Bike Parade Will Highlight Lawn Fete

A parade of 500 bicycles, floats, ponies, Scout Units, clowns, and Civil Defense Men will take place Sunday at 1:30 in the afternoon. The parade will help celebrate the annual Lawn Fete at St. Aloysius Church. The Fete will begin tomorrow evening at 6:00 with a Fish Fry. The Fete will continue through Monday.

Leading the parade will be a color guard furnished by the United States Coast Guard. The main float will be dedicated to Our Lady of Fatima. It will depict the appearance of Our Lady. The parade will form at the parking lot at East 127th st. and Shaw ave. Promptly at 1:30 p.m. it will begin on its parade route which will lead it past the church grounds on East 110th st. and St. Clair ave., over to East 99th st. and back to the church grounds.

Following the parade, a children's and nun's matinee will be held at the Fete, where the rides will be offered at a reduced rate. St. Christopher medals will be given to all children who ride a bicycle in the parade.

Red Coats Invade Beach Saturday

The Euclid Ford "Red Coats" will stage a mock invasion of this territory this Saturday, July 25th at 11:30 a.m. at the landing dock of Wildwood Park at the foot of Neff rd., from the invasion ship, "Mary Ann," and the public is invited to watch it. The landing is to start off a full day of activities which will have Kenny Bass broadcasting over WJMO from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. from the beach and giving away free records to spectators. Then there will be free doughnuts and coffee at Euclid Ford's "beachhead" at its showrooms, 405 East 185th st. As an added attraction a number of Ford Custom 300's, Fairlanes and Thunderbirds will be specially marked down for the day's festivities. A policy of "first come—first served" will be observed for smart shoppers who will be able to buy these cars at low, low prices.
