lege of Western Reserve University, where she is studying for a master's degree.

Mr. Blech is a graduate of Shaw High School, and served with the United States Navy in Korea for four years.

A fall wedding is planned.

Mr. Leonard Glenn Aaroe First among the June brides was Helen Vandorn Alden whose marriage to Leonard Glenn Aaroe was solemnized Saturday, June 2nd by the Rev. J. Franklyn McHenry in Windermere Presbyterian Church. Seven branched candelabra with gladioli and snapdragons on the altar was the setting for the impressive ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Marshall VanDoren Alden, 1514 Holyoke ave., was given in marriage by her father. Her gown, was a floor-length model with an off-the-shoulder neckline of lace and pleated tulle, and a full skirt of nylon tulle, featured with appliques of re-embroidered alencon lace. Her veil of illusion was held in place with a coronet of matching lace, dotted with sequins and pearls. She carried a prayer book on which rested a white orchid, showered with stephanotis, and her paternal grandmother's lace wedding handkerchief.

Mrs. Walter Clark, matron of honor, and Miss Louise Fenn and Miss Pauline Patterson, bridesmaids wore similar ballerina length gowns in yellow yard dyed taffeta in princess mode with V necklines. A hipline of harmonizing lace fell over a deeper shade of yellow taffeta. Huge bow sashes gave the finish touch. They carried orchid gladiolius florets.

Mr. John Nash was the best man. The ushers were Mr. William Keli and Mr. Charles Brobst.

Guests were received at the Lake Shore Country Club immediately following the two o'clock ceremony. Upon their return from the Thousand Islands the couple will reside at 14301 Strathmore ave.

The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Aaroe of 5445 44th ave., St. Petersburg, Fla. He is a graduate of Miami University. Out-of-town guests were Mr. Stanley Aaroe of St. Catharines, Ontario, Canada; Miss Gladys Alden, Troy, N. Y.; Mrs. Norman Zautner, Lansdowne, Pa., and Mr. H. Vady Warner, Albany, N. Y.

The mother of the bride wore wedgewood blue with beige accessories and a corsage of Cymbidium orchids.

Santoro-Polakowski

In St. Paul's Catholic Church Saturday, May 24th, the Rev. Fr. Brennan united in marriage Mary Ann Polakowski, daughter of Mrs. Anna Polakowski, 18514 Mohawk st., and Lt. Gilbert Santoro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Santoro, 14208 Savannah ave., East Cleveland. The bride was given in marriage by her eldest brother, Joseph Polakowski.

Attending the bride were Delores Winiowski as maid of honor, attired in a pink waltz length gown, and Jackie Rini as bridesmaid in a matching gown in blue.

The bride's gown of lace and net had a high neck with a narrow collar of lace with pearl and sequin trim; and an ankle length hoop skirt and a long train. The veil was held with a crown of pearls and sequins. She carried an orchid in a wreath bouquet of tiny white flowers.

The reception was held at St. Anthony Hall.

The groom, a Shaw High and Toledo University graduate is stationed at Dugway Proving Grounds, Utah, and the couple left for there, sight-seeing enroute. His bride is a graduate of Ursuline High School. His fraternity is Phi Kappa Phi.
