BIG MID-SUMMER CARNIVAL

All Next Week at Moose Exposition Park

Next week is to be another big jolly week at the Moose exposition park on South Second street. The occasion is to be the big mid-summer carnival which will be under the auspices of the Modern Woodmen of the World. It is to be an old-fashioned affair, an old-time carnival, one where one takes the whole family and has the time of their lives. Everything that can be thought of in the amusement line will be there. Plenty of good music, several big free attractions and many things to entertain all who attend.

This is the first attempt on the part of the lodge to put an affair as big as this one is to be done, and the committee is determined that it will be outshined by none. Everyone is welcome. The slogan is "Bring the family, bring your friends and have the biggest time you ever enjoyed."

HOLD NO CONVENTION

New York.—By a six-to-one referendum vote members of the United Garment Workers have decided to hold no convention this year.

FIT-RITE SHOE COMPANY

Opens New Store in Hamilton Saturday

A new shoe store is to make its initial bow to the public of Hamilton when the Fit-Rite Shoe Company opens its fine new store on Saturday morning. The store will be located in the Trebel building on South Third street, opposite the Palace theatre. This room was formerly occupied by the Bon-Ton ladies' store. The store is one of many conducted by the Sam J. Bruson & Company. The manager will be A. J. Sacks, a former Butler county man, who was born and reared in Middletown and has many old friends in this vicinity who are glad to see him back and going into business here.

The room to be occupied is being handsomely improved and equipped for the business, and will be one of the finest shoe stores in the city. The company will handle shoes for the whole family and at prices to please the public.

MORE MILK FOR KIDDIES

Aurora, Ill.—A new wage agreement negotiated by organized pattern makers calls for $1.10 an hour.

ANTI-UNIONISTS COMPROMISING

Cincinnati.—"We favor the formation of shop committees to represent both the workingmen and the management," said Walter G. Merritt in a speech to business men in this city.

The speaker is not an employer. He is a lawyer and represents the league for industrial rights. This organization succeeds the anti-boycott association, which dropped that name when the league of nations announced in effect that any country that violated the provisions of the league would be boycotted.

Merritt has been engaged in many legal suits against organized labor. His statement what "we" favor would lead to the belief that he is a producer. A few years ago Merritt was shrieking for "the right of employers to run their own business," but now he is trimming his sails.

VICTIMIZING WORKERS

Bridgeport, Conn.—The central labor union has protested against employers in this city discharging workers in large numbers while importing men to take their places. The unionists denounce this policy of flooding the city with workers in an attempt to destroy living standards established by the unions.

PACKERS IN CONTROL

Madison, Wis.—In discussing the announcement that Armour & Co. have reorganized with a capital stock of $400,000,000, as against $20,000,000 four years ago, the Capital Times says:

"Working men are being told to go back to work and increase production. Is any one so foolish as to think that production makes any difference in price in the packing industry? No, the packing industry is powerful enough to control production and price."

"And a department of justice, headed by Palmer, 'makes agreements' with this crowd of exploiters."
