prominent figure. Then Col. Morrison of Hil-nois, the well-known politician and statesman who has grown pray looking after the interests of his constituents, and one or two other person-al friends of Col. Andell intervened. Assistant Judge Advocate-General Morrison was called to the White House hast Saturday night and all he could say was that Col. Andell had been cuilty of a technical violation of the law. "Well," replied the President, "we must settle these things on a broad basis. The lines must not be drawn too finely. The Chaplain was entitled to the feed of a horse, and as-the horse seemed to have been used for the general good of the regiment, with the possible exception of the Chaplain, I can see that no harm has been done." The order was then issued reversing the finding of the court and restoring Col. Andell to his full rank and pay.

when darkness caused it to go over till to-morrow. The judges for the day were Frank Bower of Philadelphia, William Russell Allen of Pitts-heid Mass, and Luens Brodhead of Spring Station, Ky. Frank Walker was starter. The absence of Major P. P. Johnston from the judges stand was noliceable. He is said to have told Driver Foote that he would not but up with the factics the latter dis-played at Louisville when he laid his horie up. It is understood that Foote complained about this, and the Major, who is President of the National Trotting As-sociation, did not act as a judge. As it turned out, Foote did lay up his horse two heals, the first and second, although It seemed as if he could do no better than seventh in the first heat. Nolan broke in the second heat, and it was by dint of hard work that Foote got him inside the fac. Before the fifth heat was started, and while scoring. Bingen threw a shoe, and while it was being put on the darkness came on so fast that it was just barely possible to trot the last heat according to rule.

fast that it was just barely possible to trot the last heat according to rule. Society was out in full force to see the races, and the distinguished military men were among the best bleased spectators. Major-Gen, Joseth C. Breckinridge viewed the Transrivania from the quarterstretch, and Brigadier-Generals. Colonels, Majors, Cap-tains and other officers and privates were as thick as bees. They have recently been paid, and they tet their money on the big race with the atandon of a Hubinger or an Andy Welch. There were seen at a trotting race here, the intield being filled with carriages containing the leaters of Lexington society, and the grand stand was well filled with fair ones.

Scott Hudson, who drove Eagle Flannigan. was one of the most disappointed of the losers, as he had carefully prepared the good son of Fagie Bind for the bur race and he feit that his horse ought to win. The terrific speed at which he went to the half in the second heat, however, made him a very fired horse, and although there was a great deal of time between heats it seemed as if Flannigan could not recuperate. The race was called at 1.50 clock, and the final heat was not trotted until 5.15 o'clock.

(6) 0:15 o'clock. The track was rather soft at first, but it grew arder as the afternoon wore on. If no rain listo-night it ought to be very fast to-mor-w. It was estimated that the track was corth was estimated that the track was 10w. It was estimated that the track was two or three seconds slow to-day, so that this still further adds to the glory of John Nolan's performance. Mike Bowerman, as one of the directors whose business it is to keep the track in condition, said to-night: "I think the Transvivania race of to-day was the greatest horse-race we have ever had over this track. While the stake has always resulted in a splendid contest, there was never such an uncertain race for the money. The result was always in doubt, and the least mistake on the part of any horse was fatal to his chances of winning." 2109 (leas, trotting: pure $2,000;

Acushia, Dr. Fitzsimmons and other speedy rivals. A choice bunch of oight figures in the Silver Brook Stakes, down the last five and a half furlongs of the Eclipse course. The prob-able starters include Mrs. E. O. Pepper's flying filly Satin Silpper and such recent winners as Cormorant, Diminutive and Belle of Troy. The Dixiana Stakes for three-year-oids, over the Withers mile, promises to bring out nine performers of more than average merit. Jen-nings's remarkable filly Briar Sweet is top weight with Bangie, Bendoran and Banastar in close order. Swiftmas and Hadsel are in light according to their recent triumphs, and unless Briar Sweet scares the majority the race should be a lively medium of speculation. Weights have been apportioned to a dozen representative three-year-oids and upward in the handleap at one mile and a turiong on the Withers course. White Froat is set to carry the limit, with Peepo' Day in receipt of a pound. Other prominent factors at the weights are Candle Black, Twinkler, Mazarine, Sir Walter, Warrenton and Blueaway. A most interesting team match was played on Saturday last on the links of the Country Club of Brookline, Mass., between the home club and the Royal Golf Club of Montreal, Canada, which resulted in a victory for the Boston golfers. It was a thirty-six hole match, eigh-teen being played in the morning and eighteen in the afternoon. The Americans had a decided advantage in the morning, and they also had the better of it in the afternoon. winning the match by 31 holes up. It must not be assumed that the Canadians did hot play good golf. One of them. W. J. S. Gordon, broke the club amateur record for the links for eighteen holes in the second round, his total being 82 as against 84, the best previous record. The total also came within one of equaling the best professional record, held by Stoddart, the Country Club professional. The star per-formance of the day was made by Quincy A. Shaw, Jr., in the first half of the second round. His total of 38 breaks both amateur and pro-fessional records for nine holes. Two years ago Douglas, the professional, did nine holes in 38 strokes on the Country Club links, but at that time the course was very much shorter than at present, hence Mr. Shaw's stands as follows: 5, 4, 3, 4, 4, 4, 5, 5, Mr. Shaw did the second half of the second round in 44 strokes, and his total of X2 has the same distinction as which not only interfered with the playing, but is to also fight scenar on who by 12 holes, but in the second round he simply " played horse" with Mr. Leeds, and won by 12 holes, strokes were decided accurate, and he played ince on entirely familiar with the links. Al-hough the day was disagreeable, the sod was in fig condition, and the links presented a pretty spectacle with the host of red-coated golfers. The accurate by 70 holes. The latter's strokes were decided paceurate, and he played

WANT TO STAY IN THE SERVICE.

Col. Wilder Would Have the Fourteenth N. Y. V. Kept for Garrison Duty.

A movement to keep the Fourteenth Regiment, New York Volunteers, in active service, it was said yesterday, is under way in the organization. Six hundred or more of the men desire to remain as United States Volunteers, desire to remnin as United States Volunteers, and the general impression is that this fact will be taken into consideration by the War Department. Col. Wilder, it is said, is endeavor-ing to have the organization detailed for gar-rison duty either in Porto Rico or the Philip-pines. Lieut-Col. Kline does not believe that the order calling for the mustering out of the regiment will be changed. All of the members of the regiment have been ordered to report at the armory on Monday. Oct. 17.
