

Side Scenes at Byberry : Service Men on Historical Hike : Battleships in Delaware River

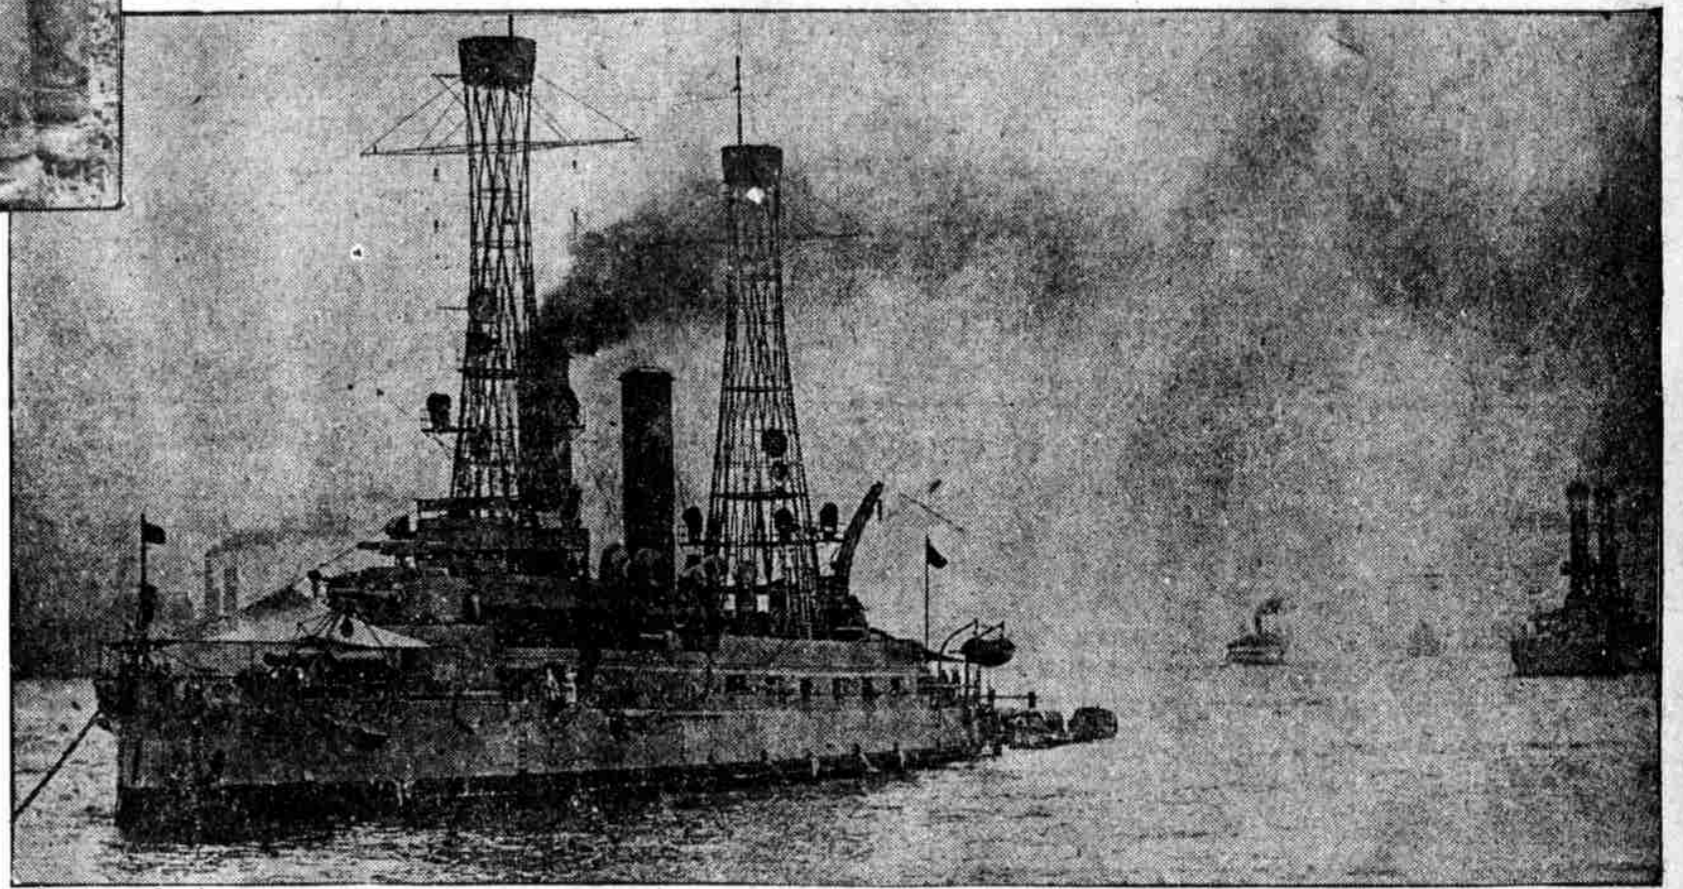

SIDE-SHOW attractions at the Philadelphia County Fair at Byberry. At the left is a Hindu teller of fortunes and above are fair visitors trying their skill at "ringing the dolls."

Ledger Photo Service

GENERAL JOHN J. PERSHING, commander of the American expeditionary forces, has said farewell to France and has sailed on the transport Leviathan for the United States.

THE BATTLESHIPS Illinois and Kentucky, anchored in the Delaware river off South street. The battleships and four others arrived here to be dismantled; all are of an obsolete type. The ships were used for naval recruits during the war.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

EVENING WRAP of brocaded silver and blue. Collar and cuffs are of Belgian hare.

FAIR YOUNG standard bearers who braved the showers and paraded gayly throughout the line of march in the procession of letter carriers holding their annual convention here.

MISS RENE KELLY, 6060 Belfield avenue, Germantown. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.