

DAUGHTER OF AGUINALDO IN U. S. CAPITAL

She Meets Many Wives of American Statesmen and Makes a Hit.

When General Emilio Aguinaldo was leading the Filipino army against the American forces twenty years ago he probably little dreamed that some day a daughter of his would visit the city of Washington and would be given a great reception at the famous Congressional Club! And that the wives of 120 members of the American Congress and two wives of members of the President's cabinet would call upon her to pay their respects!

But all this actually happened when Miss Carmen Aguinaldo, his nineteen-year-old daughter, visited Washington recently. And those wives of the American statesmen expressed themselves as both charmed and surprised at the refined, tactful, college educated young miss who greeted them.

"Miss Aguinaldo was simply delightful," was the expression of one congressman's wife. "She was very modest, yet she acted so natural and thoroughly at home that she captivated everybody."

On another occasion while in Washington Miss Aguinaldo was given a real ovation by a Filipino-American audience when she recited "My Last Farewell," poem of Dr. Jose Rizal, the Filipino martyr.

Miss Aguinaldo is a student at the University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill. While in Washington she was the guest of Mrs. James C. deVeyra, wife of one of the resident commissioners from the Philippines. The Capitol building and the Congressional library appealed particularly to the young Filipina, while the beautiful sights from the Washington monument thrilled her with delight. When asked how she liked America, she smiled and answered:

"It is a wonderful country. I didn't like winter at first, but since I have learned how to skate I am having fine times. All the Americans whom I have met have been very good to me. My friends in Urbana and my classmates in the university are just lovely, but I cannot help feeling homesick at times because I am missing my father. My coming here was indeed a great sacrifice for him, for we are very close. He is so good to me."

Miss Aguinaldo is intensely patriotic. She does not conceal her resentment when she hears or reads of a misrepresentation of the Filipinos. "It is unfortunate," she once exclaimed in a voice full of sadness, "that my country and my people are hardly known, much less understood, by the people of America."

Politics is tabooed in any conversation with this Filipino maid. She evades the topic by replying that she is too young to express opinions on things political. "All I can say," she declares, "is that I share with my father in the desire for independence for my native land. There is no question about our being able to govern ourselves."

Filipinos declare Miss Aguinaldo has a "genuine Filipina temperament"—that is, she does not believe in the occidental custom of "dates" between young men and women. She does not see anything wrong in it, she says, but it is such a violent departure from the custom in the Philippines that she cannot adopt it.

"You might laugh at me," she said, "but I cannot go out with one single escort unchaperoned. I simply can't. I will go back to my country with the soul of a Filipina."

A newspaper in one of the large American cities that Miss Aguinaldo visited expressed the opinion that she would no doubt be greatly impressed by the sight of street cars and some of the fine residences she would see, but the truth is the young lady was raised in Manila, where she has seen an up-to-date street car system all her life.

URGES SCOUTS TO BE AVIATORS.

The boy scouts of New England are urged to take instruction in flying by Col. L. H. Drennon, air service officer at army headquarters, who, in speaking of the boy scouts and their future work, points to the necessity of a mechanical training as one of their strongest assets.

"I have been asked to speak before the boy scouts, and, in every instance, I have urged upon them the necessity of knowing machines, especially the airplane," said the colonel.

"While these boys may never fly, they should get acquainted with the mechanism of these machines."

THE BOY SCOUT'S BUSY LIFE.

Boy Scout Troop No. 1 of Colliersville, Tenn., helped the town to keep the public square clean. The troop has taken during the past year 114 merit badges. They have one Eagle Scout and one Star Scout.

Warren, Pa., Scout Troop No. 6 has sent to National Council headquarters for use in some special way in connection with extension of the boy scout movement a $50 Liberty bond purchased with money earned by planting trees.

Dishes to Tempt the Appetite.

Shape rich bread dough in sticks similar to bread sticks. Place on a buttered sheet, cover and let rise in a warm place 15 minutes. Brush over with the white of egg diluted with a tablespoonful of water. Sprinkle with powdered sugar and chopped nuts. Bake in a hot oven about ten minutes. These are delicious served with coffee or chocolate. They are called "frits."

Baked Banana With Sultana Sauce.

Cook one-half cupful of sultana raisins in 1½ cupfuls of boiling water for 30 minutes. Mix well one-half cupful of sugar with two tablespoonfuls of cornstarch, then stir into the raisins and water which should measure a cupful. Boil six minutes, add one teaspoonful each of lemon juice and vanilla. Serve poured around baked bananas.

Apple Souffle.

Pare, core and stew four tart apples just enough water to keep from burning. Put through a sieve. To one tablespoonful of butter in a saucepan add four tablespoonfuls of cornstarch and one tablespoonful of flour, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt, four tablespoonfuls of cold water and cook until clear. Add one cupful of hot apple pulp, sweetened to taste and one teaspoonful of lemon juice. Remove from the fire and add three well-beaten egg yolks, then cut and fold in the whites beaten stiff. Pour into a well-buttered baking dish and bake until puffed and delicately brown.

Blanquette of Chicken.

Make one cupful of cream sauce, put it in a double boiler and add one pint of cooked chicken cut in bits and one tablespoonful of minced parsley. When hot beat the yolks of two eggs, add two tablespoonfuls of milk and stir into the chicken. Serve in a rice or potato border.

Home-Made Breakfast Food.

Take three-fourths cupful each of Graham and wheat flour, mix well, add salt and water and cook as usual to a thick mush. Serve with cream and sugar.

Iowa has 345 local organizations, Ohio has 298, Massachusetts 238, New Jersey 224, Missouri 220 and Indiana 203.

Early Playing Cards.

In early playing cards swords took the place of "spades" and representations of coins were the equivalent of "diamonds."

GOV.-GENERAL OF PHILIPPINES FOR FREEDOM

Declares It Not Right That Freedom Should Longer Be Withheld.

By FRANCIS BURTON HARRISON, Governor-General of the Philippines. (First Article.)

Gov. Gen. Harrison

My six years' experience as governor-general of the Philippine Islands have convinced me that the Filipino people are ready and fit to have their independence. I have recommended to Congress, as well as to the executive administration, that independence be granted.

As to the question of the stability of government, I wish to say to the American people upon my responsibility as the governor-general that in my opinion there exists today in the Philippine Islands a stable government, which I think should answer the requirements laid down by Presidents Grant and McKinley, and as I understand it, also by Mr. Root—namely, a government elected by the suffrage of the people, which is supported by the people, which is capable of maintaining order and of fulfilling its international obligations.

I am very glad to go on record as being entirely in sympathy with the aspirations of the Filipino nation for independence. I have recommended to Congress that in granting independence some provision be made similar to what is known as the Platt amendment in the treaty with Cuba, which restricts the ability of the new republic in borrowing of foreign governments and also permits the United States to interfere with the affairs of the new republic in case conditions of disorder should be found to prevail. Such recommendation does not come as an expression of the views of the Filipinos; it is my own view of what would be desirable to secure a feeling of confidence and satisfaction on the part of all persons who have already invested money in the Philippines or who contemplate doing so in the near future.

But it is not right that independence itself should longer be delayed.

By temperament, by experience, by financial ability, in every way, the 11,000,000 Filipinos are entitled to be free from every government except of their own choice. They are intelligent enough to decide for themselves. I have found the native Filipino official to be honest, efficient and as capable of administering executive positions as any men I have met anywhere in the world.

These officials are today governing 1,000 municipalities and forty-two provinces, economically, efficiently and for the good of the entire people. They have a native Congress, including many graduates of Yale, Princeton, Harvard and other American universities. Other members are graduates of Santo Tomas and other Philippine universities, and in education and ability they compare favorably with any I know.

They have leaders like Speaker Osmena of the House of Representatives and President Quezon of the Senate who would adorn any office.

The Philippines are away ahead of the United States in successful government ownership and operation of public utilities.

The government took hold of the steam railways and made them pay a profit of 1,000,000 pesos a year more than under private ownership.

It took hold of the highways, and we have 7,000 miles of the best macadamized roads in the world. The Manila city government is about to take over the street railways and the gas and electric plants, while the territorial government is arranging for ownership and control of the coal supply.

One movement for independence is a peaceful one. No territory was more loyal to Uncle Sam during the war. It offered an armed and equipped division to our government, gave it a submarine destroyer and oversubscribed Liberty loans and Red Cross funds.

Two million natives speak English fluently, and there are 700,000 English speaking children in the public schools. I am more than willing to retire if the Filipinos can be granted what they deserve—a government like that of the United States.

A MISREPRESENTED RACE.

The Filipino people are a much misrepresented race. The frequent publication of pictures of semi-naked Mindanao Moros and Igorotes has caused a great many Americans to believe they are typical of the inhabitants of the Philippines. Such is far from the case, however. Of 11,000,000 inhabitants of the islands, 10,500,000 are a Christian, civilized people with a culture and refinement that will compare very favorably with that of other nations. The Filipino women are exceptionally modest. A street flirtation in Manila, so far as a Filipino woman is concerned, is something that is almost unknown, as any American that has visited Manila will testify.

ALL WOULD BE BOYS AGAIN.

Leon Beard at a recent scout camp in Scranton told the boys that they must not be afraid or overawed by "the bunch of clergymen, dignified judges and confidentially that there is not a man in the crowd who would not be willing to change places with the greenest tenderfoot among the scouts present."

This remark seemed to hit both the boys and men very favorably, and Robert L. Graham was moved to send these lines to the scout commissioner:

I'd like to hit the good old trails, And tramp the woods near home till sore, I'd like to be with old-time pals, I'd like to be a boy once more.

I hear the bugle calling, It's calling me back again— Back to the land of "Yesterday." To the camp of "What-has-been."

I think I see the bugler, His name is "Memory," And he's calling for this "good scout" To come back and happy be.

GETHESEMANE

In golden youth when seems the earth A summerland of singing mirth, When souls are glad and hearts are light And not a shadow lurks in sight, We do not know it, but there lies, Somewhere veiled under evening skies A garden which we all must see— The garden of Gethsemane.

With joyous steps we go our ways, Love lends a halo to our days, Light sorrows sail like clouds afar, We laugh and say how strong we are, We hurry on, and hurrying go Close to the border land of woe. That waits for you, and waits for me— Forever waits Gethsemane.

Down shadowy lanes, across strange streams, Bridged over by our broken dreams, Behind the misty caps of years, Beyond the great salt fount of tears The garden lies. Strive as you may, You cannot miss it on your way— All paths that have been or shall be Pass somewhere through Gethsemane.

All those who journey, soon or late, Must pass wither the garden gate, Must kneel alone in darkness there, And battle with some fierce despair, God pity those who cannot say, "Not mine but Thine," who only pray, "Let this cup pass," and cannot see The purpose of Gethsemane.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

The World's Population.

A conservative estimate, based on rough estimates of the world's population, which even now are hardly more than guesses, shows that there are probably about as many people living now as have died within the last 140 years.

Popular and Electoral Vote.

The number of electoral votes and the popular vote for President Wilson and Charles E. Hughes in the last election were: Popular vote: Wilson, 9,129,090; Hughes, 8,538,221. Electoral: Wilson, 277; Hughes, 254.
