

has just day and is as twentys.
Duffy's

33, 1902. of age. I was 53 good day and great affy's Puro It's the rodent to ritual it.
ILLER.

KEY ADMITTED to come, OUR Flannels —coolest bits you can weights and to go — Hats

65
Chambers St.

ys old days except NO SUN
news.
This when the o them-ing that D. THE el. has is, which ed and s correthey are and about here are SEHOLD, SHOPS cial in-way

Sun
It is a it with st-paid to United xico or month.
post-office

News
ately told. acing and authorita-

5. SICK.
George William is sick with to live. He is for the Florida to Boston. He is a it with st-paid to United xico or month.

post-office

Yacht Hamilton Gets Berdston in Flight
With Tommy Sullivan.

Ferguson July 8.—Jack Hamilton of Tree of the Union over Tommy Sullivan of Brooklyn at the Bijou Theatre last night in the twenty round bout held under the auspices of the West Side A. C. It was a no fight at the time. Hamilton had more points than Sullivan, but the latter was clever and would have won in a sparring match. In the fifth round Sullivan stopped fighting, stating that he had been flogged so much that he could not stand up. Both were badly battered, but Hamilton was the stronger boxer. In the practice Charlie Green knocked out Jim Roberts in the fourth round in a contest that was to have gone ten rounds at each weight.

Champion Beats Two Men in Motor Pace Race.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 8.—Albert Champion, the French cyclist, at the Coliseum to-night won the twenty-mile motor-paced race in 29 minutes 16 seconds. His speed was faster than that of Willie S. Fagan of New Haven, who rode the first ten miles and Jimmie Hunter of Boston for the last ten miles. The other contestants were Tom Ferguson and Leo of Canada and Billie and Dally of New York, the former team winning in 35 seconds.

Yacht La Rita Wins Lipton Cup.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 8.—La Rita is the winner of the Sir Thomas Lipton cup for the present sailing season. Her percentage being 200 to 100 for Ariva IV, so for Starts and for Privates. Yesterday La Rita won the last race of the series of three.

Hundreds of Clever Advertisers make intelligent and discerning citizens male and female have learned that ordinary advertisers supply

YANKEE OUTSAILS EMERALD.

FINE RACE IN ATLANTIC Y. C.
CRUISE TO NEW LONDON.

Emerald First to Cross the Line, but the Yankee Takes the Honors on Corrected Time by 49 Seconds. Match Races Add Interest to the Sport of the Day.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 8.—The Atlantic Yacht Club took a fine showing in the horse race. Several steam yachts are racing and on the sailing vessels the lights are burned which makes the game very brilliant. The man who wins the most is very good one, and in a race such as this one was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Yankee's last race was made J. Rogers of the Yankee and William E. Duffy's boat, although not racing together, had a race and in the end the Yankee beat the Emerald by 49 seconds. The Emerald was the first boat to cross the finishing line but the Yankee started five minutes after the former and was beaten that time because she had ended her race.

The Sunday Sun

What It Means to Be a Regular Reader of The

SUNDAY SUN

THE POSSESSION OF DISCRIMINATING TASTE, THE RECOGNITION OF AUTHORITY, A LIVELY APPRECIATION OF A GOOD LITERARY BARGAIN, A LOVE OF THE HUMAN RACE, WITH A WARM CHARITY FOR ITS WEAKNESSES, A HATRED OF HUMBUG AND FOOL SENSATIONALISM.

What THE SUNDAY SUN Costs:

At the newsstand: 5 cents a copy.

By mail: 40 cents a month.

By mail abroad: 40 cents a month.

CHARLES M. SCHWAB DONATES THE MATERIAL FOR THREE PLACES IN THE CITY.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, presented the material for three places in the city.

SECRETARIES M. Butler of the Standard Oil Company, American Antelope, West Side, and Frank G. Moore of