SHARP.

Or is there room in your life plan for a better connection—more perma-nent, more profitable and carrying with it the joy of association with real people in a real enterprise which is neither a scheme nor a promotion?

How would you like to be able to any to your man. "We have over $9,000,000. of profitable business on our books, have just paid our regular semi-annual dividend, and our factory production is sold up to the end of our 1924 fiscal year?

Then, again, how would you like to have that man HALF SOLD before you get to him, so that all YOU have to do is to FINISH THIS DEAL and take the check he chestfully hands you?

Don't you see what a cumulative commission means to you when the way has been thus paved for your own approach?

Don't you think-in fairness to your-self-that you'd better look into this matter, which isn't like anything you've ever heard about or dreamed of?

You don't biame us, do you, for not wanting a raft of men here in our offices for interviews all at once-verything hurly-burly and you not getting a fair show?

You'd like to have consideration and painstaking attention given to your sales record and ability, wouldn't you?

Then (so we can make a definite ap-pointment) write about one note sheet full of personal facts and mail to Director of Sales, care William C. Froeman, 117 West 45th st., New York Ulty.
