Beyer-Steffan

The "something old" worn by Joe Ann Steffan as a bride was a Chinese jade and diamond lavaliere given to her mother by her father on her wedding day. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Steffan. Miss Steffan was married to Walter Beyer, jr., son of Mrs. Catherine Beyer, 13671 Euclid ave., Saturday, September 5th at 9:30 a. m. in St. Ann's Church.

The bride, gown in white satin

Luskin-Brennen

Honeymooning in Florida are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Luskin who pledged their troth in St. Catherine's Church on Saturday, September 5th at 9:00 a.m. The bride is the former Joan Patricia Brennen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brennan, 3118 East 98th st. Mr. Luskin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Luskin, 13513 Graham rd.

The bride wore a white organza gown and carried white roses and Robert Donovan wore blue nylon tulle and carried yellow roses. The bridesmaids were Helen Burke, Patricia Burke and Mrs. John Szpansky.

Gerald Luskin was best man. Ushering were Jack Luskin, Patrick Byrne and Thomas McCarthy.

Wall-Gumto

Saint James Lutheran Church on Hayden ave. was the scene Saturday, August 29th of the wedding of Georgeann Gumto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gumto, 1508 Hillcrest rd., to Harold E. Wall, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wall, sr., 13601 Fifth ave. Rev. Robert Barkley performed the double ring ceremony at 7:30 o'clock.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length gown with a bodice of chantilly lace. The bouffant handkerchief skirt was of nylon tulle. Her veil of net with Chantilly lace border was held by a crown of pearls and rhinestones. She carried white orchids on the Bible which the groom carried through the Korean war.

Attending the couple were Miss Jean McMasters and Mr. Carl Wall, brother of the groom. Gilbert and Arthur Gumto, the bride's brothers, and Jack Alexy and Art Forester, ushers. Miss Jill Denison was the soloist.

The reception followed in the American Legion Hall.

After a short trip in Canada, the couple will take up residence in East Cleveland.

Hesford-Stephenson

Lighted tapers, vases of white gladioli, palms—such was the background for the wedding in First Presbyterian Church, Saturday, August 5th at 3:30 o'clock when Marilyn Stephenson and Frank William Hesford pledged their troth. Reading the service was the Rev. J. Franklin McHenry of Windermere Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Garner Stephenson of 1817 Burnette ave., and her husband is the son of Mr. Frank E. Hesford of 1814 Page ave.

The bride's gown was in waltz length, fashioned of Chantilly lace over permanently pleated nylon tulle and candlelight satin, the bodice accented with French illusion and lace, pearl trimmed. A detachable corsage of white roses centered her bridal bouquet.

Waltz length champagne silk organza gowns were worn by the bride's attendants, her sister, Dolores, and Vernee Dianni. Phyllisanne Hesford, junior bridesmaid wore a gown in champagne taffeta and tulle with a red sash. Their bouquets were of red roses and white delphinium.

Guests were received following the ceremony. The couple are honeymooning in New England and will reside at 15800 Euclid ave.

The bride attended Cleveland Institute of Art and her husband graduated from Ohio State University and is a Junior at Case where he is a member of Phi Kappa Psi.
