THE PRESCRIPTION PHARMACY

It is a Part of Being Expert...

The mind and the touch can be dulled from lack of practice in our profession too. But not so with the pharmacists working here in your behalf, for they compound thousands of prescriptions annually.

The quiet preference of your Doctor, plus your continued patronage have made this an active prescription pharmacy. Pharmacists here are alert, busy, and expert, having the advantage of continuous prescription experience, and finest drug products, such as those of Parke, Davis & Company, with which to practice their profession.

Junior High Pupils Are Flocking To YM-YW Sponsored Friday Dances

Following an auspicious opening November 19th, the YMCA-YWCA sponsored Canteen will hold its next dance the evening of Friday, December 17th and alternate Friday nights, with the Canteen Committee meeting on the alternate Friday after school.

Requirements for boys and girls desiring to attend the canteen are (1) they must live in the East Cleveland School District, (2) they must be in the seventh, eighth or ninth grade, (3) they must be a member of either the YMCA or the YWCA. These memberships may be paid on a Canteen Night. An admission fee of 15c is charged.

at 12:30 at the East Cleveland Woman's Club. Refreshments will be in keeping with the season.

Tale Tellers Book Club of the Church of the Cross will have a dinner party at the home of Mrs. William Oetjen, 3124 Eastwick rd. Monday, December 6th. This is the Christmas party and, in addition to a 25c gift exchange, the members will provide a Christmas remembrance for some worthy organization.

New and novel ideas pertaining to "Holiday Entertaining" in the home is being presented to the members of the East Cleveland Woman's Club today, December 2nd, by guest speaker Florence LaGanke, food editor of the Press, who will be introduced by Mrs. Guy T. Rockwell, program chairman.

Miss LaGanke will include a modern note for those who wish to be modern, yet maintain their family traditions.

A tea will follow the program with Mrs. George Reaser, Hospitality Chairman, in charge of table decor with hostesses Mrs. Edward Arn and Mrs. Grover C. Snyder, pouring.

A Board of Directors meeting will precede the afternoon session.

On Thursday, December 9th, members and friends of the East Cleveland Woman's Club will gather at the clubhouse for a Christmas benefit Bridge-Canasta party sponsored by Circle Four with Captain Mrs. William Schenk in charge. She will be assisted by Mrs. Phyllis McKee and Mrs. L. E. Pardee, All Circle chairman.

Members will bring gifts for Rainbow Hospital and Blossom Hill School for Girls. Also jams, jellies, canned foods, etc., for Christmas Baskets for the needy. This custom is a yearly activity and permits members to share the holiday spirit of giving for happiness of others.

On Tuesday, December 7th the Terrace Garden Club will have its Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. J. F. Zook, 15388 Glynn rd. After the new President, Mrs. Donald D. Burdett introduces her new chairmen and submits her budget. The members will have a gift exchange and give their decorative ideas for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Slater, 1063 Nelaview ave., will open their home to the annual Christmas party of the Cleveland Piano Teachers Club on Sunday, December 5th at four o'clock.

The East Cleveland Philatelic Society will meet at the East Cleveland YMCA, Lee rd. and Euclid on Tuesday evening, December 7th with an Ecuador kilo being opened at one cent a stamp followed by an auction of mint stamps. All active stamp collectors are welcome.

Newly elected officers of the Canteen are President, Jim Angle; Vice-President, Lynne Taylor; Secretary, Sue Sturges, and Treasurer, Penny Hense. They assist the Canteen Committee in playing the records, taking in new members and collecting the money at the door.

The Canteen Committee is made up of 25 members, representing all junior high grades: 7B—George Griffiths, Wesley Knopf, Barbara Plasmicar; 7A—Bonnie Early, Carol Passalacqua; 8B—Paul Bloomfield, Thomas Driefort, Bruce Richards, Jan Rutherford; 8A—Jim Angle, Mark Griffiths, Jane Hadsell, Joanne Kapetzky; 9B—Ralph Houchin, Yvonne Kovach, Audrey Loughney, Cal Markell, Lynne Taylor, Dan Yoepel; 9A—Dave Balk, Linda Driefort, Stu Fitrell, Penny Hense, Sue Sturges, Barbara Widlitz.

These boys and girls plan canteen policy, publicity and program, drawing from suggestions given them by canteen members. They then run the canteen activities very much on their own, with the adult supervision of YMCA executive secretary, William V. Cumler, and Mrs. Hazel Klinger, and Miss Elaine Bruckheimer of the YMCA staff. In addition there is usually present a parent team of two couples as chaperones.

The Committee extends an open invitation to any parent who wishes to drop in and look around or who would like to volunteer as a chaperone. The Committee has even formed a Welcome Committee to make you feel at Home!

Christmas Film At Library Wednesday

Movies for Christmas will be shown at the East Cleveland Library on Wednesday evening, December 8, at 8 p. m. "Ukrainian Winter Holiday" shows how Christmas is celebrated in a Ukrainian community near Winnipeg where ancient songs, traditional dances and brilliant costumes make gay the home festivities. These light-hearted scenes are brought into striking contrast with the solemn Christmas ceremonies in the Greek Orthodox Church. "Major Religions Of The World" gives a rapid survey of the five major religions Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism, Christianity, and Mohammedanism, with enough documentary scenes to give the viewer a basic orientation to each group.
