

OUSTED SOCIALISTS CALLED TRAITORS

Conboy Urges Assembly Not to Seat Legislators Pledged to Destroy U. S.

'LIP SERVICE' DENOUNCED

Judiciary Committee's Counsel
Sums Up With a Denunciation.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

ALBANY, March 4.—Pledged to the support of the Third Internationale, the socialist party of America is a disloyal organization composed of perpetual traitors, and the greatest menace to the American Republic that has existed since the rebellion of 1861. That was the conclusion made today by Martin Conboy, counsel for the Judiciary Committee, when he summed up the case for the State against the five Socialist Assemblymen.

Class struggle and industrial revolution are the two powerful weapons being used by the Socialist party to break down the government of democracy and substitute the rule of the Soviet, Mr. Conboy charged. His address was a bitter denunciation and arraignment of the "treasonable acts" of the Socialists. He demanded that the Assembly purge itself of the section which the suspended Assemblymen seek to spread through the body.

Reviewing in detail the evidence brought out during the seven weeks of the trial, Mr. Conboy insisted that the loyalty of the suspended Socialists to their disloyal party and its disloyal and un-American activities had been established beyond doubt. "Lip service" to the State is nothing more than a mere matter of form, he said of the five on trial.

Red Plan to Rule Whole U. S.

The danger of revolution is more real than the nation realizes, Mr. Conboy charged, saying that the Socialist party seeks to set up its rule here by the following "unlawful methods":

Obstruction of the Federal and State governments in all measures relating to defense, thereby rendering the nation defenseless against the attack of enemies from without and within.

Disruption of government by mass action and insubordination in all its teachings that political action must be backed by force.

By making its members and those elected to office responsible only to its dues paying members, thereby relieving its agents of obligation to established government.

There is in process of organization the Third Internationale, Mr. Conboy stated, in outlining the achievements of the two international Socialist movements held in recent years. The purpose toward which all Socialists the world over are aiming is to make the third the final governing body.

"We are confronted with the necessity of determining how we shall treat this group of persons who are in the United States, but not of it; who, while accepting the benefits of our laws and constitutions and the sacrifices of blood and treasure given to support them, refuse their support to them; who take all they can get but will not give a life or a dollar to preserve, defend and perpetuate the Government that is their life, liberty, property and the pursuit of happiness," Mr. Conboy said.

First Big Warning Since '61.

"It is the first time since the rebellion of 1861 that notice has been given and explicitly served upon the Government of the United States by a group of men residing within its borders that they will not support or defend it, but that they will by all means obstruct and resist its effort to maintain in time of stress its national honor and existence.

"The Socialist party of America is not a loyal organization," he charged, "it is a disloyal party composed of perpetual traitors.

"The Socialist party of America is neither a party nor American. It is an organization created for the purpose of accomplishing in the United States, by any available means, determined only by national conditions and exigencies, a social revolution and the establishment of a socialist commonwealth as part of the international revolution of which the present Soviet Government of Russia is a part.

"It is in violent opposition to the idea of national patriotism, upon which rests, in the last analysis, our national existence. As against these purposes the Socialist party of America stands in the theory that the citizens of the United States, as well as those of every other country in the world, are concerned with other considerations than a continuing bitter struggle between imaginary classes of society, the one seeking to keep the other in perpetual bondage.

Keynote of Disloyalty.

"During the war the party said: 'As against the war the doctrine of national patriotism we uphold the ideal of international working class solidarity.' There is struck the true keynote of the philosophy of the Socialist party of America.

"Members of this party are not occasional but perpetual traitors, in constant conflict not merely with the purpose of any temporary administration of the affairs of this Government, but with the very institutions and fundamental laws. Their submission to the laws of this country is a matter of expediency or the result of the coercion of the penal law.

"The Socialist party by referendum has affiliated, declared its solidarity with, and become part of the Communist International at Moscow, which has unequivocally declared its purposes to be the overthrow of the United States of America and its aim only object to establish in all countries a dictatorship of the proletariat.

"These Assemblymen-elect, their instructors and leaders have made public utterances showing that they are in full accord and sympathy with the propaganda and principles enumerated in this Moscow manifesto.

"This party does not propose to bring about changes by parliamentary means and the use of the ballot. It has been necessary, therefore, to forge a new weapon. This weapon is industrial organization, to be used to tie up the arteries of the nation's industries with a general strike."

Hillquit's Threat Taken Up.

Mr. Conboy took up what he termed the "velvet threat," made yesterday by Morris Hillquit, counsel for the Socialists, who warned of the danger of a general strike if fair representation would be denied to Socialist Assemblymen. Mr. Conboy said:

"Under the veil of a simile, a threat was employed that if you gentlemen concluded that these five Socialist Assemblymen should not sit in this chamber as members of this Assembly, a general strike might be called. In the whole history devoted to the development of this idea there has been no more frank exposition of the doctrine than that. It is the proof, sufficient and satisfactory to the point of a demonstration, of the charge that has been made in this case.

"The threat carries itself further. You must not only admit them, but you must take their legislative program and enact it into law; otherwise the general strike will again be employed.

"No opportunity is now before the leaders of the Socialist party to impress upon the rank and file that it is impossible to achieve ultimate triumph by political action. For this reason the American Federation of Labor is subjected to continuous attacks and misrepresentation. For this reason Debs, originally an ardent trade unionist, abandoned and repudiated his former associates after joining the Socialist party."

"Taking the case of the Assemblymen in turn, Mr. Conboy contended that each was fully in accord with the 'dangerous doctrine' of his party. That was all it was necessary to show to justify the Assembly in unseating the Socialists, Mr. Conboy held. Of Samuel Orr and Samuel A. De Witt, the Bronx members, he said they were pledged to their party like the others.

Counsel will spend to-morrow in rebuttal. The committee will meet again Tuesday to receive any new evidence and to hear further argument, if deemed necessary.

STATE LABOR WILL BACK NO SOCIALIST

To Support Friends in Either
Major Party.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

ALBANY, March 4.—James P. Holland, president of the New York State Federation of Labor, announced today that while he is opposed to the formation of a new labor party organized labor in New York State will be active next fall in bringing about the nomination and election to public office of men who are prepared to give labor a "square deal."

"The only effect a new party could have," said Mr. Holland, "would be to divide the labor forces and play into the hands of those trying to defeat the things for which the labor movement stands."

Mr. Holland said the labor people will endorse candidates of either the Democratic or Republican parties who are with them.

"I am against Socialists," he was asked, "I am against all Socialists and will support none if I have my strength and health," replied the labor head.

Gov. Henry J. Allen of Kansas, who achieved fame by breaking the Kansas coal strike by organizing a force of volunteer coal diggers, is to speak before the Legislature next Tuesday on the Kansas "industrial relations court" legislation which he has written on the statute books immediately after the strike to prevent future tie ups in essential industries.

FARM AID FOR INDIANS.

Assembly Gets Bill for Development in Agriculture.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

ALBANY, March 4.—Advancement of Indians of New York State along agricultural lines is sought in a bill introduced today by Assemblyman Edward Everett, chairman of the legislative Indian committee.

The bill provides for scholarship for Indian boys at the State College of Agriculture as a part of the plan of Dr. Earl Bates of Syracuse, providing that Indians should be made "farmers, carpenters and cooks" instead of "ministers, lawyers and physicians."

HANSEN IS HELD

ON GIRL'S CHARGE

Detective Only One to Press
Old Complaint.

When arraigned yesterday before Judge James T. Malone in General Sessions John Salter Hansen was held in $2,500 bail. Detective Marron, who arrested him on Wednesday night in front of the Plaza Hotel, was on hand to press the charge of assault that was made in 1918 by Mrs. Myra Wooster of 306 West Eighty-ninth street, as a result of attentions alleged to have been paid by Hansen to her twelve-year-old daughter in a motion picture theatre.

Hansen, who since that time has obtained much publicity through furnishing the bail required by the Mexican authorities for the release of Consular Agent Jenkins, said he had not known the charge was still pending. This gave his excuse for having dropped out of the country after his trial last May had resulted in a disagreement of the jury.

Col. Miller was accompanied by his family. He has been in command of Mitchell Field since August, 1918. He will be succeeded by Lieut.-Col. W. L. Booth, Jr.

The estate will amount to $1,000,000, according to the estimates of persons who know the amount of property he owned.

SCIENTIST TRUSTEES FIGHT OUSTER TODAY

Proceedings Begin in Boston
Court Against Those at Odds
With Directors.

SEVENTH CHURCH SPLIT

Dissenters in Litigation Form
Independent Congregation
Meeting in Brooklyn.

Disension within the Christian Science Church, which disclosed here yesterday a factional fight in the Seventh Church of Christ, Scientist, and threat to disrupt the harmony within congregations all over the country, will be the subject of further court proceedings in Boston today, when Mrs. Emilie B. Kulling of Brooklyn, a member of the Mother Church, will seek permission to join in the fight between the directors of the Mother Church and the trustees of the Christian Science Publishing Society.

Mrs. Kulling, it was learned last night, will be represented in these proceedings by Miles M. Dawson, a lawyer of this city.

The recent unpleasantness in Seventh Church, which is located in West 121st street, was brought about by the unyielding position of the Rev. Wentworth Byron Winslow, first reader, and William P. Voorhees, one of the trustees.

Both these men declined to sign any resolution or align themselves with any faction that elected to take any of the church's troubles into court. Both declared during the heated debates that formed public opinion will always secure justice to both sides in industrial controversies. All the Government sought to do in the coal strike was to insist that both sides be heard before an impartial tribunal without the country being made to suffer.

"By slow but decisive processes the arrangement of capital in this country has been broken, but now we see in industrial lines labor grown so strong, so powerful that it sometimes threatens to become arrogant, and during the last year capital has had to plead upon its knees to labor for a chance to be heard and the right to have its difficulties with labor arbitrated. I think the shame of it all is that in all these years of progress we have not yet reached the point where neither capital labor can or dare become automatic or deny each other a hearing."

THREE FOUND GUILTY

IN BIG ARMY FRAUD

Grant Hugh Browne and Others Convicted in Detroit.

Detroit, March 4.—A verdict of guilty was returned by a jury in the Federal District Court here today against Grant Hugh Browne, a wealthy New York sportsman, and Soterious Nicholas and Lester Waterbury, two former army officers, who were tried on charges of conspiracy to defraud the Government in the purchase of army salvage.

The two ex-officers and Browne were named as the directors of a company with the Ordnance Department in a scheme in which prearranged bids made competition impossible. It was said at the time the indictments were returned that the value of the salvage involved was $28,000,000, but their counsel maintained it was worth not more than $600,000.

The other men, Fred C. Collin of this city, Burt Harris of New York and Monroe H. Burdick of Albany were charged with implication in the conspiracy.

DR. SEED PAYS FINE
FOR SHOPLIFTING

Identity of Woman Physician
Not Denied.

Dr. Susan T. D. Seed of the Nevada apartments paid a fine of $100 yesterday in the Court of Special Sessions, thus bringing to a close the charges of shoplifting that were filed against her last month. She pleaded guilty before Justice Kernochan, Moss and Prescott to a warrant charging her with having stolen $18 worth of goods from James McCreery & Co. The articles were two handbags, eight napkins and a book-rack.

Probation Officer Kate Mangano told the justices that Dr. Seed had been convicted in Canton, Ohio, in 1914, of unlawful practice of medicine and sentenced to sixty days in the workhouse. Her attorney, James Murray, declared that she had never served this sentence, but had appealed the case and won it. He said that he believed that his client's mind was unsettled; but when Justice Kernochan suggested sending her to Bellevue for observation he said "We do not plead insanity."

When Dr. Seed was arrested last month she gave her maiden name of Susan Condon. Her sisters, Dr. Elizabeth Brand and Katherine Condon, who have been living at the Nevada apartments, denied that Susan Condon and Dr. Seed were one and the same woman. They asserted that their sister had been struck by an automobile and was confined to her bed. There was no denial of the identity yesterday.

METHODISTS DROP
LAWS ON DISCIPLINE

Restrictions Will Be Left to the Conscience.

ATLANTIC CITY, March 4.—Conscience was substituted for law by the Methodist Episcopal Conference of New Jersey, in session here, today in removing the restrictions against gambling, dancing, theatricals, horse racing, and other diversions from the Book of Discipline. The action will be referred to the General Conference of the church for ratification.

The Rev. John W. Marsh, vice-president of the Ocean Grove Camp Meeting Association, introduced the resolutions. The vote was 78 to 21 for adoption. The resolutions admitted few persons were obeying the old "blue laws" of the church and that the situation was anomalous. In accepting the conditions communications were admonished "to make amusements the subject of careful thought and frequent prayer, and not to leave them to accident or taste or passion."
