The Brooklyns trounced the Pirates twice yesterday and created a tie for third place between Pittsburg and Chicago. No other games were played, this because of rain. The game at the Polo Grounds was started but called after Huggins, the first man up, had been fanned by Marquard. Intermittent showers lasted half an hour and Umpire Brennan called the battle off.

To-day's Schedule.

Nearly 10,000 persons rejoiced over a double triumph by the Brooklyns at Ebbets Field yesterday. The Pirates were humbled, the first game lasting ten innings, with the score 4 to 3, and the second contest yielding the totals 7 to 3. It was McKeever day, in honor of President Ebbets's partners, and the loyal rooters will not forget it in a hurry. The Brook-

Marty O'Toole, the $22,000 star, made his first appearance in the box for Pitts pendicitis several months ago. He looke strong, but the strain proved too much Camnitz had to relieve him in the second inning and the latter was batted freely. The rejuvenated McQuil-lan pitched the seventh and eighth innings against Dahlen's men and shut them out without a hit, but it was too

Both teams made some crazy quilt errors, all of which figured in the scoring. errors, all of which figured in the scoring. The Pirates made a concerted roar over a decision by Hank O'Day in the fifth linning which, they declared, was a case of poor eyesight. Smith pasted a liner over Byrne's head and the ball seemed to land on the foul line. The hit was a double, as O'Day called it fair, and, and home two runs. Wagner Vice. sent home two runs. of the Montreal International League team probably will be sold to a major league club for a big price in a few days. Owner Lichtenheim of the Montreal club demands $10,000 in cash and two players for Gilhooley's release. Though the terms are pronounced excessive, the New York Americans, Brooklyns, Chicago Cubs. Cincinnati Reds, Pittsburgs and Boston Red Sox and Braves are considering the Montreal club's proposition. It was said yesterday that as much as $6,000 had been

The last intersectional series in the two big leagues was remarkable in its closeness between the contending sections. Not only that but as between the National and American leagues there was a coincidence which was unique. Playing in the West the Eastern teams of the National League won thirty-one games and lost thirty-one. Exactly the same thing happened in the American League, in which the two sections broke even in the East, each section winning thirty-one games. Here are the figures:

O'Toole complained that he felt weak as he went to the box for Brooklyn's half and Clarke sent Camnitz to the right and Clarke sent Camnitz to the right field corner to warm up. O'Toole, whose speed and control were gone, walked both Cutshaw and Stengel, after which he retired to the bench. Wheat bunted safely and filled the bases. Camnitz handed a pass to Daubert and Cutshaw was forced home. Smith grounded to Byrne, who threw the ball past Simon to the Dodgers' bench, Stengel and Wheat rushing across the platter. Fisher foul flied to Simon and O. Miller lined to Wagner, whose toss to Byrne doubled Daubert, as Jake had left third base.

Byrne offended again in the fifth, when Wheat got a Wfe on his low throw Viox had a rough experience during the double header. A hot grounder from Dautert's bat struck him over the heart and time had to be called while he took a rest. Carey robbed Cutshaw of a home run in the first inning of the second game when he stopped a wicked grounder in left centre with one hand.

Stengel's must of Viox's fly in the second contest probably was due to his eagerness to throw the ball home to head off Carey, who was waiting on third for the catch.

Hans Wagner was loudly applauded every time he came to the bat. The old gentleman made four hits during the afternoon and accepted thirteen sielding chances without an error.

Fred Clarke says that with stronger pitchers' and better luck the Brooklyns would have been well up in the first division now. He declares that the Dodgers can hit the ball harder and more frequently than any other National League team.

rounded the record breaking feat of Count Gregory in the fourin-hand race at the Greater New York Fair and Exposition yesterday. Emil Seelig sold the record breakers to Count Gregory several weeks ago, stipulating that if they did not break the world's record of 3 minutes 141/2 seconds for a mile in their first public trial Count Gregory would not have to adhere to the contract of sale. When they were timed in 3 minutes 1214 seconds Mr. Seelig, who drove his own team into second money, said: "I knew they would do it. This track is the best half mile circuit I ever rode on. I'm satisfied; I won both ways."
