Unique is the 1954-55 board of the W. H. Kirk Jr. High School. Every member of the board is a past president of one of the elementary school units in the East Cleveland School District. The result is making for the prompt dispatch of business, and smooth sailing in all departments of the unit.

What happened? Nothing unusual for a W. H. Kirk Jr. High School PTA board meeting. President Sterling Parker simply made a suggestion that immediately brought the fingers of his entire board pointed at him as they chorused "That's not PTA?"

It's difficult being the president of this year's Kirk unit. Every member on its official board is, strange to say, a past president of an elementary school unit. This means that as past presidents they have come up through the ranks and they know their way around in PTA lore.

Prexy Parker, naturally admitted he was toying with the idea of probably, just for once, catching one member off guard with his comment... but every one was listening attentively.

These PTA experts are enjoying working together at Kirk, whose PTA membership includes parents from throughout the school district. But once in a while some bit of relaxing interlude such as this comes during the more serious consideration of the items on the agenda.

Juniors Win 35 Awards In "Dry Material" Entries

The Junior Hilltoppers of Caledonia School on Monday, November 8th, assembled at 3 o'clock for a lesson in the arrangement of dry materials. Their instructors were Mrs. Joseph Millin, Mrs. William Strong, and Mrs. R. George Goller of the Hilltop Garden Club.

Interest of the children resulted in thirty-five entries at the meeting of the Hilltop Garden Club Wednesday afternoon, November 17th when the Club met at the school.

Mrs. Joseph M. Neubauer arranged the entries judged by a committee from the Garden Club. Janet Dreifort and Sally Olson were "Queens of the Show" for their double first prize awards.

Other children who received prizes were as follows:

FIRST PRIZES—Jean Seery, 5B; Sally Raach, 5B; Russell Fox, 5A; Suzanne Kalal, 6B; David Harley, 5B; Susan Smoyer, 5B; Merida Blanco, 5B; Lois Blood, 6B; Aimee Jo Lavik, 6B.

SECOND PRIZE—Chuck King, 6B; Kathleen Karle, 5B; Timothy Donato, 6B; Susan Chorman, 5A; John Aldrich, 5B; Mary Beth Con-

Brownie Troop to the Intermediate Troop was formed and one fly-up, Mary Ellen Hadell crossed and was welcomed into the Intermediate troop by leader Mrs. Elita Webb and scouts, Linda Goldstein and Barbara Webb. Gifts of good luck in advance scouting were given by the Brownie Troop and leaders.

The cooperation of committee mothers is important to a troop. Mrs. Robert Keefer, Mrs. Jack Pata, Mrs. William Muntain, Mrs. Jack Passan and Mrs. Louis Reiter agreed to take this obligation. They were introduced and a scout pin was given to them. Taps were sung, flags were retired and refreshments were served to the parents, who were the guests for the ceremony.

Blue Star Workers Prepare For Christmas
East Cleveland Blue Star Mothers will be busy next week wrapping Christmas packages for service men in this country and the sons of members overseas.

Gifts of playing cards and games suitable for servicemen, and candy and cookies will be graciously received. They may be sent to or taken to the home of Mrs. S. R. Squire, 1348 Hayden ave., on or before November 30th.

The group is also spreading Christmas joy with gifts to State Hospital, Brecksville and Crite hospitals and Christmas-on-the-Hi Seas.
