YOUTH'S DEFENSE OF POSTOFFICE WINS REWARD AT LAST

Florida Boy Who Saved Government Property From Safe Crackers Is Appointed Clerk After Five Years' Wait.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17 .- Paul V. sauls has been appointed a clerk at a salary of $800 in the Tallahassee, Fig., postoffice, as a neward for his valiant defense of that office against desperate safe crackers on January 8, 1910. He won his fight with the burglars with his boyish strength and a revolver of the cheapest make, which he had won at a country

An executive order for the young man's appeintment was issued last May by President Wilson, but it lay unacted upon in Government archives until dug up reeantly by Merritt O. Chance, chief clerk | ened to shoot her. of the Post Office Department.

The reports of the battle read like tales of the wild and woolly West in the '40s. J. M. Sauls, father of Paul, lived on a small farm outside of Tallaha: 3) with his wife and family of eight colldren. The elder Sauls was night watchman in the Florida post office, and on the night of January 7 there was sickness in his family and by special permission of the postmaster he sent his son, Paul V., then just past his 18th year, to stand guard ever the Government property that night. Paul took the job, unarmed.

After the night clerk left at 1 o'clock and the fires had been stirred up to keep the young watchman warm during the night, Paul settled down to wait for the dawn. After a few minutes there came a knock at the basement door. On his passed the cot of a friend, who was sleep-ing in the building. Under the sleeper ing in the building. Under the sleeper was a very cheap revolver which the latter had won at a country fair the evening before. Paul took it for safety's sake. "Who's there?" he called out, before he slid the doors apart.

"Here's a mail sack which we found en the street, and I thought it might have dropped from the mail cart," came the answer.

Back the doors went. And as they epened Paul was confronted by a shining evolver with the command, accompanied by an oath, for the watchman to hold up his hands. Paul backed a little to one side, and as he did so the would be burglar grabbed first one hand and then the other, but the watchman had his hand on the revolver in his pocket, and he fired, the builet going through the liver and stomach of the burglar. The latter held on to Paul's arms with a death grip. The second burglar, appar ently unacquainted with what had hap-pened in the darkness, and having ample confidence in his partner, afterward found to be Tennessee Dutch, one of the most notorious of criminals, came for ward with a rope to tie the boy. But he miscalculated. With a jerk, Paul got his hand loose, fired twice and the hurglar fell mortally wounded, both bullets hav-ing taken effect in his head.

All this happened in less time than it takes to tell it, and Paul was unassisted. Even his friend, Harrison, whom he left sleeping on the cot, thought it wise to remain away from the point of contact established by the advance guard. And he did remain away until the smoke of battle had passed, and while Paul still watched the property of the government and the bodies of the dying men. Harriwar gradually choking the watchman. The burglar's head was resting on Paul's right shoulder. Paul reached up and fired, but Dutch shifted his head to a resting place on the left shoulder, and just as the head landed there Paul fired over that shoulder, both bullets going through the burglar's head. Neither of the highwaymen ever regained conscious-

Paul remained in the building in the morning until the post office was opened, went home, sat down to his breakfast table and modestly announced that he had killed a couple of cracksmen. A Jury later convened over the bodies of the dead men returned a verdict of justifiable homicide.

QUESTIONS PEONAGE LAWS

Alabama Statutes Violate Thirteenth Amendment, Says Solicitor General. WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Solicitor Gen-rai Davis, of the Department of Justice, has file da brief in the so-called Alabama peonage cases in the Supreme Court. He argues the invalidity and unconstitutionality of the Alabama statues relating to peonage as in conflict with the 15th endment and the Federal peonage

The cases referred to are those of J A. Reynolds and G. W. Broughton, who were indicted for alleged violation of the Federal peonage law. A special plea in bar in the one case and demurrer to the indictment in the other were sustained, the court upholding the constitutionality of the Alabama laws. The United States takes exception to this de-

SMALL POLICEMAN MAKES CAPTIVE OF NEGRO GIANT

Captive Threatened to Shoot Her, Sister-in-law Says.

Residents of the neighborhood of Sixcenth and Ruffner streets late last night aw a coatless special policeman, measuring little over five feet in height, march a struggling young Negro giant to the police station on West Haines street, above Germantown avenue.

Richardson, who had been sitting coatss in the police station, was summoned a horry call to the home of Mrs. ry Law, of 1603 Ruffmer street, who said her brether-in-law, Hugh Law, was trying to break into her home in an at-tempt to shoot her. Richardson did not wait to get his coat, and found that the woman had fled. The brother-in-law had succeeded in breaking into the house and was engaged in destroying everything in sight, the policeman says. A struggle ensued which resulted in Richardson's triumphant march to the station house with the Negro. Law gave his address as 1515 Rowan street and said that he is twenty-three years old. He was held under $500 ball. charged with carrying a concealed deadly

According to Mary Law, the trouble started about a month ago when her brother-in-law, whom she boarded, re-fused to pay for the food he consumed. She took the matter to court and was granted an attachment on the man's wages. This enraged him to such a degree that he returned last night, an absence of several weeks, and threat-

WARNS CO-EDS AGAINST "LIGHT-ARM GALLANTRY"

College Official Declares Young Men Can Walk Without Support.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 17 .- Students enrolled in Syracuse University today are discussing the attack hurled yesterday against hazing, frolics and "light-arm gallantry" by Chancellor Day, of that institution.

"Young men," he said, in speaking of he evils of hazing, "who are not ple to walk without leaning on the arm of a young woman should see the college physician and they will be admitted to the infirmary." He also advised co-eds not to permit their men friends to take their arms, and told the students they must abstain from all kinds of hazing parties in the ladies' dormitories. Inway to the door the young watchman stead, he urged, the boys and girls should spend their time singing, playing the plane or playing lawn tennis.

Every physician in town has been hattling with one or more cases during the last two weeks, and at the two hospitals seventeen operations have been performed, while many are being given treatment at their homes. A ma-Jority of the patients are women.

Local physicians say the outbreak of the disease is due to the sudden change in temperature and that the appendicitis is caused primarily by the colds. A simiiar wave of the disease passed over the borough at the same season of last year.

PRIZE BARK FAMILIAR HERE

The Perkeo Formerly Plied Between This Port and Far East.

Shipping men here today were interested in the receipt of the news that the British Prize Court had adjudicated the case of the captured German bark Perkeo. formerly the British bark Brilliant, which for many years piled between this port and the Far East with cargoes of mannanese and petroleum. She was one of the biggest craft of her type affoat.

The Perkeo, when seized, was bound from New York to Hamburg, following her purchase by a German firm and transer to the German flag. The cruiser Zulu effected the capture on August 5 off the southern coast of England. The Perkeo was taken to Dover, where she will be sold in accordance with the ruling of the

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINEES ATTEND CLUB CONVENTION

Palmer and McCormick Interupt Compaigning Tour to Be Present at Meeting of Federation in Scranton.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 17.-Stirred to new enthusiasm by the action of the Washington party State committee in indorsing Vance C. McCormick as the Washington party candidate for Governor, the Democratic candidates and campaign speakers arrived here this morning to attend the meeting of the State Federation of Democratic Clubs The entire day is to be given over to the meetings of the Federation, and the campaigners will not resume their automobile tour of the State until tomorrow.

The campaign party came here from Lock Haven, where Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer last night assailed Senator Penrose for instigating the Catlin probe to investigate the city of Philadelphia, and then abruptly shutting off the work of the Commission when it seemed about to expose the inner workng of the Penrose organization. Mr. Palmer challenged Senator Penrose to tell the people of Pennsylvania just why the Commission had suddenly concluded its work. The election of Rudolph Blankenburg as Mayor of Philadelphia, Mr. Palmer attributed directly to the inexpected revelations made to the people of that city by the Commission before it dropped out of existence.

The charge that he would just as leave sacrifice a friend as a fee if the sacrifice would accomplish the ends of his political knavery was hurled at Senator Penrose

Referring to the indictment which he has nade against the Senator, Mr. Palmer "As I have remarked before, Penrose talks much about what he has done for Pennsylvania, and I tell you that you should stop and think what he has done te Pennsylvania. I have not made one statement about Penrose anywhere which in not absolutely verified by his record. Whenever I have cited instances of his votes in the Senate I have given the date and the page of the Congressional Record on which it may be found, so that any one may turn to that record himself and read Penrose's shame. One of the stops made by the campaigners, prior to reaching Lock Haven, was at the State Grange encampment and fair at Centre Hall. Here Mr. Palmer had an opportunity to see the largest crowd he has met since he began his tour 10 days ago. Fully 5000 persons were on the fair grounds, although the number which was able to crowd into Grange Hall, where the addresses were made, was comparatively small.

The candidates spoke in practically all the towns in Mifflin, Centre and Clinton Counties during the course of the day. The automobile tour will be resumed tomorrow morning and Lackswanna County will be covered. Vance C. Mc-Cormick, who was not with the party yesterday, came here this morning from Harrisburg, and will continue the tour

UNITED STATES ACTS ALONE IN PROTEST TO TURKEY

The United States is acting independently of and not in concert with protesting European powers, it was stated. That this Government will probably postpone until after the European war a decisive response from Turkey, to prevent the United States from becoming involved in a European imbroglio was indicated. Fur-ther exchanges of notes between the Ottoman empire and this Government for a thorough discussion of the affair in the meantime, however, is deemed certain. Turkey's reply to the curt protest sent yesterday by Secretary Bryan through Ambassador Morgenthau was forecasted n diplomatic circles today. ROCKEFELLER'S ACT LED

TO DEATH OF VILLAGE

Oil Magnate's Refusal to Pay Taxes

Marked Passing of Hillside. TARRYTOWN, Sept. 17. - John D Rockefeller's aversion to paying more taxes than legally required of him put Hillside, the smallest village in this state, out of business. Rockefeller's estate at Tarrytown extends, or did extend, into Hillside's corporation limits, and the Board of Trustees of the latter place worked out a clever scheme to increase its tax revenue by taxing a large part of the oil magnate's property. Everything went well, and the board was preparing to nave a few more streets, erect a schoolhouse or two and raise the salaries of certain officials when Mr. Rockeelier's staff of lawyers swooped down on Hillside and informed the village officials that the proposed tax levy was illegal, and that Mr. Rockefeller would fight the issue to the last court, even if he had to raise the price of kerosene.

The plan was dropped; the trustees voted to dissolve the incorporation of the township and to pass its indebtedness of $8000 to the Mount Pleasant township.

WILMINGTON POLICE PROBLEM WAITING A LEGAL SOLUTION

City Solicitor Advises Commission to Withhold New Appointments Until He Has Examined Law.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 17 .- Nothing further will be done toward qualifying the policemen who were appointed or Tuesday until City Council has considered the subject this evening and decided what is to be done. The point has been raised that the resolution adopted by City Council was fliegal. The law provides that the police force shall be enlarged from time to time upon the recommendation of Council, but Councils' resolution authorized the Police Commission to increase the force instead of recommending it. The point was pushed with such vigor that City Solicitor Daniel O. Hastings advised the Police Commission not to proceed further in the matter until he could look into the law and go over the matter with the Police Commission.

If Council should decide that the resolution was illegally passed and rescind it, the Police Commission probably will drop the matter and allow the blame for failure to increase the police force to rest on the members of Council. Should the City Solicitor decide the resolution legal, | the expected term there.

the chances are that the Police Commission will stand by its appointments.

The whole subject has stirred up bitter feeling among the friends of the two Police Commissioners and Chief of Police Black on one side and the friends of the Council on the of the members of City Council on the other. Members of Council assert they are endeavoring to back General I. Pussey Wickersham, one of the members of the commission, in his efforts to improve the Police Department, while the other side declares that the interference of City Council is due to a desire on the part of some of the members to get even with the Chief of Police and prevent him hav-ing any choice in the selection of men the mounted squad winch is to be med. The assertion is made that the idea of having an expert to examine police force and suggest changes and im-provements was to get Chief Black out of office, and that after John B.
