

RESCUED CREW MEMBERS OF U. S. SUBMARINE S-5. The photograph was taken on board the S. S. Alanthus by Frank Pendle, of Baltimore, a member of the submarine crew, just after the men were rescued.

BRIDE AND GROOM. Lieutenant Alevra, of Rumania, and his bride, who was Miss Dorothy Norris, of this city, at Naragansett Per, R. I., where they were married on Saturday.

PLACARDING THE S. S. BALTIC. New York women, riding on chartered tug, risk lives to tack banners on the Baltic in New York harbor en route for Europe. The placards refer to Archbishop Mannix and Mayor MacSwiney.

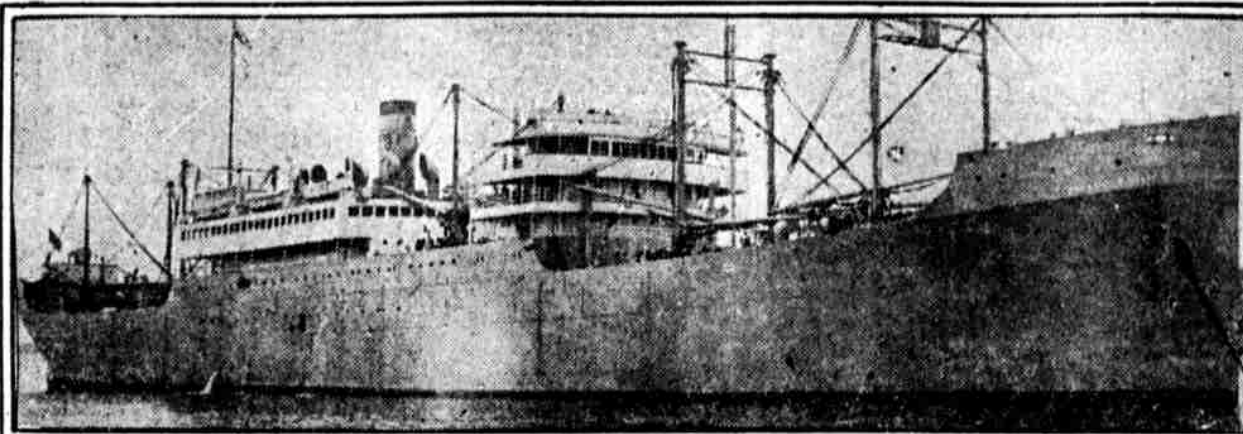

LOCAL BOYS IN SUBMARINE ACCIDENT. Joseph Starr, Youker, Camden, and Samuel Benjamin Miller, of this city, snarped on the quarter deck of the U. S. S. Ohio, by an EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER photographer. Ledger Photo Service.

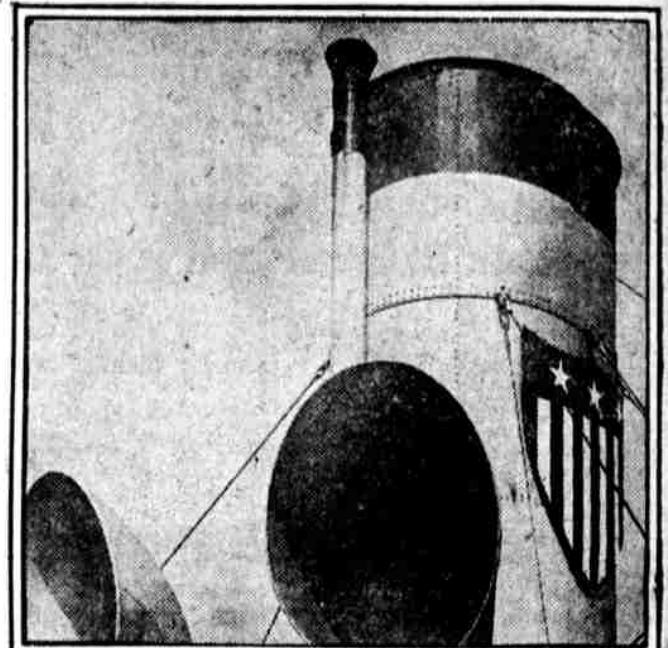

STILL IN HOSPITAL. Three members of the crew of the U. S. submarine S15 who are still patients of the League Island Hospital, suffering from effects of gas and bad air. Left to right they are Joseph Osavage, Jacob Akers, Jr., and Robert Igdanea. Ledger Photo Service.

COMMANDER OF PRESIDENT'S YACHT. Commander Ralston Smith Holmes, of the Mayflower. Central News Photo.

UNCLE SAM'S FIRST PASSENGER STEAMSHIP. It is the Panhandle State which has just been delivered by the New York Shipbuilding Co. to the U. S. shipping board. The ship has been assigned to the New York-London-Hamburg service and will be operated by the United States Mail Steamship Co. New York Shipbuilding Co.

THE AMERICAN SHIELD. It will be placed on stacks of all passenger ships operated for the U. S. shipping board. The shield is shown on a stack of the Panhandle State. New York Shipbuilding Co.

BUSY DAYS AT THE ZOO. Philadelphia Zoo attendants are clipping the wings of a spur-winged goose, one of the new arrivals. Ledger Photo Service.

REAL ACTION. C. L. Warwick, who is one of Narberth's most dependable tennis contestants. He was snarped during the matches on Saturday. Ledger Photo Service.

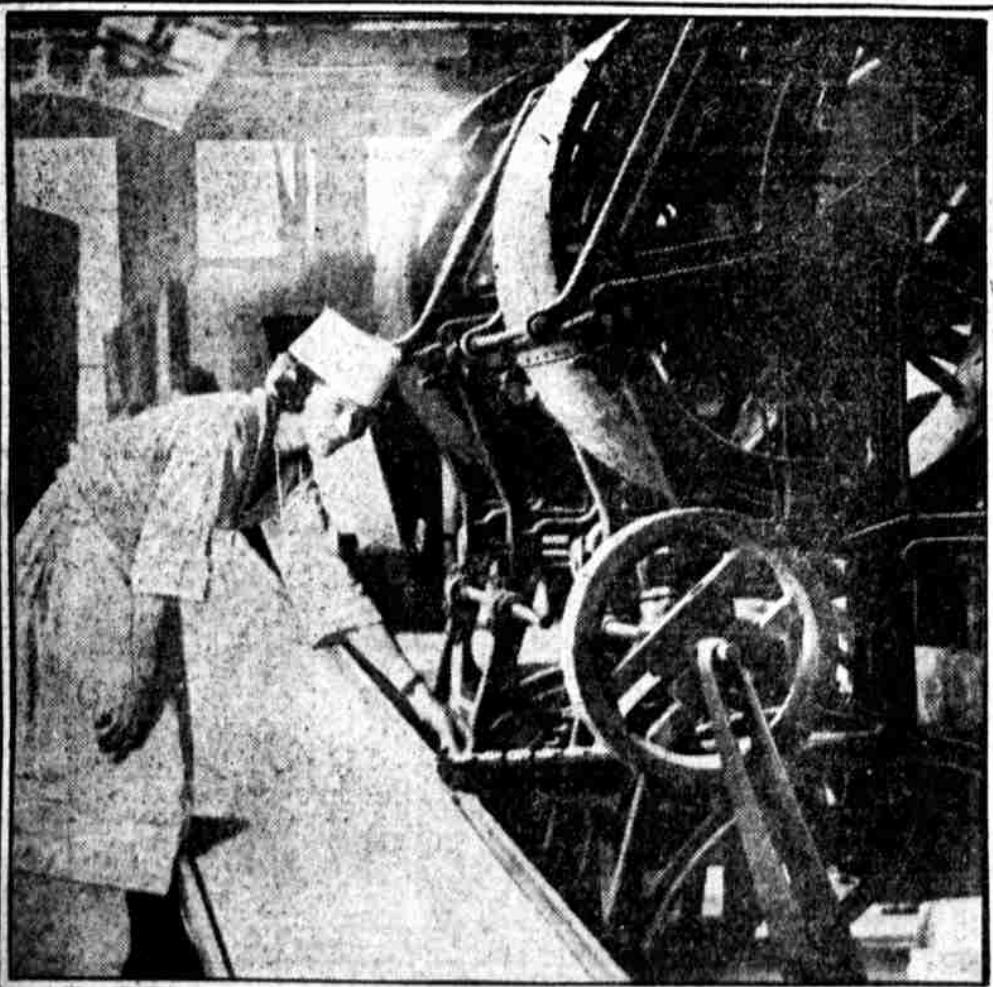

LOS ANGELES TO NEW YORK. These two girls, who are hiking from the California city, have just reached Chicago. Miss Beverly Bayard (left) and Miss Lorline Davis. International.

AT MARION, OHIO. Senator Harding (left), is greeting Governor Sproull, of Pennsylvania, at the senator's home. Edmonston.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MISS ANNA KLEIN operating a pretzel-twisting machine at the American Pretzel Factory, Tenth street and Susquehanna avenue. Ledger Photo Service.

SERVING THE FIRST ONE. C. H. Schultze was among those who played at the Narberth tournament on Saturday. Ledger Photo Service.

WINNING RIGHT ALONG. Samuel D. Riddle's Man O' War captured the Lawrence Realization Stakes at Belmont Park, New York. Trainer Fenstel is ever near the champion. Central News Photo.

GIVING AWAY HOME-RUN BALLS. Babe Ruth having broken the world's record for home-run clouts, is willing to give a few balls away. Miss Dorothy Jardon is a recipient. Ledger Photo Service.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS LILLIAN ERBE, 3665 North Twelfth street, Philadelphia. Ledger Photo Service.