

AMERICAN CONSUL WHO SAVED THOUSANDS OF ARMENIANS IN SYRIA

CONSUL JACKSON AT HIS DESK IN THE AMERICAN CONSULATE AT ALEPPO.

CONSUL AND MRS. JACKSON IN THE PARLOR OF THE CONSULATE.

TURKISH SUPPLY TRAIN IN THE SYRIAN DESERT.

CAMELS ARE THE PRINCIPAL MEANS OF TRANSPORTATION.

CONSUL JESSE B. JACKSON AND HIS NATIVE BODYGUARD IN THE STREETS OF ALEPPO, SYRIA.

MR. JACKSON, WHOSE HOME TOWN IS PAULDING, OHIO, IS CREDITED BY THE ARMENIANS WITH SAVING THOUSANDS OF THEIR RACE IN SYRIA FROM MASSACRE BY HIS FIRM ATTITUDE TOWARD THE TURKS. DURING THE MOST TRYING TIMES IN SYRIA THE ROOMS AT THE CONSULATE WERE PACKED WITH CHRISTIANS ESCAPING FROM DEATH AT THE HANDS OF THE TURKS

CHIEFS OF THE TEUTON ALLIES DIRECT DEFENCE AGAINST THE RUSSIAN THRUST

ARCHDUKE FREDERICK, THE AUSTRIAN COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, REVIEWING HIS TROOPS STARTING OUT TO MEET THE RUSSIAN ADVANCE.

THE KAISER ON THE EAST GALICIAN FRONT, WHERE HE HURRIED WHEN THE RUSSIANS BEGAN THEIR OFFENSIVE.