Diamonds We Will Sell Diamond Rings at 25 Per Cent. Less Than Our Usual Prices

The skeptic reading the above will ask himself: "Why and how does Macy's sell Diamonds at one-quarter less than their regular prices?" Unless we explain, it is possible that those not familiar with the traditions of this store may discredit the statement: Why? Just one year ago we held a great sale of Diamonds—and did a phenomenal business. An importer was pressed for money and sold us $50,000 worth of Diamond-mounted Jewelry at enormous concessions in order to convert his stock into cash. The manager of the department has set out to equal or surpass the record of a year ago. No financially-embarrassed importer with Diamonds to sacrifice materialized. So we had to resort to other means. How! We went into the market and bought White Diamonds as cheaply as cash could secure them. They are the qualities that are usually sold elsewhere at $225.00 a carat. In order to stimulate your buying interest we will sell these special purchases at 25 per cent. less than we would ask for them under ordinary circumstances. The offerings include:

Solitaire Diamond Rings, mounted in solid 14-kt. gold, with platinum, $31.24 to $224.00.
Two-Stone Diamond Rings, diagonally mounted in solid 14-kt. gold and platinum, $35.49 to $163.00.
Three-Stone Diamond Rings, hoops of solid 14-kt. gold and platinum, $61.25 to $197.00.

These Are from 30 to 40 Per Cent. Less Than Our Regular Prices

Princess, Cluster and Dinner Rings, La Vallieres, Brooches, Necklaces and Bracelets, set with Diamonds, Pearls, Rubies, Opals, Sapphires and Emeralds. The Diamonds are white and brilliant—the bargains are abundant and bright.

Foulards: Three Thousand Yards Imported and Domestic Makes

The charm of Foulard Silks keeps them from being crowded out. They seem to grow in favor every year. These Foulards drape exquisitely and they are in styles that New York women like—dots, stripes and figures on white, navy and black grounds—23 to 28 inches wide. As further proof of our bargain-producing power, we will sell these Foulards at 49c a yard. Our price yesterday was 99c.

Imported Hand-Made Lingerie Frocks

Princess Model, belt effect, fasten in back with pearl buttons hidden by fly.

Made of very fine white French batiste—clear, sheer and airy. Hand-sewed throughout, every stitch precise and exact. You know the infinite patience and skill of French needle-workers—the exquisite effects they produce.

All the embroidery done by hand.

As you read on don't lose sight of the important fact that all the sewing is hand-sewing.

Collar and yoke made of fine tucks, French Valenciennes and real Cluny lace inserting, with several rows of fine tucks forming the shoulder. The inserting is applied across front and back of yoke.

Front of Waist is trimmed with fine tucks, with a row of French Valenciennes lace inserting on each side that frames the beautiful hand-embroidered floral design, which is enhanced with hand-worked English eyelet embroidery.

Waist line is marked by two rows of fine tucks and two rows of real Cluny lace inserting.

Sleeves have two rows of French Valenciennes inserting running lengthwise in shallow curves, with seven clusters of fine tucks between; cuffs of French Valenciennes and real Cluny lace inserting.

Round length Skirt, very full, almost billowy, with two clusters of graduated tucks, panel front formed of French Valenciennes, centre hand-embroidered to match design on waist.

Side gores of fine and large tucks and French Valenciennes inserting.

$19.74

Chinese Linens These Have Been Reduced One Half

Chinese Linens—finely woven, but so sheer that you can read through them. They are ideal for waists and there is nothing better for fancy work.

Why do we sell them at half price? Because they don't sell at full price. Few women understand their qualities, so they won't buy them. The Chinese, you know, give a shiny, glaze-like finish to their Linens—and our customers want the dead, lustreless finish. However, women who have bought the Chinese Linen say it is just right after being laundered.

These types express an extra strong effort made by a store that most of you know pretty well. The interests involved are diversified. We have stated the simple facts about all of them. It is just such straightforward truth that redeems current advertising. Prices of Diamonds and Art Objects have been pulled down exactly as we say. Wash Goods, White Goods, Dress Goods and Tailored Suits furnish irreproachable bargains. The Imported Hand-made Lingerie

Frocks quoted at $10.74 are really worth $30.00. They've a history. No room to tell it. There is good cheer in the Furniture news. Upholsteries haven't been holding their own. Therefore certain lines have been cut regardlessly. Groceries are to the fore in the last column, with Flour and Coffee and Tea and Cocoa at prices that make them necessities of economy in this era of high-cost (?) living. These offerings are a test of your frugality and sagacity. It's an extravagance to miss them.

A Clearance Sale: Choice Specimens of French and Italian Bronzes and Marbles, Ivory Curios, Mosaic Tiles, Vases, Clocks, Lobjmeyr Engraved, Galle and Cut Glass, China, Porcelains, Electroliers and Other Beautiful Art Objects at Half and Third Less Than Usual Prices.

It's exactly what we say—"A Clearance Sale"—and we scheduled it to attract the patronage of people who are invited to June weddings. Walk into the department and glance around. Did you ever see such a quantity of Art Goods? Can you blame us for taking heroic measures to relieve the congestion? There isn't half enough room to display the things properly. We lose sales because people are confused by the variety. So many different things hold them "at gaze" they can't make selections. The most intelligent thing we can do is to sell a few hundred pieces at half and third less than our regular prices so that we may restore the stock to an orderly, harmonious arrangement. A multitude of things closely crowded inclines to daze and bewilder the looker, and we don't want any part of this store to have that effect. The following list is merely a fraction of the articles involved:

"The Rape of Polyxena," gold bronze group of four dramatic figures mounted on square Carrara marble pedestal, height of figures and base 5 ft. 5 in. (copied from celebrated marble group at the Uffizi Gallery, Rome)—was $750.00; reduced to $375.00

Satin Damask

Our Linen buyer is just back from Europe. This Double Satin Damask is one of his trophies. He bought it in Belfast from a well-known manufacturer. The designs, including new effects in stripes, are very beautiful. The width is 72 inches.

We haven't been able to match this Damask for less than $1.75 a yard. Hardly think it can be matched for less. Our price is $1.39.

Napkins to match, 23x23 inches, $3.98 dozen.

Fancy Towels

The hucks have woven damask pansy and clover figures; the dice weave has deep brocade border.

Full bleached, of course, with strong spoke hemstitched ends. Firmness in both weaves, substance, too, and satisfaction in the wear, because they are honest in the linen. 22x43 inches.

Such Towels will cost you 75c. in any other store. Our price for them is 69c. But we change them from regulars to specials by making the price 49c.
