APPLICATION FOR THE DESCLARGE OF THE PARTIES IMPLICATED IN THE BRICKET STAINING AFFRAY.—W. C. Moss and Thomas Donovan were yesterday brought before Judge Greenwood, of the City Court, on a writ of habeas corpus. Counsel for the accused asked their discharge, on the ground of the decision of the Corone's Jury, which found that the deed with which they stand charged had been committed in self defence, and therefore justifiable. The District Attorney opposed the application, on the ground that he would be able to prove, if not a case of murder against them, at least a case of manufaghter in one or other of the degrees. The court ruled that the finding of a corone's jury was not conclusive, as it did not amount to a legal adjudication so as to prevent a judicial investigation. Counsel for prisoners then asked that they be admitted to ball, which was also denied by the Judge, whe ruled that he could not hold prisoners to ball until the sommitting magistrate had examined them, unless that 'gamination was waived. Counsel concluded to have the risoners examined, and they were remanded to jail.

RAPE UPON A YOUNG GIRL.—A man named Dennis Fogarramination was waived. Counsel concluded to have the risomers examined, and they were remanded to jail.

Rars uron a Young Gru.—A man named Dennis Fogary was yesterday arrested on a warrant issued by Assisant Capt. Van Orden, of the Third district police, on the brye of committing a rape upos the person of a girl amed Margaret Gailney. It appears the complainant cent to the house where Fogarty boarded, on the corner of Bond and Baltic streets, on Saturday evening, to visit jwoman in the family. On returning home she was attacked by the accused, and dragged into a wood house, where it is alleged the violence was perpetrated. The accused was brought before Justice Blatch by yesterday, and committed—the offence being fully proved.

First from the Explosion of a Filip Larr.—On Sunday night a camphene lamp exploded in an apartment occupied by a family named McClurey, in Amity street, opposite Willow place. The full was scattered over Mr. McCluney and a small child, and both were seriously burned, although it is not suppeased that fatal consequences will ensue. The beds and furniture in the room were also set on are, and mostly destroyed, when beouty Sheriff Campbell and officer Reynolds, of the Third district police, made their way in and extinguished the flames, thus saving the house grow destruction.

First.—Venterday noon a fire broke out in the upper ptory of a house in Clarke's row, Kelsey's alley, and soon communicated with two adjoining buildings, all occupied by a number of poor families, who had, however, safficient lime to save their goods and furniture before the flames had made much progress. The fire department soon arrived; but the difficulty occasioned in consequence of the marrow passage, hindered them from working as effectively as they would have done had there been more space, and the buildings, which are owned by Mr. Clarke, amounts to grow 31 500 to $2 000, and were fully insured.

WASHINGTON FIRE COMPANY TO VISIT NEW YORK.—The Franklin New York Association have resolved to leave for New York on the morning of the 7th of November (yes erdsy), and we give their brother fremen of Baltimore, Philadelphia, and New York, notice to prepare for their visits to those cities. They will go direct to New York striving at eight o'clock in the evening of Sheday of their departure, and return on the Thursday morning following, to Philadelphia, remain there till Baturday, thence sewe in the morning for Baltimore, and stay there till the seven o'clock train starts, at night. On arriving here they will parade in full uniform through the city, of which their brethren of Washington will take due notice. The company is one of the best in the District, and is now particularly in the order, having had a considerable reorganization. Their excursion promises to be one of much pleasure, and will be participated in by a large association of our gallant firemen — Washington Star.

PIGHTING CANDIDATES.—At Carthage, Miss., last cock, at a public discussion, a fight took piace between cell. McClung and Mr. Singleton, rival candidates for Congress. McClung kicked Singleton, causing much excitates. Friends interfered and separated the belligarents, the McClung proceeded with his speech.

was guilty of gross negligence, and should take its consequences patiently, and not attempt to place them on the shoulders of the injured party. It should be borne in mind that the statute of his pendens is not the original grant of a right with a condition precedent attached—but a remedial provision in favor of purchasers, derogating from the existing common law rights of suitors in chancery. To avail himself of it, therefore, the purchaser should show at least ordinary diligence. "Vigilantibus non dor mientibus" is the maxim of the law. No man is allowed, in spite of warning, to shut his eyes and then claim the privileges of want of sight. He who can see, and won't see, although he cannot legally, perhaps, be made to see, must take the consequences, and be chargable precisely in the same manner as if he had seen.

The notice in the present case, or rather the index referring to it, it appears to me war abundantly sufficient to put the purchaser on inquiry, and to charge him with all the knowledge to which that inquiry, if entered upon, would have led. He holds his title, therefore, subject to the decree; and had that decree directed Fowler, whether by the name of John or John F., to give the plaintiffs the lease to which they were, and were adjudged to be, clearly entitled, of the premises described in the notice. Osborne, the purchaser, pending the suit, must have been required to do it for him, or to ratify the act if done by Fowler.

But what was the decree which the plaintiffs, to effect that the rights established and declared by the Court in their favor, elected to take? Instead of a specific performance, operating on the estate itself, they accepted, and for aught that appears, prayed for, a substituted equivalent in money. And the decree, accordingly, haring first provided for asce taining the value of a term, such as that to which the plaintiffs were adjudged to be entitled, 'ordered and decreed that the said John Fowler pay the same to the plaintiffs.'

Prosecution Continued—Q. Who has charge of your business when you are out of town?

A. Mr. Rarnard, my clerk; he received the letter at that time. I was on my way to New York. I paid the bill, exhibit "C," to a person who came to my place of business, who collects debts for Mr. Sawin. I have the receipt, but I cannot say the name of the person, nor can I tell if he exhibited any authority from Mr. Sawin. I have never been applied to for the payment again. I think the bill was paid in Deember, 1852. I contracted personally with Mr. Sawin, for the bill of clothing. I have no recollection what name appears to the receipt. At this stage of the proceedings, the court took a recess until this day at 10 o'clock.

Arrest of a Female Shophifter.—Yesterday afternoon a young woman of genteel appearance, calling herself Ann Lambert, visited the jewelry store of alexander C. Calbut, No. 136 Canal street, and asked to be shown some diamond rings. The rings were exhibited to her, but she made no purchase and she left the store. Soon after, the store-keeper missed a diamond ring worth 500, and went immediately in pursuit, and arrested her in the street, charging her with the theft. The police were called, and the accused conveyed to the Tombs. The ring was recovered, and Justice Bogart committed her to prison for trial.

Arreat of a Burglar.—About two weeks since some burglars forced an entrance into the drygoods store of Hithcock and Leadbeater, corner of Leonard street and Broadway, by outling through the rear wall, and thus effected an entrance, stealing from the store black silks valued at upwards of $1,000. Officers Keefe and Brown, two of the Chief's special aids, took the matter in hand, and succeeded in recovering all of the stolen property, which they found secreted in a basement room in Sixth street. Subsequently they arrested a young man named William Collins, who is charged with being one of the burglars. He was committed to prison by the Mayor for trial.

Coroner's Inquests.

SURIDE BY HANGING.—The Coroner yesterday, was notified to hold an inquest at 172 Chatham square, on the body of Samuel Hyman, a native of London, England, 37 years of age, who committed suicide, yesterday afternoon, by hanging himself. It seems that his brother-in law was attending store at the time, and the deceased was absent not more than fifteen minutes when, on the brother-in-law going to the rear part of the store, the deceased was found suspended by the neck to a nail on the wall. The deceased made a noose with a piece of muslin, and then by elevating himself on a pail, managed to adjust the end of the noose over the nail, kicked the pail from under his feet, and thus strangled himself. For some time part, the deceased was noticed to be very dejected in mind, but his friends did not anticipate that he would commit suicide. The jury will hold an inquest on the body this day.

The Late Fire at Lyons & Jones' Store, No. 277 Hudson street.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Sir:—Your reporter is in error in stating that the late fire at our store took place through carelessness, in placing goods too near the gas lights in the show window. The upper part of the windows had not been changed for a week, and on Friday evening one of the cloak stands—as we suppose—must have fallen against one of the pranches of the gas lights, and thus moving it so that it came in contact with the lace goods above. One of the firm was in the store at the time, and had it not been fer his prompt and energetic exertions, aided by those of our neighbors, the consequences might have been very disastrous. Fortunately the fire was extinguished before the first to be between two and three thousand dollars, are less than one thousand. Your insertion of the correction will oblige, sir. Yours, respectfully, LYONS & JONES.

Target Excursions.

The annual target excursion of the Peddie and Morrison guards, numbering one hundred mustets and consisting entirely of workmen in the employ of Peddie & Morrison, trunk manufacturers, took place on Saturday last. J., after which the men proceeded to New York and thence to Hoboken, where, after contending for thirteen prizes, presented by their employers, they sat down to an excellent dinner—ending the procedings of the day by a torchight procession in Newark.

The Bernaus Guard, Captain Joseph Dowling, on Monday made their annual target excursion to Stryker's Bay. This company numbers forty-live muskets, and are a fine body of men.

The Terra Ward Liour Guard, Captain James Dunning, made their third annual excursion to Tilletudium on Monday last. Fourteen valuable prices were awarded to the best chots.

An Outrageous Affair in Leuisville—Frebable Murder.

[From the Leuisville Courier, Nov. 3.]

Vesterday morning Mat. F. Ward, the eldest son of R. J. Ward, Eq., went to the High School in this city, near the corner of Second street, on Chestant, accompanied by two of his brothers—Robert Ward, a youth of sixteen, and William Ward, a smaller boy—and called for Mr. Wm. H. G. Buther, one of the teachers. A few words passed between them, when Mr. Ward pulled out a pistol and shot Mr. Buther down. The ball penetrated his left breast, over the heart, and he fell to the floor, exclaiming in his agony. "I am killed—Oh, my poor, wife and child!" Ward then dropped hir pistol, and accompanied by his brother, retreated from the school room.

Mr. Buther was able to rise from the foor, and left the room, assisted by some boys, but when in the street he fell again and was carried home. His physicians think the wound will prove mortal. The ball sould not be extracted, and he bled inwardly. Mr. Butler had corrected Wm. Ward, one of his pupils, the day previous, for telling a falsehood, which led to the tragic affair.

Robert Ward, who accompanied his brother, drew a bowie knife, and when Prof. Sturgus, the other teacher in the school advanced to the assistance of Mr. Butler, he made such demonstrations that the professor retreated and made his escape out of a window. The scholars in the school room were also scattered in all directions by the display of such warlike instruments in their midat. Mr. M. F. Ward and Robert J. Ward, Jr., were promptly arrested and lodged in jail.

Last night at 90 clock, Mr. Butler was in a very precarious condition, with but slight hopes of his surviving till morning. He was suffering intensely, and the affliction of his family is described as distressing beyond measure. Mr. Futler was one of the best and most inofinative men in the world, and we can appreciate the anguish of his friends at his being so untimely out off, and in such a manner. The afair is generally regarded as of a most atrocious and maner. Insular is generally regarded to it is most atrocious and unprovoked character, and when it became known, the deepest indignation prevailed throughout the city.

The Louisville papers of the 4th inst. announce the death of Mr. Butler, which occurred on the previous day. The two brothers, Mathew F. and Robert J. Ward, Jr., were examined at the police court on the charge of having committed the murder, when the following facts were elicited:—

A number of witnesses were examined, the substance of whose evidence was, that Mr. Mat. F. Ward, Robert Ward, and Wm. Ward, a younger brother, in relation to whom the unfortunate occurrence took place, went to the schoolhouse of Mr. B. on Wednesday morning, about 10 o'clock, and on striving there, Mathew inquired for Mr. B. Mr. B. was called and politely saluted Mr. Ward; Mathew W. then said to Mr. B., "I have a matter to settle with you," and asked him "which was worse—for one boy to have chestnuts, or a low, pusillanimous boy to beginners? Mr. B. then, it appeared, invited Mr. Mathew Ward into an inner room to explain the matter to him, but refused doing so in the presence of the boys; Mr. Ward refused to go in, and said "that was the place to settle it in;" Ward then made a motion with his arm, and Mr. B. immediately extended his sen Ward's shoulder and pushed him back, as if to prevent his committing any act; almost simultaneously with this the shot was fired, and Mr. B. immediately on the firing of the pistol by Mathew Ward, Robert J. Ward, Jr., his brother, ran about the room brandishing a bowie knife. The pupils of Mr. B. all fied through the windows, doors, &c.

Several medical gentlemen were examined, who fully proved that Mr. B. came by his death in consequence of a wound inflicted by a pistol shot—the ball entering the cavity of the left breast, and taking an upward direction. Mr. B. died at twenty minutes past 1 o'clock yesterday morning.

The circumstances that led Mr. Matthew F. Ward to the committal of the net were—William Ward, his bro-a wound indicted by a pistol shot—the ball entering the cavity of the left breast, and taking an upward direction. Mr. B. died at twenty minutes past 1 o'clock yesterday morning.

The circumstances that led Mr. Matthew F. Ward to the committal of the act were—William Ward, his brother, a young lad about fourter or offiteen years of age, had the day before some difference with another boy in the school about chestinuts, and Mr. Butter chantised the other boy. This boy complained, and said young Ward ought to be chastised as well as he. Mr. B. immediately made some inquiries, and found young Ward had told him a lie about the chestinuts; in consequence of which Mr. B. took him out also, and gave him seven or eight lashes with a strap. Young William Ward immediately left the school; and the winding up of the affair is the lameatable and unfortunate occurrence which we now report.

Messrs. E. P. Pope, Speed and Caldwell, counsel for the prisoners, affect the closing of the evidence, retired into the clerk's room, and continued there some minutes, when they returned, and stated they did not wish any postponement of the case, as they before the trial saked for; but that his Honor would give the judgment from the evidence as it then stood.

Mr. Lancaster, City Attorney, then called on the Court to return judgment of murder in the first degree against Matthew F. Ward and Robert J. Ward, Jr.

His Honor, after having carefully perused the statutes in the case, immediately said—"Let those two persons be recommitted to jail, to answer the charge of murder, on the first day of the next term of the Jefferson Circuit Court."

Mr. Butter is thus spoken of by the Louisville Journal:—William H. G. Butler was a native of Indiana, and was twenty-eight years old at the time of his death. He was educated at Hanover College, where he graduated with distinguished honor. He was one of the best educated men in the Western country, and one of the best and most successful teachers. After gradua ing he removed to this city, where he was, fo

News from Mexico—By the arrival of the schooner, Oregon, Capt Leccq, in twelve days from Tampico, we are placed in possession of files of the Evo del Comercia, of Tampico, to the 12th inst.

The Evo complains in carnest terms, of the effects of the new tariff in preventing the import of foreign breadstuffs. It declares that there is so little four in the market, in consequence, that four has risen to a high price; and that it is of such bad quality that the bread made from it—deteriorated as this is, by the wet weather which has been prevailing in this city of late—is not only unpleasant, but it is positively injurious to health. The Eco consequently makes a strong and direct appeal to the Supreme government and the authorities to take immediate sleeps to relieve the citizens from the difficulty which the new tariff has imposed on them, by facilitating the introduction of breadstuffs, as they cannot otherwise be readily obtained.
