Clubs
 Opportunities of "The Best Location in the Nation" will be shown via films at the February 22 meeting of the Sunny Monday Club. The afternoon's program is being presented by the Cleveland Illuminating Co. All Golden Age men and women are invited to attend these meetings at 1:30 at the East Cleveland Woman's Club 1747 Lake Front ave.

George Henry Lovett Smith, program annotator of the Cleveland Orchestra and Russell A. Hehr, librarian in the Music Section of Cleveland Public Library will make up the program for the February 26th meeting of the Ohio Music Teachers Association at Higbee's. Mr. Smith will tell what can be learned from Mozart and Bach — teachers par excellence; and Mr. Hehr will play an original organ arrangement of the "Toy Symphony" by Mozart, assisted by the Parma Symphony orchestra. He will also do "Fantasia" by Bach as a solo.

Opening their 1954 social calendar, East Cleveland Kiwanis and their ladies will have a dinner and card party at Crosbys Saturday evening, February 27th. The party is being planned by Chairman Martin Loftus and his committee, Fred Greve, John V. Duncan, Adrian Nicholls, George N. Nelson, Dr. Chester J. Schultz, Ralph Kepner and William P. Mullooly.

This Friday, February 19th, at 1:30 p. m. at the East Cleveland Library, the fourth and final meeting of the Study of County Government will be held under the direction of Mrs. Raymond Sprengle.

The series is sponsored by the League of Women Voters. Excerpts from Edwin W. Teale's book "Days Without Time" will be discussed by Mrs. E. A. Williams as the program for the February 22nd meeting of the Critique Club. Mrs. H. C. Meyer will be the hostess in her home, 1814 Page ave.

The David A. Budino, Post 33 Jewish War Veterans and Auxiliary will hold their fourth annual Donor Dinner Dance on Saturday, February 27th at Hotel Hollenden at 6:30 p. m. The entertainment will consist of the Richie Bros. Mates & Hartley "acrobatics" and dancing to the music of Lou Elgart.

Donor co-chairmen are Mrs. Sanford Sandin and Mrs. Wilfred Kay.

Mrs. J. J. Richardson, 2181 Delaware rd., will be hostess to the Book and Thimble club Friday, February 26th. Music from Bible Times in the program topic to be presented by Mrs. Mabel Smith.

Club items may be sent to Elsa C. Berg, 14600 Euclid ave., or, if brief, phoned to PO-1-3378. While the deadline for all news is Tuesday at 5, it is appreciated when club news is received no later than Monday.

The Wheaton College Alumni Club of Cleveland will hold their annual banquet at Karl Brown's Colonial Inn, 15241 Euclid ave., Friday, February 19th at 7:00. Guest speaker will be Dr. Russell L. Mixer, professor of zoology and chairman of the division of science at Wheaton College. Dr. Mixer will speak on "Evolution" and show a colored film of the school's Black Hills, S. D., station for summer-school courses in field sciences.

President of the Cleveland Wheaton club is Henry L. Brinks, 1856 Forest Hill blvd., East Cleveland.

To pep up interest in Y-Teens, club members from all over Metropolitan Cleveland are invited to meet at an annual Midwinter Conference on February 22, at the Central YWCA, 1710 Prospect ave. Representatives from 60 high schools will meet from 10:30 a. m. to 3:00 p. m. to find way to emphasize "Pathways to Friendship," the theme for the conference.

There will be discussions of family life, club clinics, games and fun, a luncheon, and a reunion for girls who attended Summer Conference. To show World Friendship, an original scarf, made by Y-Teens themselves, will be presented to girls from the Netherlands.

Continuing the same idea, a collection of 10 cents from each girl in every club will be given to 65 countries for Y-Teens all over the globe.

Style Show Wednesday At Lake

When the Women's Junior Board of Euclid-Glenville hospital present their annual spring style show next Wednesday at 1:30 at the Lake Theatre, some lucky ticket-holder will have a choice of any of the forty hats modeled in the Engel and Fetzer show. If the style show hats do not meet with the approval of the holder of the first ticket drawn, she may select any hat in the Engel and Fetzer Huron Road store. Other door prizes include a Hoover-tank type vacuum cleaner, three gift certificates at Engel and Fetzer, one for fifty dollars and the others for twenty-five dollars each, and a hair styling or permanent at Portaro's.

The show with Engel and Fetzer's Miss Sherry Brinker as fashion co-ordinator will preview the latest in hemlines, spring colors, the new silhouette, the proper way to wear your hat, fashion hints in jewelry, and sportswear designed to suit the suburban way of life.

Ten models will participate in acts that will include suits, coats, furs, dresses, sportswear and formal attire. Featured with the spring coats will be ten famous champion French poodles in various sizes and colors "dressed in flowers" to complement the models' costumes. This year so that patrons may get a better view of the fashions, clothes will be modeled in the aisles. During the finale Arthur Murray Dancers will be present to escort and wait the models down the runway.

Working to make this year's show the biggest success ever are Mrs. E. L. James, chairman; Mrs. Phillip A. Snyder, board president; Mrs. Herbert Janke, Mrs. William Martin, Mrs. Jerry Gleitz, Mrs. Howard Leininger, Mrs. E. B. Beery, Mrs. Norman Hamlin, and Mrs. William J. Donald.

Shown admiring hats are Mrs. Hamlin, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Beery and Mrs. James.

All profits from tickets which sell for one dollar will go to help support a Junior Board hospital project. Tickets may be purchased from any committee member at the door of the Lake Theatre the day of the show. Persons wishing to contact Mrs. James about tickets may reach her at KE. 1-0049.
