DALESMAN'S GREAT AMERICAN

KEENE'S COLT DEFEATS ARTVIS IN THE RICH STAKE.

Covers Five Furlongs in 1:00 and Wins by Five Inches—Broadway Stakes a Walkover for Old England—Col. Bill, With Light Weight, Beats Gold Heels.

Though the weather was threatening all the afternoon, 20,000 racing enthusiasts went to Gravesend yesterday, attracted by a particularly fine card and what seemed a fairly easy problem in the art of picking winners. The Great American Stakes of $12,500, for two-year-olds, at five furlongs, and the Broadway Stakes, for three-year-olds, at a mile and a sixteenth, were the special features, and [illegible] favorites won both of them. In only [illegible] other event, however, did a first choice [illegible] home in front, so that the battle between [illegible] and layers was about a stand-off.

J. R. and F. P. Keene's Dalesman, by Ben Brush—Innerdale, who has all along been considered the best of the two-year-old colts, barring August Belmont's Mizzen, was the winner of the Great American, but it was only by a nose. Dalesman and his stable mate, Injunction, by St. Leonards—Prolation II., were coupled favorites, opening at 4 to 5, but going back to a general closing price of 9 to 5, and in some books 2 to 1. S. S. Brown's Martie Lewis, by Sir Dixon—Lady Wayward, was widely played at threes and was second choice, while Green B. Morris's Artvis, by Golden Garter—Memento, was worked down from fives to 7 to 2. C. H. Mackay's Mexican, by Mirthful—Llandrino, was supported at eights. Mexican, carrying 122 pounds, conceded weight to all of the others. There was quite a delay at the post, chiefly caused by the unruly conduct of Mexican, whose rider, Burns, suffered a penalty of three days on the ground and a fine of $100 in consequence.

When Starter Fitzgerald raised the barrier to a field of ten J. B. Haggin's Sir Voorheis and Dalesman left the post in front, followed by Artvis and Pebble with alacrity. But Martie Lewis disappointed her army of backers by getting away so slowly that she was [illegible] from last. As in previous races, however, Capt. Brown's filly soon got into her stride and began to make up the lost ground. Before the first sixteenth had been covered Artvis had assumed the lead at a cracking pace, with Shaw next, keeping Dalesman well in hand. Sir Voorheis and Mexican came next, with Martie Lewis overhauling them at the middle of the turn. McCue began riding Artvis at the top of the stretch, as Shaw had let Dalesman down. The latter quickly rushed to the front. As Artvis continued to make a gallant fight for the lead, which was held only by a head by Dalesman, Shaw was compelled to ride the son of Ben Brush with all of his well-known skill. Dalesman's head was in front still at a point fifty yards from the wire, but he seemed to be wavering, and Artvis looked as if he would get up after all. With three or four strides left their noses were even, but Shaw got just one more effort out of the Keene colt and he got the verdict by perhaps five inches. There was a tremendous cheer when the numbers were hoisted, also when the time, 1:00 flat, was hung out. Martie Lewis beat Mexican by a neck for third money, with Sir Voorheis fifth, a length back. Dalesman's time was a new record for the Great American and two-fifths of a second slower than the track record.

According to the original list of entries, the Broadway Stakes looked to be a most interesting affair, but the scratches made it a virtual walkover for Green B. Morris's Old England, by Goldfinch—Queen Bess, who was sent to the post a 1 to 20 favorite to beat Sun Shower and Connecticut. The public at large confined its speculation to choosing between the two latter for the place, with Connecticut having the preference.

Old England simply galloped out in front with a lead of eight lengths along the backstretch and had such an easy thing that Bullman was enjoying a pleasant dream in the middle of the stretch when Redfern came stealing up by the rail with Sun Shower in such a threatening manner that the crowd cried out in alarm. Then Bullman, when Sun Shower was at Old England's saddle girths, awoke and laid on the whip a couple of times, with the result that the big gelding romped away with the money an easy winner by two lengths in 1:47 2-5, new time for the race.

The $1,200 handicap at a mile and a furlong was particularly noteworthy for the presence of the present choices for the Suburban, Frank Farrell's Blues, by Sir Dixon—Bonnie Blue II., and Gen. F. C. McLewee's Gold Heels, by The Bard—Heel and Toe. Gold Heels shouldered top weight, 126 pounds, while Blues took up 125. Blues, with Shaw up, was a hot favorite, Owner Farrell and his associates deluging the ring with big commissions, which reduced the colt's price to 6 to 5. Gold Heels, meanwhile, receded to threes, while Green B. Morris's three-year-old Homestead, third in demand, went back to eights. While at the post Blues and Homestead kicked up a rumpus and when the field of nine was sent away, the latter bumped the Farrell colt so hard that he got away last. With such a handicap early in the game, Shaw found himself pocketed and was unable to get through until far up the backstretch. J. J. Madden's three-year-old colt Col. Bill, by Wagner—Mattie T., carrying 90 pounds, [illegible] away at great speed and attended by W. C. Daly's Trump, he made the running around the lower turn and up the backstretch, while those who had accepted 12 to 1 against his chances yelled for joy. Trump blew up after going a quarter of a mile and Gold Heels, with O'Connor up, went after the pacemaker. Nearing the far turn Blues joined Gold Heels and together they hustled Col. Bill, who was still full of running. Though it was expected that the Madden colt would quit when he got into the stretch, he proved to be a stayer and standing a long, severe drive from Redfern he stalled off the plucky rush of Gold Heels and won by half a length in 1:52 1-5, 6 fifths of a second behind Contend's track record. Blues tired and was beaten four lengths for the place, with Homestead three lengths away.

With Cobourg, Col. Padden and Rossignol withdrawn from the first event, a highweight handicap for all ages at about six furlongs, David Gideon's speedy filly Josepha, by Goldfinch—Bavaria, was a warm favorite at 13 to 10. But there was a persistent rumor about H. Graham's Khitai which forced the layers to keep him down to threes. Enright showed in front soon after leaving the post with Khitai racing with him, neck and neck. Josepha joined them at the top of the stretch, where Enright began to back up. After that it was a fierce duel between Josepha and Khitai, the former winning on the post by a head, and the latter holding the place with three lengths over Fair Knight, 12 to 1. The time was 1:10 3-5.

For the fifth race, a selling event for beaten two-year-olds at five furlongs, there was a field of fourteen, yet the talent confidently made J. J. McCafferty's Joe Cobb, by Esher—Eeseen, a 5 to 2 favorite. Andrew Miller's Cinquevalli was second pick at fours, with plenty of backing for Faust, Gloriosa, Blue Delft, Blue and Orange and Birch Broom, their prices ranging from fives to eights. When they got to the post Cinquevalli promptly broke through the barrier, causing a delay of fifteen minutes for repairs. The jockeys dismounted and the horses were led around in a circle, while the band played "Oh, Dear, What Can the Matter Be?" At last they were sent away and the crowd groaned as Joe Cobb propped himself and was left. Cinquevalli got away flying and Bullman, taking no chances, kept him going, so that he won in a drive by half a length in 1:01 1-5. Faust took the place from Gloriosa by seven lengths, with Blue and Orange two lengths away.

The closing event, for platers at a mile and seventy yards, was the biggest kind of a tumble for the form players, who plunged on Louis Stuart's Prince Richard and sent him to the post a 7 to 5 favorite. A. L. Aste's King Bramble and G. A. Muller's The Puritan were also loaded with money at 4 to 1 and 5 to 1 respectively, while "Pittsburg Phil's" commissions reduced John W. Schorr's H. L. Coleman from tens to eights. "Father Bill" Daly's Locket, 20 to 1, proceeded to make a runaway of it, but going up the backstretch Lucky Star, 12 to 1, who ran for the first time in the name and colors of J. J. McCafferty, closed on the Daly colt and together they had the race to themselves. Coming down the stretch Lucky Star drew away and won in a romp by three lengths in 1:45 3-5, Locket keeping the place by a length from Cougar, 40 to 1, who beat H. L. Coleman a neck. Odom was unable to get the favorite out of the ruck, while The Puritan fell in the stretch. Lucky Star accidentally displayed a shining reversal of form in the estimating of those who made him a favorite last Thursday and then saw him finish sixth, badly beaten by an inferior horse. The summary:

RACING IN ENGLAND.

Santoi Beats Volodyovski in Coronation Commemoration Stakes.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

LONDON, June 7.—The race for the Kempton Park Two-Year-Old Plate of 1,000 sovereigns at Kempton Park to-day was won by Lord Dunraven's Salute, ridden by "Skeets" Martin. Sir E. Vincent's Principality was second and W. C. Whitney's Ayrshire Beauty third. An objection was lodged against Salute with the stewards. "Clem" Jenkins had the mount on Ayrshire Beauty.

The objection to Lord Dunraven's Salute was a technical one and was to the effect that the breeding allowance had not been claimed at the time of entry. It will be settled by the stewards on Monday.

The Coronation Commemoration Stakes of 50 sovereigns each, 20 sovereigns forfeit, 1,000 sovereigns added, was won by George Edwardes's Santoi. W. C. Whitney's Volodyovski was second and T. Simpson Jay's Floriform third.

At St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, June 7.—The fourth event, the Club Members' Handicap, with $2,000 added money, was the feature race at the Fair Grounds to-day. The race went to Searcher, S. C. Hildreth's gelding, shipped from Chicago for this event. A new track record of 2:05 for a mile and a quarter was established. Summary:

First Race—One mile and 70 yards—Don Luis, 108 (Dominick), 5 to 1, won; Foerys, 104 (Watson), 12 to 1, second; Favernet, 101 (Smith), 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:46½.

Second Race—One mile—Lillian M., 107 (Watson), 3 to 1, won; Precisely, 108 (Dale), 7 to 1, second; Jessie J., 98 (Earl), 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:41.

Third Race—One mile and 70 yards—Balloon, 102 (Earl), 4 to 1, won; Hansborough, 108 (Matthews), 12 to 1, second; Ben O'Fallon, 108 (Narvaez), 30 to 1, third. Time, 1:45¾.

Fourth Race—Club Members' Handicap; one mile and a quarter—Searcher, 104 (Coburn), 8 to 1, won; Terra Firma, 107 (Dominick), 8 to 1, second; South Breeze, 98 (Ransch), 6 to 1, third. Time, 2:05.

Fifth Race—One mile and 70 yards—Frank McConnell, 108 (Young), 10 to 1, won; Branch, 108 (Dominick), even, second; Gilbert, 103 (Coburn), 7 to 2, third. Time, 1:46.

Sixth Race—Six furlongs—Crimean, 112 (O'Neill), 5 to 2, won; Fitzkanet, 103 (Goodyear), 5 to 1, second; Aloger, 112 (Ransch), 8 to 5, third. Time, 1:14.

Seventh Race—One mile and 70 yards—Monos, 108 (Coburn), 9 to 5, won; Ladas, 108 (Donegan), 8 to 1, second; Cogswell, 101 (Bell), 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:47¼.

At Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 7.—Moabina, backed from 50 to 1 down to 15 at post time, won the Riverside Stakes at Harlem this afternoon in a sea of mud and in a heavy downpour of rain. Incidentally, the victory of the filly resulted in the biggest killing of the local season. Summaries:

First Race—One mile and 70 yards—Last Knight, 97 (McInture), 4 to 1, won; Bedeck, 107 (Knight), 8 to 1, second; Miss Liza, 107 (Hoar), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:48 3-5.

Second Race—Six furlongs—Gonfalon, 103 (Birkenruth), 1 to 4, won; Rabunta, 101 (Seaton), 15 to 1, second; Regea, 99 (Dean), 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:16 2-5.

Third Race—Five furlongs—Von Rouse, 104 (Lyne), 2 to 5, won; Mirance, 97 (W. Waldo), 25 to 1, second; Watkins Overton, 100 (Birkenruth), 13 to 1, third. Time, 1:06 1-5.

Fourth Race—The Riverside Stakes, $1,500 added; one mile—Moabina, 93 (Sheehan), 30 to 1, won; Harry New, 106 (Otis), 8 to 1, second; Lucien Appleby, 106 (Birkenruth), 4 to 5, third. Time, 1:48 3-5.

Fifth Race—One mile and a sixteenth—Articulate, 110 (Lyne), 9 to 20, won; Autolight, 101 (Knight), 3 to 1, second; Prima, 98 (Hoar), 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:56 1-5.

Sixth Race—Seven furlongs—Prowl, 100 (Davisson), 5 to 1, won; Pyrrho, 100 (Otis), 5 to 2, second; Ethel Wheat, 103 (Lyne), 9 to 2, third. Time, 1:33 4-5.

At Hamilton.

HAMILTON, June 7.—The Hamilton meeting came to a close to-day. The weather was threatening but no rain fell and the largest crowd of the week was on hand. Summaries:

First Race—Seven furlongs—Magentic, 116 (Dangman), 7 to 10, won; Filibuster, 103 (J. Thompson), 4 to 1, second; Apple Jack, 109 (T. Walker), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:29⅘.

Second Race—Four and a half furlongs—Skulpin, 113 (Blake), 5 to 1, won; Woolsack, 110 (Wainwright), 11 to 5, second; Hallucination, 110 (McClusky), 7 to 5, third. Time, 0:56⅗.

Third Race—Hamilton Cup Handicap; one mile and a half—Obstinate Simon, 110 (Blake), 6 to 5, won; Butter Scotch, 91 (Wainwright), 7 to 1, second; Frank McKee, 88 (M. Johnson), 5 to 1, third. Time, 2:39.

Fourth Race—Five and a half furlongs—Tiffany, 108 (Blake), 5 to 1, won; Bedlington, 105 (Dangman), 6 to 1, second; New Amsterdam, 102 (Ellis), 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:09½.

Fifth Race—Six furlongs—Young Henry, 114 (Wainwright), 3 to 1, won; Andrattus, 106 (A. Jones), 10 to 1, second; Cad Hazel, 108 (McClusky), 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:15.

Sixth Race—The Gate Selling Steeplechase; about three miles—Highte, 154 (Gallagher), 1 to 2, won; Mango, 150 (C. Johnson), 3 to 1, second; Bromo, 150 (Mattocks), 7 to 1, third. Time, 6:27¼.

Turf Notes.

Bullman was suspended for one day and fined $50 for breaking the barrier with Cinquevalli in the fifth race yesterday.

At the Seney Hospital last night it was said that the condition of Jockey Alfred Booker was unchanged. He has been unconscious since Decoration Day.

Ed Peters yesterday bought Navigator and Plunger from J. H. Carr. Senator P. H. McCarren also purchased Jack De Mund from Newton Bennington.

Kings County Tennis Club Tourney.

The Canadian baseline expert, Frederick G. Anderson, yesterday won the champion's title in the open tournament on the courts of the Kings County Tennis Club in Brooklyn. Wylie C. Grant and Robert Le Roy gained the honors in the doubles after a hotly contested four-set match. The remaining events will be finished to-morrow. The summary:

Championship Singles—Final Round—Frederick G. Anderson, Kings County Tennis Club, defeated Lyle E. Mahan, Columbia University, 10—8, 9—7, 6—8.

Championship Doubles—Final round—Wylie C. Grant and Robert LeRoy, New York Tennis Club, defeated Frank B. Hague and Frederick W. Heitkamp, Kings County Tennis Club, 10—8, 8—10, 7—5, 6—1.

Dixon and Lenny Box a Draw at Chester.

At Chester, Pa., on Friday night before the Chester A. C., George Dixon and Eddie Lenny of Philadelphia fought a rattling six-round draw. Dixon was just as clever as ever and the crowd applauded him frequently. However, his blows lacked steam. His fine defence work saved him on several occasions. After the bout the ex-featherweight champion was driven around the city in a barouche, headed by a brass band.

IN THE BASEBALL WORLD.

PHILLIPPE'S FINE PITCHING TOO MUCH FOR NEW YORKS.

Quakers Break Even With St. Louis and Pass Harlemites—Brooklyns Win Two Games From the Chicagos—Rain at Boston—Results of Other Contests.

The New Yorks tumbled back into the second division yesterday. They were whitewashed by Pittsburg and the Philadelphias broke even in the double header with St. Louis. The Brooklyns won twice from the Chicagos and the Boston-Cincinnati game was postponed on account of rain. The results and record follow:

Pittsburg, 6; New York, 0.
Brooklyn, 2; Chicago, 1—First game.
Brooklyn, 5; Chicago, 3—Second game.
Philadelphia, 5; St. Louis, 1—First game.
St. Louis, 7; Philadelphia, 0—Second game.
At Boston—Rain.

PITTSBURG, 6; NEW YORK, 0.

The masterly twirling of Phillippe, the debonair, encompassed the downfall of the New Yorks at the Polo Grounds yesterday. The Pirate boxman gave a finished exhibition of pitching. His control was faultless and his method the epitome of all that was artistic. No New Yorker made the circuit of the bases, only four got to first base, only one to second and not one to third. So thoroughly were the Harlemites subjugated by the craft and power of Phillippe that their chances of scoring were as dim as the sun and that orb was invisible. All of the Pittsburgs played ball that was clean-cut and impressive. Theirs was the pace that kills the opposition. Theirs was the game that attains championships. They lost no time in striking a winning stride. A triple, a single and a double rattled off their bats in succession in the first inning. Two runs resulted. Two hits and a sacrifice gave them a run in the third. Beaumont's bunt, Wagner's sacrifice, Ritchey's double and Ritchey's steal home on Leach's bluff steal of second gave them two counts in the fifth. In the ninth Phillippe jolted the ball into the right field seats and bore in the sixth tally. Exceptionally good fielding was done by Doyle and Ritchey. Doyle was all over and in all attitudes making plays and had there been three or four of him the Pittsburgs would not have fared so well as six of their ten hits went to right. The score:

BROOKLYN, 2; CHICAGO, 1—FIRST GAME.

The Brooklyns were the better batters yesterday at Washington Park and won two games from the Chicagos. Newton was the star around which the others revolved in the first game. He gave the Chicagos only two hits and struck out nine of them. He also gave them their only run, making a wild throw to first with a man on first base. After Keeler had forced Dolan in the first inning Sheckard doubled, scoring Keeler, and McCreery's single scored Sheckard. There was free hitting on both sides in the second game, but Kitson, nevertheless, was effective. The Chicagos could not group their hits and Kitson was generally the boss of the situation. He struck out all three men in the sixth inning. Not satisfied with being in the lead the Brooklyns resorted to kicking in the fifth inning, a decision at first base calling forth their grumble. The scores:

COLUMBIA CREWS COMPETE.

Eight-Oared Race Won by Second 'Varsity Crew—Other Events.

Columbia's commencement regatta was held yesterday afternoon off the Gould boathouse on the Hudson. The water was unusually favorable for the Hudson and there was scarcely any head wind to deter the crews. The greatest interest was in the eight-oared race, as it furnished the first opportunity to Columbia adherents to see the Poughkeepsie 'Varsity in its new combination. Three crews lined up opposite 125th street and started downstream with the tide. For the first few hundred yards the crews rowed abreast. Bradley of the second 'Varsity eight was the first to raise the stroke above 34 and his crew gradually moved to the fore. The 'Varsity was gaining on the freshmen, but Rollins kept the stroke down to 34, apparently following Coach Harlan's orders. Near the finish the second crew increased its stroke to 40 and came in half a length ahead of the senior crew. The freshmen lagged two lengths in the rear. Unknown to the spectators, however, the captains had arranged to row a three-mile race and the 'Varsity by its steadiness won out by a length from the junior crew.

The first heat in the four-oared race was marred by two fouls. The juniors won by half a length from the seniors. In the second heat the sophomores steered far from their course and narrowly escaped a collision with a tug, which compelled them to stop rowing for a second and gave the freshmen the race. The graduate crew in the final heat contained J. A. B. Cowles, M. G. Bogue, and Charles Eldridge, '79, a substitute in the Columbia four which won at Henley in 1878. This crew had a handicap of 30 seconds and a coxswain, advantages which the other boats could not overcome. The crew rowing an out-of-date stroke won by half a length from the juniors, who led the freshmen by over a length. Alexander J. Fraser had no difficulty in winning the single scull event. The summaries:

Interclass Fours—Won by graduate four, 30 seconds; junior four, scratch, second; freshman four, third.

Pair oared Gigs—Won by Freshman crew composed of A. MacKenzie, bow; J. B. Lamont, stroke; second freshman crew, second.

Single Sculls—Won by Alexander J. Fraser, '04, science; Rudolf L. Von Bermuth, '04, college, second.

Eight oared Shells—Won by second 'Varsity crew composed of Arthur B. Hull, bow; Edwin H. Updike, 2; Jarvis P. Carter, 3; John S. Maeder, 4; Victor de la M. Earle, 5; A. Nicoll, 6; Bruce McL. Falconer, 7; Allen B. A. Bradley, stroke; James Myers, coxswain; first 'Varsity crew, second, composed of Arthur D. Weekes, '02, college, bow; Roland P. Jackson, '02, college, 2; Robert B. Bartholomew, '03, college, 3; Henry C. Townsend, '03, college, 4; Richard S. Smith, '04, law, 5; Lewis Iselin, '03, college, 6; Gerald S. O'Laughlin, '03, college, 7; William F. Rollins, '04, college, stroke; William P. Comstock, '03, college, coxswain; first freshman crew, third, composed of R. H. Hubbard, bow; A. W. Atkins, 2; A. MacKenzie, 3; J. B. Lamont, 4; M. L. Cornell, 5; A. C. Scott, 6; B. M. Wheeler, 7; R. S. Pierrepont, stroke; Chester C. Cuthel, coxswain.

Jack O'Brien Knocks Out Al Neill.

CHICAGO, June 7.—Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia knocked out Al Neill of San Francisco in the third round of what was scheduled as a six-round bout before the Wabash Athletic Club last night. Neill was sent to the floor in the first round with a left swing on the jaw. In the second round O'Brien hammered his man all over the ring, and in the third and last round O'Brien sent in a terrific left upper cut that sent Neill through the ropes to the floor below. He was unable to get on the platform again before the referee had counted him out.

KNICKERBOCKER Y. C. REGATTA.

Thirty-four Yachts Start in the Annual Event on the Sound.

The annual regatta of the Knickerbocker Yacht Club was sailed on the Sound yesterday. Thirty-four yachts started off the clubhouse at College Point and raced as far as the Gangway Buoy and return, a distance of 14½ miles. The wind was light from the southwest and the yachts had a reach all over the course. Those yachts owned by members of the club raced for the Alcedo cup and the Miladi won. This is the second time that the Miladi has won and the trophy becomes the property of Commodore Mason.

In the 43-foot class the Effort finished first, but the Mira and Effort will have to be measured in order to decide which wins as the boats were very close together. The members of the club and their friends witnessed the races from the steamer Favorite. The committee in charge of the races were F. E. Barnes, chairman; O. H. Chellborg, Harry Stephenson, C. W. Schlesinger, Rodman Sands and J. O. Sinkinson. The table follows:

Al Smith Sails for England.

Al Smith, the veteran stakeholder, was a passenger on the Lucania of the Cunard Line which sailed for England yesterday. Smith, besides taking $5,000 representing the outside wager of the Sharkey-Ruhlin mill, also had the forfeits for all the contests between the American pugilists who are to figure in the fistic carnival of the National Sporting Club. A large number of sports went to the pier to see Smith off. Among those on hand were Pat Sheedy, Barney Aaron, Jim Guerin, Ben Benton, George Lawrence and L. Saunders. This will be Smith's first trip abroad in twelve years. He expects to return in about two months. Smith is going to England as a special guest of the noted English club.
