

THE CUBAN FILIBUSTERS.

Escape of the Remaining Filibusters from Gardiner's Island.

A NEW EXPEDITION ON FOOT.

The Cuban patriot filibusters in this city seem to be the embodiment of the fabled phoenix, or, not to draw the bow too strongly, they may at times be presumed to possess the three-tripled vitality of a cat. Any one who takes the trouble and exercises the requisite ingenuity to inform himself of their projects and movements will never be much surprised to hear that their plans have failed or have been abandoned, and on the evening of the same day to learn that they have another organization in progress. And such is the state of affairs at present.

The Gardiner's Island escapement, which has for three weeks been a "wandering wonder" to the neutrality laws, is, ranked, beyond doubt, among the things that were, and at most but three of the Cuban volunteer patriots who sailed from this port on Saturday night, June 26, and who were to have been taken on board the Catharine Whiting steamer. These three are Colonel Ryan, Colonel Conner and Captain A. T. S. Anderson; and those who remained on the island evading the pursuit of the United States marines and deputy marshals, having made good their escape on Sunday morning, thus completing the escape of the patriots.

reader and perfect student both in mind and habits. Opoul, the tenor, and disciple of the Conservatoire, is studying Auber's new opera, "Dream of Love," which will be performed next month. Some little piece of music, written by the octogenarian composer, indicates that he has in his old age retained all the verve of his youth.

SKETCHES IN CHINA.

Social Habits and Customs—Fishes and Their Friends—Men and Women—Scenes in the Streets—Dinners and Drinks—Schools and Those Who Rise From Them—Who are Honored.

During our stay at Poochow I visited, accompanied by some of the missionaries long resident there, a number of the Chinese, and had an opportunity of observing their social habits and customs. How totally different they are from us in their habits, ways, mode of education, morals, everything! No wonder that we are "outside barbarians" to them and their "kings of the umbrellas, fan, petticoats and pig tail" to us.

CONNECTICUT.

ROBBERY.—On Sunday, the 18th, the house of Harman Curtis, near Steepney Depot, was broken into and robbed, an entrance being effected through a rear window while all the family were away to church, sometime between the hours of ten A. M. and three P. M. Two pocketbooks, with their contents, were taken and two others were rifled and the money taken, and our informant had not learned whether or not anything else of much value had been taken.

THIEVES ARRESTED.—Three men, calling themselves respectively Charles Hider and Charles Kasam were arrested on Saturday charged with stealing various articles of clothing from different individuals. They were taken before Justice Stevens and fined each four dollars and costs, with sixty days imprisonment. On Monday they were taken up again, and on an additional count were fined seven dollars and costs each and thirty days imprisonment.

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT.—A boy named Scofield, while walking on the beach near Seaside Park on Sunday afternoon, was shot, the bullet striking him in the side and passing the rib to the back bone, where it lodged. A surgeon made an examination, but was unable to find the ball. The wound is not considered necessarily dangerous. The shot was fired from an accidental one, but by whom fired is not known.

BURGLARY.—On Friday morning last burglars entered the store of Fisher & Co., of this place, bored a hole into the safe and blew it open with powder. In the safe was about $200 in cash, and a quantity of jewelry. The burglars were taken, and the money was taken. There is no clue as yet to the perpetrators of the crime.

THE RIVAL LONG BRANCH STEAMBOATS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.—In reference to your editorial on the rival Long Branch steamboats, the Magenta and Jesse Hoyt, I desire through your columns to say that the owners of the Magenta, whose special interest is the safety of their boat, have let it for the season on the express condition that she shall not be subjected to any risks from racing, and that to this end they maintain their own superintendence of the boat. Express instructions from the managers of the line are posted up in the boat, and the steam gauges are at all times under the strictest inspection to see that these instructions are observed.

JOHN N. MANNING, Captain of Magenta.

ANOTHER ATTEMPTED SUICIDE OF A NEW YORK GIRL IN CHICAGO.—A young girl named Julia Wein attempted to commit suicide last evening by taking a dose of poison. She was found by a friend and taken to a hospital. It appears that the girl was in a state of mind that led her to attempt to take her own life. She was brought here to this city, where she is now recovering.
