LABOR DAY OUTING

Committee is Making Elaborate Plans—Parade to Be Biggest Ever.

We have had Labor Day celebrations in past years and we have had Labor Day parades, but none of them will compare with the celebration and parade of this year. The committee is holding nightly sessions and many of the committee are sacrificing time during the day in their efforts to outdo anything ever attempted before in the way of Labor Day celebrations.

As usual, the place for holding the big event will be the fair grounds. No other place in Butler county would be big enough to hold this year's event. Everything that was ever used to make a big outing will be there and then some. More bands will be on the grounds than ever before on one day. The country store contributions are rolling in. Dancing will be indulged all day and evening. Fireworks such as has never before been seen on the fair grounds will be displayed in the evening.

But where organized labor will really shine on the big day is the parade which will precede the big outing. Never were there so many men nor so many unions in line as will be on the morning of Labor Day this year. Many of the organizations will be in special uniforms and will be in line 100 per cent. The whole program and line-up will appear in The Press next week. And by the way, watch for The Press next week, it will be a peach.

GOES WITH MAX EPH-RATH STORE

FERD A. WISEMAN.

Ferd A. Wiseman, for many years connected with the Heyman-Fisher Company, and one of the best known clerks in the city, is to be identified with the new Max Eph-Rath clothing store in the Hotel Hamilton building, which will be ready to open its doors about the first week in September.

Ferd is one of those jolly good fellows, known to everyone and liked by everybody. He is a popular member of the local Retail Clerks' union, whose members all wish for him every success in his new position.

In securing Ferd Wiseman as one of the force for his new store, Mr. Eph-Rath made a ten-strike and a long step forward to success.

The new Max Eph-Rath store is to be a beauty, both inside and out, and Hamilton is to be congratulated upon securing this handsome addition to its growing business center. Due notice of the exact date of the opening of the store will be given to the public.

PASS SANITARY BILL.

Charleston, W. Va.—The house has passed the sanitary code bill, urged by the Plumbers' union. The measure is now before the senate with good prospects of success.

Watch for John A. Neff.

CARPENTERS AND BRICKLAYERS GET TOGETHER

Long Step Forward Taken By Crafts Toward Building Trades Organization.

The building crafts are beginning to see the uselessness of pulling apart. The bricklayers and carpenters unions have joined hands and will pull together in the future. Articles of agreement have been signed wherein it is agreed that union carpenters will not work in the future on jobs where non-union bricklayers are employed, nor will union bricklayers work on jobs where non-union carpenters are employed.

A committee has been formed, consisting of four bricklayers and four carpenters, whose duty it is to perform any service that may be required of them. Any member of these allied trades who violates any of the agreement is to be tried by the joint committee and if found guilty will be fined $5.00 for the first offense and a sum up to $100 for any offense thereafter.

This is the first step in what is considered the forming of a building trades council in the near future, wherein all the building crafts will join. It is now up to the plumbers, plasterers, lathers, painters and decorators to get busy and join hands for the mutual benefit of all concerned.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES ORGANIZE

At a meeting held Tuesday at the Y. M. C. A., postal employees from all over the county decided to perfect a permanent organization in order that a more concerted effort might be made in securing the necessary legislation to increase the present salaries of all postal employees.

The following officers were elected: President, William McKemy, of Hamilton; vice president, Frank J. Todd, of Oxford; secretary, Arthur L. Jacobs, of Hamilton; treasurer, William A. Biddinger, of Hamilton. The Honorable John T. Mugavin, of Cincinnati, was present and addressed the meeting and was heard with much interest.

A publicity committee has been appointed and this committee will do everything in its power to place before the people the facts concerning the working conditions of postal employees and their salaries.

The postal employees endorsed the bill introduced in the senate by the Honorable George H. Moses of New Hampshire, which calls for an increase of thirty-five per cent to all postal employees. It is a well known fact that the wages paid postal employees are about fifty per cent lower than that paid in other employment requiring the same amount of skill and diligence. The present wages are such that they will not permit of the base necessities of life and as a consequence they are carrying a burden that is fast becoming unbearable. It is believed that the bill of Senator Moses will relieve the situation to some extent.
