SUMMARY OF FOREIGN EVENTS.

Ireland—Advices from England say that conditions in Ireland are most disquieting. Lawlessness has not been discouraged by the recent proclamations, and crimes of violence are increasing in number. The English papers call attention to the numerous murders and point out that the government is apparently carrying on at the same time two policies toward Ireland—one the policy of conciliation, Lord French's latest manifesto proclaims the Sinn Fein and kindred societies throughout Ireland as illegal bodies. The Sinn Fein had already been proscribed such in Dublin and other parts before the recent meeting of the Sinn Fein congress there; yet the Sinn Feiners held their congress—even advertised and boasted of it—and nothing happened in the way of measures against them.

Russia—Maxim Litvinoff, representative of the Russian Soviet government in conference at Copenhagen, concerning an exchange of prisoners, admitted that he had been approached by Denmark and other neutral countries with regard to their nationals in Siberia. Litvinoff said that the Soviet government was prepared to liberate all British prisoners and to permit British nationals to leave Russia, provided Russia's nationals in foreign countries were set free by the blockade was permitted, freely to communicate with Russia and the Russian government permitted to attend to the interests of these nationals.

England—A resolution calling on the American government to release conscientious objectors still in prison was adopted by the delegate of the Non-Conscription Fellowship in London.

Speaking on a resolution demanding the repeal of the military service act, Robert Smillie, the miners' leader, expressed the hope that the whole movement would not hesitate to resort to a general strike if the proved to be the only means of securing abolition of the hateful measure.

The Welsh coal miners have voted in favor of a strike in order to resist payment of a tax on income below two hundred and fifty pound sterling annually.

Egypt—"Inflammatory" documents are circulated in Egypt threatening a general strike on the railroads, according to advices from Cairo. Earl Curzon, the foreign secretary, speaking in the house of lords, said that "Egypt neither was able to protect her own frontier from aggression nor to guarantee a stable internal government." He declared that "Great Britain could not wash her hands of a country standing at the door of Africa and the highway to India."

Said Zagloul Pasha, president of the Egyptian delegation to the peace conference, has sent a telegram to President Wilson pointing out that as a result of having faith in his principles and claiming independence since the Egyptians now find themselves the objects of barbarous treatment at the hands of the British authorities. The communication concludes: "We adjure you not to leave the Egyptian people alone against implacable England."

CLEMENCEAU'S BURN SIMPLE.

Paris, Dec. 16.—An X-ray examination of Premier Clemenceau has developed that the injuries sustained while crossing the English channel last Wednesday compromise a fracture of the eighth rib on the left side. Clemenceau was thrown against an iron rail during a storm.

ABANDON STEAMER MESSINA.
Halifax, N. S., Dec. 16.—The British steamer Messina, reported to be sinking condition Sunday off the coast of Newfoundland more than 400 miles, has been abandoned, according to wireless received here.

Books Which Deal With the New Realities

AFTER THE WHIRLWIND
By Charles Edward Russell
Author of "Why I Am a Socialist," etc.
This is a book of the most interesting nature of his views of labor's attitude toward the world problems of today, and it is a book for the labor-discontented worker, the cause leading up to the great war, the social domination of German imperialism, and a most well-illustrated of German imperialism. Mr. Russell deals in a simple, direct, and convincing manner with the problems of the world. He is a member of the communist party, but he is not a revolutionary. He is a realist. Price, $1.50.

SIX RED MONTHS IN RUSSIA
By Louise Bryan
She lived in Revolutionary Russia as one of the people; she knew Kerevsky, Lenin, Trotsky, and the women of the revolution. She attended the inner council of the Soviet, and here is a vivid and sympathetic presentation of the Russian Revolution. She presents its case clearly and dramatically. Price, $1.50.

AMERICAN LABOR AND THE WAR
By Samuel Gompers
President of the American Federation of Labor
This exposition is of the nature of a gospel of labor in its bearing upon social and economic readjustment. Washington Star.

The book contains Mr. Gompers' important war speeches and Labor's official war record, including all the vital war measures and resolutions of the Federation. Price, $1.75.

CIVILIZATION: TALES OF THE ORIENT
By Ellen M. La Motte
She looks beneath the outer surface of things political and social in the East and writes of inner motives and meanings in a frank, fresh, and original way. This is a series of seven short stories, each a study in human nature. Price, $1.50.

DANNERS

MRS. BLAKE SAYS HER BABE NOT KIDNAPPED

Mother, Charged with Murder of Dumb Infant to Regain Love of Husband, Considered Insane.

(Special United Press Wire.)
Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 16.—Mrs. Esther Blake, accused of murdering her little dumb son, "Buddy," in the insane belief that she could win back her husband's love, admitted to authorities today that he boy was kidnapped as at first declared, according to Dr. Louis Souder, county physician. He said he admitted walking out on the municipal pier at Ventnor with the boy on Friday night and that she declared "he must have fallen into the water."

Mrs. Blake, against whom a charge of wilful murder has been placed, was held all night in the hospital since Friday night when she asserted, two negroes attacked her and Buddy on the street, choked her into unconsciousness and stole the boy.

According to Dr. Souder, Mrs. Blake started to repeat to him the kidnapping story. He told her she knew that was untrue. He said she then began crying and said "No, I don't," but he remembered just what happened. Buddy and I went down the pier. He was running ahead of me, carrying my purse. I guess he must have fallen into the water."

ALL FOR A THIN DIME.

(Special United Press Wire.)
Oakland, Cal., Dec. 16.—Committees on a crowded ferry boat scrambled for cover when Mike Babette, flour-shiner, drew a revolver, pointed it at Sam, both were arrested. Mike said Sam owed him a dime.

MAKES HIT WITH BENEFACTORS.

Detroit, Dec. 16.—Judge Todd has ruled that Henry Van Court's objections to supporting his mother-in-law were insufficient grounds for a divorce.

THE BOOMER LINEMAN

I met a man who was bent and old,
His coat was thin, he shivered with cold.
His face wore a smile as he passed along,
And he hummed the refrain of an old-time song.
When I spoke, he said, "I'm never sad;
I just think of all the fun I've had.
He once was a lineman—that was enough,
For they don't care, and their ways are rough.
He had no money, no place to go,
When the winds of winter began to blow.
But he said: "For all that, things ain't bad;
I just think of the fun I've had.
He had traveled north, south, east and west,
And said he liked them all the best.
He looked at things on the brighter side,
When he rode the beams on a mid-night ride.
If they ditched him, it never made him mad;
He just thought of all the fun he'd had.
He drank like a fish, and you bet he swore;
He soaked his books to get some more.
His phlegm went next, and then his belt,
The drinker he got, the better he felt.
He said, "I'm happy; the whole world's glad;
And I think of all the fun I've had.
There was one thing more, and he did not tell,
He did not believe in heaven or hell.
He said, "Be square; play the game on the square;
You don't need to fear men anywhere.
Shoot FRY-BITY, and don't be a cad,
And sum up all of the fun you've had."

This boomer lineman a lesson taught,
That worry and bothering comes to naught;
Just face the affairs of every-day life
With a smile or grin; there is too much strife.
Do the best you can and try to be glad,
And remember all the fun you've had.

W. E. HANSON.

POOR THING

(A Movie in Words.)

She entered the queer revolving door
A thing she'd never saw before,
Around she went and 'round some more.
She got neither in nor out, but sure—
She smiled at first and then she swore
'Cause people laughed in loud encores.
And then her skirt got caught and tore
And soon came off all that she wore.
Oh, my! Oh, my! the awful bore!
Of showing all that men adore.
And men there were, yes men galore
Who stretched their necks midst wild uproar.
'Twas all night long and a m. four
When relief appeared from secret store.
She fell from bed and hit the floor.
Her dream was done, her troubles o'er.

BAIL IS WANTED WITHOUT FAIL FOR THE MEN WHO ARE IN JAIL

Remember!

Hundreds of workers are literally rotting in the jails of this country because of their activity in the cause of Labor. Many of these victims of the world-wide class war are awaiting trial—and have been waiting for many weary months for the speedy trial guaranteed them by the United States Constitution. Others were tried and sentenced to terms ranging from one to twenty years during the period of war hysteria, and appeals in their cases are now being taken from King Capital drunk to King Capital sober.

Some of the prisoners have escaped by death, others are dying, many have contracted tuberculosis and other loathsome diseases, and all are suffering untold agony from close confinement in the fetid atmosphere, from insanitary and unhealthy surroundings, from poor and insufficient food, and from inhuman treatment accorded them by brutalized guards. Past attempts to secure bail for all of these workers in jail have not been attended with great success because of the lack of system. Individuals sought to secure bail for their personal friends, and failing to get the necessary amount they returned what had been collected, thus making their entire efforts fruitless. This was the condition facing the delegates from all the western district organizations of the Industrial Workers of the World when they met in conference on July 3 and 4 in Seattle. The delegates solved the problem by an unflinching means—Organization.

A Bail and Bond Committee was elected to systematize the work of collecting bail and a nation-wide drive has been started to secure the loan of cash, Liberty Bonds and property sufficient to gain the release of all class war prisoners. With practically no advertising Six Thousand Dollars were raised in the first five days. More than Two Hundred Thousand Dollars are needed to release those now being held for their Labor activity.

Sums of Five Dollars and up are accepted as loans, and all cash, Liberty Bonds or property is tabulated in triplicate, one copy going to the person making the loan, another being retained by the Bail and Bond Committee, and the third being filed with the Trades Union Savings and Loan Association of Seattle, with whom all funds, bonds and property schedules will be banked.

Only those who have been proved loyal and trustworthy are being sent out as collectors. Everything possible has been done to safeguard this bail and bond fund, from the selection of the committee to the choice of the bank. A portion of the fund is being set aside to return loans on demand in case persons who have made them are forced to leave the country or have other reasons for making a withdrawal.

Bail will be used to release specified persons where that is desired, but otherwise the release will take place by a blind drawing of names, thus insuring fairness to all prisoners. By common consent the men in Wichita, Kansas, jail will first be released, as they have been held the longest and jail conditions are worse there than anywhere else in the entire country. This bail has nearly all been subscribed, and the men will be made accredited collectors when released, and their speedy release will help to set others at liberty.

No necessity exists for argument. Your duty is clear. If your ears are not deaf to a call from your class, if you feel that an injury to one is an injury to all, if there burns within you the faintest spark of humanity, you will see that the men do not remain behind the bars an unnecessary minute because you withheld your support.

THEY ARE WILLING TO GIVE THEIR LIVES FOR YOU! ARE YOU WILLING TO LOAN YOUR DOLLARS TO THEM?

Butte Office, 318 N. Wyoming St., A. S. Embree, Bond and Bail delegate.
