TO-DAY'S WIRE WILL BE SENSATIONAL IN ITS CONTENTS.

The Maxim & Gay Company is nearing the close of an Eastern season, in which its success has figured as the year's turf sensation. Its policy has been liberal, but during the remainder of this month it purposes to spend money unstintedly, even lavishly, to obtain such information as will enable it to furnish its clients winners at good odds daily, and compel recognition of the Maxim & Gay Co. by every horseman from Maine to California. To-day's wire will be a sample of what a renewal of energy and large expense of cash can secure in the way of winning information. Next week's will cap the climax.

Wire ready for delivery to local patrons at our office at no m daily. Telegraphed to out-of-town ellents at 10:30 A.M. Terms 85 daily; 820 per week. Special Rate for balance of Morris Park meeting (11 racing days), 830. WE DO NOT PLACE COMMISSIONS.

NEWS OF THE WHEELMEN. Club Runs Reviving for October - Michael a Money Winner.

The only century run on for to-morrow is that of the Cladin Wheelmen, who conducted a very successful run of this kind last June for the first time. To-morrow the club will have a run from Redford Rest to Coney Island Jamaica, Freeport, East Williston, Hicksville, Amity ville, Freeport, Valley Stream, Richmond Hill and back to the start. This is a new route. The start will be made at 6 o clock, and post entries at 50 cents can be made. The run is open to all.

During October some of the clubs have resumed the habit of issuing a weekly schedule of runs. They are among the clubs that took a rest during the summer. The following this runs are scheduled for to-morrow: chib runs are scheduled for to-morrow.

winning show horse, The Dutchman, owned by F Neagle of this city, to J J Scannell of New York, was amounted to-day. The price was $1,000. The Dutchman is a beautiful bay of splendid action and perfect conformation and has won a large number of blue ribbons at Western shows.

Haseball Notes.

Delchanty, the Philadelphia slugger, was in the city yesterday. The player who does not sign in whichever league will pay him the most money is a foel, he observed. Charley Nichols, the Boston pitcher, had his nose broken at Webster, Mass, on Thursday. He was to have played short with the Bostons against Webster, but while practising a ball struck him in the face breaking his nose.

Following the report that George Davis has signed with the American League comes one that Joe Kelley, of Brooklyn, has signed with the Baltimore American League team. It is high time the National League was making a few announcements of American League stars secured. Davis said yesterday that he had not signed with the American League, but had received an offer of him more than he is getting in the National League and had the offer under consideration.
