

FIGHT FOR TREATY MUST START ANEW

Hitchcock Proposal Will Require Separate Action on Each Reservation.

LESS HOPE OF HARMONY

Additional Republicans Go on Record as Opposed to Democratic Overtures.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—When the German peace treaty comes before the Senate Monday discussion will start as completely new as when it was inaugurated with the first submission of the treaty.

This is the result of the proposal submitted by Senator Hitchcock (Neb.), acting Democratic leader, looking to a new reservation to Article X. There was the possibility that a new series of reservations en bloc might be laid before the Senate and considered under a single vote, but the Hitchcock proposal made it apparent that the matter would go back to its first stages. Every reservation will have to be considered separately; it will be open to amendments and substitutes. The entire list will require to be gone through in this way, for the Hitchcock reservations are impossible of acceptance by the anti-administration forces.

Much attention was given to-day to the effect of the Lansing-Wilson correspondence in connection with the requirement of the Secretary of State. On both sides the effort was made to produce an appearance of advantage by reason of the retirement of Mr. Lansing, but on the whole it produced no result. Nobody was willing to admit that the Senate's final vote would be influenced by the quarrel within the Presidential household.

To-day's situation demonstrated how complete is the reliance of the Democratic party on the President's leadership. Not since the treaty fight opened had there been a time when Democrats were less willing to state for publication their feelings about a situation. It is impossible to separate the Lansing-Wilson correspondence from the consideration of the league and treaty situation, but in a general way it can be said the outlook for ratification of the treaty was impaired by the publication of the correspondence given out at the State Department last night. That the Hitchcock alternative reservations proposed yesterday might provide a key to the situation was shown to be fallacious to-day when eight Republican Senators announced they would not support them. These were Messrs. McCormick and Sherman (Ill.), New and Watson (Ind.), Cummins and Kenyon (Iowa), Spencer (Mo.) and Harding (Ohio). These added to the six who declared themselves yesterday as op-

Peace Council of Ten Has Had Hard Knocks

Special Dispatch to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Victims of the peace conference who composed the original Council of Ten, made up of chiefs of states and their foreign ministers, are:

Italy—Orlando, forced into retirement by his Parliament; Sonnino, Foreign Minister, fell with Orlando.

France—Clemenceau, defeated for President; Pinchon, Foreign Minister, enforced retirement.

United States—Wilson, health impaired and in bitter controversy with Senate; Lansing, Secretary of State, compelled by President to resign.

joined to such reservations—Messrs. Calder and Wadsworth (N. Y.), Sutherland (W. Va.), Ball (Del.), Dillingham (Vt.) and Frelinghuysen (N. J.)—made a total of fourteen Republicans absolutely opposed to the Hitchcock programme.

These, added to the fourteen (reconcilables), made a total of twenty-five. Five more would make thirty-three, which is the number necessary to defeat ratification. With more than twenty Democrats from whom to procure these five votes it was conceded to-day that ratification on the basis of the Hitchcock programme was impossible.

Senator Lodge (Mass.), the Republican leader, asked Senator Colt (R. I.) to-day to see the mild reservation Republicans and learn their attitude toward the Hitchcock proposals. Later Senator Colt reported that none except possibly Senator McNary (Ore.) would vote for either.

Senators Hitchcock and McKellar (Tenn.), on behalf of the Democrats, also talked with the mild reservationists to-day and were told that the latter would not vote for either of the Hitchcock reservations. This was stated as broadly and frankly as possible.

Senator McCumber (N. D.), the real leader of the mild reservation Republicans, said to-day that he would support either of the Hitchcock formulas of the Article X reservation and asked Senator Colt to do the same. The latter definitely refused to do so.

LEAGUE WILL CALL FISCAL CONFERENCE

Meeting Probably in Geneva or Amsterdam.

Special Cable, Copyright, 1920, by THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The League of Nations announced yesterday its decision to call an international financial conference at the earliest possible moment with a view to studying the financial crisis and looking for the means of remedying or mitigating the dangerous consequences arising from it.

opened either by the league or by a neutral nation. A commission composed of members of the council nominated by President Balfour was instructed to summon the states chiefly concerned to this conference. The place of meeting was not announced, but it is expected that it will be either Geneva, the present headquarters of the League of Nations, or Amsterdam, where the previous conference of financial leaders was held prior to the preparation of the memorial proposing an international congress.

Dutch May Join League.
THE HAGUE, Feb. 13 (delayed).—Slight opposition developed to Holland's entrance into the League of Nations when discussion of the question was opened this afternoon in the Parliament. The speaker proposed a tentative reservation to the effect that if any other nation entered the league under more favorable circumstances (such as the United States) Holland should enjoy the same privileges. The subject will come up again next Tuesday for further discussion.

The outstanding and traditional quality of Bonwit Teller & Co. tailored suits is the high character of the custom tailoring. A precision of fit, elegance of workmanship and attention to infinite detail is not excelled by the costliest to order custom work.

The inconvenience of numberless fittings is avoided. Your suit is ready to wear exactly when you want it.

To an already large collection, new models are added daily—originations characteristic of this shop.

Featured are eton and bolero types, "nipped" waistline and Godet styles, hip length and longer coat suits, embroidered effects and mannish types, with hand-felled edges and bindings of satin, cording or braids. Navy blue tricotine is especially emphasized.

MILLINERY

For Women and Misses

The complementary hat for every type of costume and for the particular function. For the various sport activities this shop introduced many original style-themes that carry the "spirit of the thing." Trotteur hats in many variants of the mode feature especially the lacquered feather and ribbon types, in close fitting turbans, toques, cloche and large canotier types. Satin and duvetyn hats, with stitchery and embroidery, also mark the vogue. The more formal fashions are expressed in hats of satin, transparencies of lace, tulle and crin, with decorations of jet, ribbon, paradise. Others hats are of leg-horn and various straws as well as novelty materials developed in the private workrooms of the Bonwit Teller & Co. Shop.
