DISTRIBUTE TITLE CLOSING DATES

To5th, 10th, 20thor 25th of Month

An active real estate market throws a heavy burden on all those who have to do with the transfer of properties and the insurance of titles. Ey distributing closing dates you can co-operate with the Title Companies in rendering their service still more effective.

Two things are particularly suggested.

1-Avoid the 1st and the 15th of the month. Choose insteal the 5th, 10th, 20th or 25th

2-Have closings whenever possible at the offices of the Title Companies to conserve the time of their closing

Colonial home, with garage, of unusual charms, designed to be finished in the quaint style of bygone days. The decora-tions are still to be put in. I will install them, according to the desires of a purchaser, provide and install electric fixtures, landscape the grounds and turn over the property ready for instant occupancy. The house has eight large, light rooms and a fine big completely appointed tiled bathroom. The plot is '00x180 feet, with several oak trees one foot thick as shade. Only 10 minutes walk to the station in a beautiful settled residential section; 900 feet elevation, water rights afford fine boating, sailing, fishing and skating. Splendid commuting service to New York City; $3500 cash takes it. Balance 2 years, 2nd mortgage $2500; permanent first mortgage $5000. For complete details, apply to GEO. C. BLACKWELL, Cherman Sq. 200 West 102nd Street

Herald Square, New York. Dear Sir: It may be of interest to you to know that we consider the "Sun and New York Herald" one of the best real estate mediums in the countryespecially high class real estate. For example, several weeks ago we placed a small display "ad" in your paper to appear on Sunday; the following day a client called and on Tuesday the deal was closed. We consider this very enick action. We do not feel that we can express too strongly the high opinion we have for your paper and the hope that it may continue on a successful career in this connection.

Very truly yours, E. J. MAAS REALTY CO., Inc. Per E. J. M.
