"Others" Is Christmas Theme Of Church Groups

With the need of relaxing during the busy pre-holiday season, the Men's Club of East Cleveland Congregational Church will hold an informal evening following the serving of dinner at their December 15th session in the church. It will be an opportunity for visiting and getting to know one another better, something formal programs too often leave too little time for. CAMPUS

With our modern times, look like something "from Mars."
This gift is their way of showing their appreciation to the Church for supplying them with an excellent meeting place.
Troop No. 27 welcomes Mary Ann Thomas, Susan Serota and Mary Lynne Stewart, formerly members of now disbanded troops.

With their birthday coming at the holiday, Brownie Troop 146 of Caledonia School will have a combination celebration Tuesday, December 14th, at the home of Barbara Kalkhas, 1188 Brandon rd. There will be gifts and refreshments, games and carols. Also Sue Ohman is to be received into membership through the investiture ceremony.

Committee Mothers and Troop Leaders of the Rozelle Neighborhood organization Girl Scouts will hold a Christmas party at the Phillips Avenue Presbyterian Church Monday evening, December 13th. Brownie Troop 575 is planning the entertainment and Brownies of 576 are planning the refreshments. Decorations for the party will be in charge of Troop 143.

Brownie Troop No. 576 of Phillips Avenue Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, November 30th took a box of Hershey bars to the Rose Mary Home, 19350 Euclid ave. Mrs. Dorothy Gherges, a Committee mother, drove Marilyn Anderson, Nancy Barton, Christine Cecil, Nancy Crabtree and Mrs. Geraldine Chamberlain a leader, to the home where they enjoyed seeing the children.

TROOP 402 HAS FIRST BIRTHDAY

Serata and Mrs. George Collins, are happily planning a party for Monday, December 13th at 3:30 in the school club room. Mothers, fathers, principal and teachers are invited.

The troop's first year has been successful — outstanding events during the year will be dramatized through skits. There will be a flag ceremony and presentation of first-year pins to the Brownies. Mothers serving on the Troop Committee will be presented with Scout Pins.

Refreshments including a beautiful decorated birthday cake will be served.

The Caledonia neighborhood Brownies gave their Trick or Treat candy to Mrs. Harry Dennis who packed it in large cartons and delivered it to Woodland Center. Brownies of Troop No. 4 under the leadership of Mrs. Eleanor

These Fires Due To Carelessness Says Department Chief

Three fires here over the week-end were due to carelessness, reports Fire Chief Lange.
A piece of fabric tossed over a lighted electric light bulb caused $65 loss in the home of Edwin Welch, 12618 Superior rd., when it ignited and fell to the floor December 7th.

An overheated iron burned through an ironing board at 13010 Forest Hills ave. at 9:00 a.m. December 8th. Mrs. Laura Shorter maintains a home there for older women.

The plant of kittens came to the ears of Mrs. George Hamilton, 12800 Speedway Overlook about 4:00 a.m. December 4th when she was awakened by a crash to find her bedroom filled with smoke.

Rushing to the first floor she found an overturned lamp. A davenport and nearby furniture

Egan and Mrs. Mary Lazna visited the Terminal Tower via the New York Central recently.

BROWNIES RIDE TRAIN FOR TERMINAL EXCURSION

Fun and education joined hands in a trip to the Terminal Tower by Brownie Troop No. 575 of Rozelle Elementary School. East Cleveland terminal was full of excitement when the Brownies arrived there. A train announcer acted as a guide. He explained the bulletin board, where to buy your ticket, what becomes of your baggage and many behind-the-scenes actions. The troop found the floor scales could not only be used for weighing trunks, but it also gave an accurate weight of an entire troop; 17 girls at 1,328 pounds.

Then the swift elevator ride to the observation tower. Ah! and Oh! rang free as the girls saw a bird's eye view of Cleveland. After lunch a tired troop boarded a train for home with many new things to tell their parents.
