Borough President Jacob A. Cantor, who ince election has been to the Pacific Coast. maid vesterday:

Wherever I went through the West I was asked about Judge Alton B. Parker. Naturally whenever the Democrats of size are talked of the names of Cleveland, Olney, Gorman, Hill and Bryan are mentioned; yet when the conversation turns to the candidate to oppose Mr. Roosevelt in 1904, none of these are treated so seriously as the ossibility of a new man. Judge Parker is known to the people out that way only by reputation of course yet I was asked on every side if it was not peobable that he would have been elected. My answer was yes, that he would have won by 50,000. They look on a man who would have carried New York State as a candidate to be figured

"Senator Hill's presumed candidacy for the Presidency is regarded as being finally With the whole campaign in his own hands, with a candidate of his own icking and a platform framed on his own ideas, he lost and went down and out for all time. He wasted an opportunity to win. The overwhelming sentiment of the convention was for Judge Parker, and he founded: would have taken the nomination had it come to him unanimously.

Senator Hill is associated in the Demoratic mind with the fact that he brought defeat at a time when everything was favorable for victory. It is doubtful it such i which the Low administration had in that vote he said:

"The Low administration is now at its worst. We have not had an opportunity to show results. The people expect quick results, and it is impossible to get them. I am as much responsible for the short-comings of the Low administration as any one. The people will not be able to see the beneficent results of this administration clearly for another year." clearly for another year."

Then President Cantor said he could not understand the praise of Leader Murphy of Tammany Hall because of the big vote in New York.

"Murphy had no more to do with that than my hat," said President Cantor. "He knows it, too. I see it is assumed that Mr. Murphy's candidate for Mayor will be George B. McClellan. Congressman McClellan is a mighty good fellow and would make a good Mayor. But if he is going to be nominated as Murphy's man it is doubtful if he can be elected. The day of the boss-ridden Mayor has gone by. The people are going to have a Mayor who won't take orders from a boss, and they won't elect a man unless he shows that he

"I don't see that Murphy has had a chance to show whether he is the leader of Tam-many Hall. some paper since I got back a remark that Senator Platt might renominate Mayor Low if the Mayor would show a disposition to be good to the Senator. Mayor Low can't be good enough to Senator Platt to get a renomination. The Mayor can't give him the patronage he wants. There are so few places out of the classified civil service that there is no one to-day who is satisfied with the arrangement of patronage. For my part I shall not try to break down the classified civil service, for I believe that the man who tries it

HELP FOR POOR VOUNGSTERS. SELLING OUT ELKA GORDON. Some of the Children's Ald Society Wards Have Landed High in Life.

The Children's Aid Society held its annual meeting yesterday, at which officers were elected and its fiftieth annual report was presented. William Church Osborn, president; Charles E. Whitehead, vicepresident: A. B. Hepburn, treasurer, and C. Loring Brace, secretary, were reflected, and A. B. Hepburn, D. Willis James, Douglas Robinson and Gustav E. Kissel were reëlected trustees to serve three years. The yearly report shows a remarkable growth in the extent of the society's labors among the children of the poor. In all 55,106 children were cared for by the soin summer homes, 9,307 received aid in their homes, 4,226 were cared for in lodging houses, 300 were placed under the care of probation officers, the sick mission treated 1.486 and 712 were assisted to emigrate. 1.486 and 712 were assisted to emission the states that in the nineteen day and eight evening schools the average daily attendance was 7,997.

The industrial schools

tigated the homes of needy pupils, and in many cases the tamilies were aided. The causes of poverty were learned and in the cases investigated it was found that 2,316 children and adults were in reduced cir-cumstances because of the death of the chief wage carner; 1,699 because of illness; 1,857 because the wage earners were out of work; 5,248 on account of irregularity of work due to natural causes and 2,009 from irregularity f employment due to drink or shiftlessness.

The report has this to say of the work done among orphaus since the society was favorable for victory. It is doubtful if such a propitious combination of circumstances will be offered to the Democracy for years to come. With the coal strike, the trust questions and the dissatisfaction with the Low administration the Democracy had its great apportunity, and Hill kept the party from avaning itself of it.

"The Sararoga convention was an open one—open to Hill only. It was quite open until Hill picked the candidate."

President Cantor was asked if he looked for harmonious conditions in the Democracy in the next two years.

"There's going to be trouble and plenty of it," he replied. "The next State convention will not be bossed by Hill or any other one man."

The auction sale of the furniture of Mrs Elka Gordon, the friend of Claude Stillman defaulting cashier of the Murphy Varnish Company of Newark, was begun yesterday in the house at 249 West 101st street. It didn't end yesterday. One reason was ciety in one way or another. Of these that there were nearly a thousand articles 16,364 were pupils in industrial schools to be sold. Another reason was that Gov. conducted by the society, 19,562 were placed | Franklin Murphy's Newark lawyers served some legal papers on the auctioneer which had the effect of a last call without "fair warning" on Article III.

The auction sale was adjourned without any explanation, but the auctioneer later plastered the house with signs which said that it would be resumed at 10:30 A. M., o-day, and it was announced that a satisfactory arrangement had been made by which the sale would proceed to its end. The auctioneer said he had been served with a temporary injunction restraining him from proceeding. It was sworn to by an official of the Murphy Varnish Company who had an idea that Stillman had paid for the furniture as well as for the touse in which it was put.

Mrs. Gordon was very much disturbed ver the matter and called up the aucioneer several times on the telephone learn how everything was coming out.

The auction sale brought out a perfect horde of people, some of whom were hungry for bargains, and some of whom hirsted to satisfy their curiosity. The house was so full when the auctioneer house was so full when the auctioneer began that he had to perch on one of Mrs. Gordon's brass beisteads, and under his weight it sagged and tottered until it was finally knocked down at something Mrs. Gordon was not there, much to
