NOT THE RIGHT ANSWER,

The Clay Center Times says that a small boy up there came home form school one day with evidences of grief all over his face. His father asked him what was the trouble,

"I just had lots of trouble this afternoon," answered the little fellow, 'and it's all your fault too,"

"All my fault; how in the name of wonder do I get into it?" replied the

"It's all your fault, anyhow," choked the boy, "and the teacher stood me up in the corner before the whole school ever since recess,"

"Well, son, I see there is trouble, so tell your old father all about it; that's the boy."

"You see, dad, teacher asked us vesterday how much a million dollars was and said we must tell her today. I asked you an' you said it was a hell of a lot, and daddy, that wasn't the right answer 'tall."

Mrs. Frank Wurm was taken to her home in Ellinwood Sunday after being confined in the hospital here for a couple of weeks.
