James R. Keene's Delbi was withdrawn from the $5,000 Cariton Stakes for three-yearfrom the $5,000 Carlton Stakes for three-yearolds at a mile, run at Gravesend yesterday, because of the sloppy track. S. S. Brown's Auditor and John A. Drake's Bobadil were also scratched for the same reason, leaving only three to go. Sydney Paget's Ormonde's Right was the choice, though he opened at 4 to 5 and went back to 11 to 10. R. T.
Wilson, Jr.'s, Montreson was second in favor, going up from 8 to 5 to 9 to 5, while M. L.
Hayman's Orthodox closed at 16 to 8. Redfern made all the running with Montreson. fern made all the running with Montreson, the Ornament colt standing a long drive to win by two lengths in 1:43 1-5. Ormonde's Right was the runner up at all stagesand finished ten lengths before Orthodox. Newton Bennington's crack three-year-old ally Beldame won a signal victory in the first event, for mares at about six furlongs. Fifteen were scratched from this event, Beldame ruling favorite at 1 to 2, with Mamie Worth going back from 7 to 5 to 5 to 1. Burns went to the front without delay with Mamie Worth. She led Beldame by several lengths to the turn, where the Octagon filly caught her and then went to the front, winning cleverly by a length. Mamie Worth was five lengths in front of Graceful, 8 to 1. The time was 1:11.

Mr. Bennington's unlucky Charles Elwood. who was a 7 to 10 favorite in the second race at a mile and a sixteenth, refused to break when the barrier went up and was left standwhen the barrier went up and was lett stand-ing stock still at the post. The winner turned up in P. J. Gorman's Bardolph, 20 to 1, who had a length over E. R. Thomas's Trepan, s to 1. J. L. Holland's Bob Murphy, 15 to 1, was third, half a length back. The race was run in 1:51 1-5.

Another crushing blow staggered the talent in the third race, for two-year-old fillies at five furiongs, when the National Stable's Belle Strome, a full sister to Eugenia Burch, was beaten. She was a 2 to 5 favorite, and was in front to the head of the stretch where Higgins allowed her to swing wide. Then Helgerson moved up with J. Gorman's Martha Gorman, backed down from 5 to 1 to 12 to 5, and in a red hot finish she beat Belle Strome a head in the last jump in 1:02. Sydney Paget's Clover Hampton, 15 to 1, was twenty a head in the last jump in 1.02. Sydney Paget's Clover Hampton, 15 to 1, was twenty lengths behind.

Mr. Bennington's Asteriak, 3 to 5 favorite, galloped off with the fifth race for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs, having four lengths to spare at the wire. Mr. Paget's Goldfleur, 8 to 1, collared the place from Ike

S., 30 to 1, by three lengths. First Born, second choice, was weakly ridden by Shaw. The time was 1:10 1-5.

The day wound up with a victory for E. R. Thomas's Duke of Kendal, 11 to 10 favorite, who won the handloap at a mile and a sixteenth without much trouble. He led al-ways and beat Wild Thyme, second choice, by a length in 1:49. Hello was third, ten lengths away. Four favorites were beaten and the ring had another afternoon of recuperation. The weather was cold and cloudy and the crowd was not more than 10,000.

ST. AMANT WINS ENGLISH DERBY Leads All the Way in a Heavy Rainsterm

Special Cable Despace to TEE SUR.
LONDON, June 1.—The Derby of 1904 was run on Epsom Downs to day and was won by Leopold de Rothschild's bay colt $t. Sir Tatton Sykes's bay colt John O' Gaunt was second and S. B. Joel's bay colt St. Denis

Only eight horses ran. The betting was 5 to 1 against St. Amant, 4 to 1 against John O' Gaunt and 50 to 1 against St. Denis.
Derby Day broke with a pelting rain falling. In consequence of the bad weather the Queen decided not to go to the race, and the great turf event lost many other of its most pic-turesque features. The travel from London to Epsom was the smallest known for years, most of the spectators going by rail.

Just before the horses turned out for the race a thunderstorm set in, and while the horses were at the post the thunder and lightning continued. St. Amant jumped off in the lead. J. Musker's Henry the First and M. E. Blanc's Gouvernant running lest. St. Amant continued to lead, and came in a winner by three lengths. There were six lengths between the second and third horses. F. Alexander's Andover was fourth. Henry the First came in fifth. D. J. Pullinger's Coxewain was sixth and Gouvernant and James R. Keene's Lancashire brought up the rear.

So heavy was the track that all the jockeys scaled two pounds overweight with mud when they returned to be weighed.

Mr. Rothschild received from the crowd a reception second only to the one given to the Prince of Wales, now the King, when his horse Persimmon won the Derby in 1886. continued. St. Ament jumped off in the

The Carlton Stakes has been won by some famous horses. Hanover, Sir Dixon and Handspring, in the Dwyers' colors, were ictorious in 1887, 1888 and 1896, respectively. The Keenes' Hornpipe and Commando took the race in 1894 and 1901, respectively, while the late W. C. Whitney's King Hanover and Reliable won respectively in 1902 and 1903. The other winners were Carroll, Kenwood, Russell, Charade, Prince George, Counter Tenor, Don de Oro, The Huguenot, Lotharlo and Standing. The record for the race is 1:39 2-5, held by Commando.

After Charles Elwood was left at the post, in the second race, yesterday, his owner, Newton Bennington, decided to sell him at auction. The Frestonpans colt has burned up so much money this year that he is entitled to the championship in this respect. Time and again Mr. Bennington has backed him, first in races with stake horses, then in selling affairs, but the colt has never failed to make the bookmakers hilariously happy.

Mr. Bennington had pinned a winning campaign against the layers before the races yesterday, starting Beldame in the first, Charles Elwood in the second, Asteriak in the fifth, and Hello in the sixth. He put a big commission on Beldame, who wen it for him in magnificent style. Then he plunged on Elwood, who apparently had a poor lot to beat. At the barrier O'Neill had him perfectly straight with the rest when Starter Fitzgerald gave the word, but the Frestonpans colt propped himself and was left while the crowd gave vent to their feelings in an unmistakable manner. in Rain and Fog. Gloomy weather did not cause a post-ponement of the women's tournament yester-day at the Wee Burn Golf Club and the "house warming" of the new clubhouse. There was more fun indoors than without, for the golfers more fun indoors than without, for the golfers had to play in a succession of showers and through pools of casual water, while a for also helped to make the rounds a semi-aquatic sport. Under the circumstances, low medai scores could not be expected, although Mrs. Sandford made her medal round in 163. The matches were fought out briskly, and the afternoon scores showed an improvement. The committee, Mrs. Wallace D. Barkley, Miss Saidee Williams and Miss Susan Howes, had the assistance of Charles H. Seely, the Connecticut champion, as scorer. Mr. Bennington attempted to pull out by wagering $500 at a clip all along the line on Belle Strome, in the third, but she was beaten a head. When the fifth race rolled around, the tail turfman did not unbelt with his usual liberality on Asterisk, who won galloping. Hello was severely let alone. E. M. Byers lost in this round to J. M. Williamson on the nineteenth hole.

W. W. Burton of the Ekwanok Ciub was beaten by Mr. Reade, for several years the Irish champion, 3 up and 3 to play.

In the fourth round Travis beat Mr. Reade by two heles in

Won the last four holes.

Neither Murray nor Reade, although the latter holds the Irish native amateur championship, which he won also in 1897 and 1896, are quite in the class with James Robb, whom Travis put out on Tuesday, and presumably yesterday was an easy day for the amateur champion. Robb, runner-up to A. J. T. Allan in 1897 and to H. H. Hilton in 1900, when the championship was last played at Sandwich, is the most prominent of the younger set of St. Andrews golfers and by many had been regarded as the logical winner this year. To beat him, although only by 1 up, must have made Travis feel that his trip has not been in vain.

Williamson, who beat Byers, is a scratch Musselburgh golfer. That W. W. Burton, who is the brother-in-law of Miss Mabel Higgins, should have lasted to the third round must have been largely due to the "luok of the draw." He is regarded as a "second sixteen" man here, and, receives ten strokes on the M. G. A. handleap list.

and his explanation was that the material with which the surface was recovered last year contained so much clay that he had found it impossible to keep it loose. "I realized that with continued dry, warm weather it would become worse," he said, "and I took steps that I believe will abate the annoyance and enable me to keep a nice cushion on the surface."

New harrows have been put in use and on Sunday last they were kept in use until the crowd necessitated withdrawing them. The result was that the surface was loose and yielding. The surface was thoroughly harrowed again on Monday and Tuesday and those who drove pronounced it beyond criticism.

The heavy rain has washed away all the loces dirt and the work will all have to be done over again, but the moisture in the soil will make it comparatively easy and if the declared intentions of the superintendent are carried out there will be no further cause for complaint.

DETROIT, June 1.—The New Yorks won the opening game to-day by all-round superior playing. Chesbro was invincible when the home team looked dangerous. There was here sensational work and the game was less interesting than the score seems to show. Keeler and Anderson excelled at the bat. The threatening rain and chilly weather kept down the attendance. The score:

In the sixth fining with two men on bases, Stahl, by a hard run, was just able to catch Hickman's long fly between the bleachers and the centre field fence. The hit is good for a home run usually. Flick's misjudgment of Stahl's line drive in the third inning was responsible for two runs. The score:

ROCHESTER, June 1.—Clark Griffith came to Rochester yesterday and closed a deal to trade Jack Thoney of the New Yorks to Rochester for O. Smith Collins, who has been playing in the infield for the locals. Thoney is not to join the Rochesters for two weeks, or not until Eberfeld rets back into the game; but Collins is to join the New Yorks at once. Collins is a centrefielder. He played independent ball in the West last season, and made a phenomenal batting record, which he has sustained this season in the Eastern League. Griffith hesitated some time before consenting is let Thoney go, but the urgent need of a new outfielder finally caused him to make the deal.

A meeting of the governors of the Auto-mobile Club of America was held resterday, at which the action taken by Potice Com-missioner McAdoo to prevent the stoning of automobilists was approved. the police in endeavoring to obtain convictions.

Speaking for the governors, President W. E. Scarritt said: "We believe that the Filice Commissioner is going to work in the proper way. It is his idea not to withdraw any protection, but to give us extra protection in certain localities by having special details of officers out in plain clothes seeking the offenders. The club will oscopente with the police in this plan, but what streets will be especially patrolled and what we propose to do we cannot tell without defeating the ends we seek. The members of the club will be furnished with liese of the streets especially patrolled, and other automobilists will learn where they are quickly enough through personal communication. Any automobilist who is not a member of the club can obtain a list of the specially guarded streets by applying at the clubous.

Before the governors actionned fourteen new members were elected, among them being Charles C. Gate, A. B. cladin, Charles T. Wills of New York and G. Jason waters of Philadelphia.
