L. I. KNOWLTON GIVES LECTURE

Sunday Night at Theosophical Rooms. Interested Audience Hears an Intelligent Discussion.

"Occultism As a Factor in Civilization" was the subject of a lecture at the Theosophical rooms last night, when L. I. Knowlton analyzed the differences between the civilizations of the orient and the occident. The speaker said that the east and the west represented two distinct phases of human evolution—the objective or physically active, and the subjective, or philosophic, America being typical of the one and India of the other. Both have much to learn from the other. America with its wealth of material resources can learn valuable lessons from India with its wealth of intellectual and philosophical attainments. The speaker endeavored to show that we have just as many absurd superstitions in America as are credited to the oriental countries by our returning missionaries; that much of our civilization is a very thin veneer; and that the contrast in religious tolerance and intellectual attainments is very largely in favor of the orient. "Colonel Olcott gives us a glimpse," said the speaker, "of what Hindoos naturally think of our civilization. A pair of doors were presented to the library at Adyar, India. The native artisan, hoping to please the occidentals, had carved on the doors what seemed to him appropriate symbols of our civilization. He decorated the gift with emblems he thought would be most pleasing to occidental eyes. And when the gift was presented there appeared in all their esoteric beauty a pistol, a padlock and a corkscrew! And why not? The pistol, emblematic of physical force, of warfare, has been a dramatic factor in our civilization, while in the orient it is hardly known. The lock is everywhere in evidence with us, from the bank down to the chicken-coop; the corkscrew has ever followed Christian missionaries into 'heathen' countries."

WHAT DO I HATE?

By ANISE in Seattle Union Record.

One of them said
"Think of the WOMEN
Of Belgium."
Think of the CHILDREN
Starving and slaughtered.
Think of the POISON GAS.
Think of the horrible
MILITARY MACHINE
That ravaged
The fields of France.
And ruined
The HOMES of a world.
And dare to tell me then
The HUNS can ever be free
From our HATE?"
And I heard the other answer.
Quiet, a little sad,
"I think of them," he said.
"And I look at YOU
A CLEAN young man,
Gentle and chivalrous
Towards WOMEN.
Gay with CHILDREN.
FAIR towards MEN.
And I think: HERE STANDS
A murderer of babies
An outrage of women
But for the accident
OF BIRTH.
HERE in Seattle.
Instead of OVER in Hamburg.
And I look at MYSELF
A father of children.
A peaceful man
Loving the hills and waters
Of our Northwest.
And I see myself
In a MILITARY MACHINE.
Trained in the talk of camps.
Trained to SURRENDER
My SOUL
To the will of ANOTHER.
And I see myself
Raging DRUNK and LUSTFUL
Through Belgium streets!
I think of this he said
And I see
A young Bavarian boy
Who MIGHT HAVE BEEN LET ALONE
And might have loved
Some rosy-cheeked
Bavarian peasant girl.
And learned from love,
Kindness and courtesy.
And how to hold in chains
The BEAST
That lives in all of us.
And might have been the tiller
Of fruitful soil.
Father of many children.
A trifle ignorant
A trifle domineering
But decent and friendly
Instead of the LOST SOUL
Those nights in Belgium
Made him.
I think of these," he said,
"And WHAT DO I HATE,
YOU and MYSELF
And that BAVARIAN BOY, MEN?
Or WAR?"

PARADE AND CHURCH CEREMONIES PLANNED

Judge J. J. Lynch Chairman of Committee in Charge on March 17.

Judge J. J. Lynch is chairman of the St. Patrick's day committee, and at a meeting of the executive committee held Sunday afternoon at Hibernia hall it was decided to have a parade from Hihernia hall to St. Patrick's church, where solemn high mass will be celebrated in honor of St. Patrick, Ireland's patron saint. James J. Connolly is secretary and Walter J. Sewell, treasurer of the committee. It is the intention of the committee to bring some orator of reputation to the city for the evening's celebration and banquet, and, if possible, an Irish play will be produced at one of the local theaters. All citizens of the community of Irish birth, extraction or sympathies are invited to participate in the parade and celebration, and the committee has promised that this year's St. Patrick's day will see the grandest events in the history of the entire northwest. The committee will meet again tomorrow night to make further arrangements.
