The Century Dictionary of Holiday Information and Suggestions

JUST as the Century Dictionary presents the sum of the whole world, arranged in alphabetical order, so in these pages, we present to you a collection of facts and suggestions for the season of the year. The articles are arranged in alphabetical order, and the reader is invited to search through the pages for information on any particular subject.

That Piano

Do You Know How Easily You Can Buy It?

We've made the easiest terms you ever heard of, so that you can select the piano you want.

If you want to buy a thoroughly good and worthy piano, the lowest possible price for such a fully guaranteed piano can be bought—choose

A Frederick Doll at $185
Or a J. C. Campbell at $190
No equal pianos were ever so conveniently good, fairly, and surreptitiously guaranteed, at their prices.

Your Need Only Pay Only $10 Cash Advance, and Afterwards

The tone of both of these pianos is far above that of other pianos at about two thirds the price, and they are in every respect as modern and handsome as any particular; making a delightful addition to the home.

If you think it worth while putting off buying a piano until you have more money, we will put you on the roll and give you a $10 credit. Up to the Day Before Christmas

Where a Little Christmas Money Goes a Long Way

Don't forget that a single dollar is the only payment before any one of our magnificent library Club sets is sent out.

With a long time—15, 19, 20 months—to pay the rest, let us take heed to all the stories, and tell those of you who are poor and aimless, that you can put away enough money by doing our work. The money is yours, and you can do it in a week.
