

A "BALANCING ACT." J. Hixon piloting his yacht The Geisha, winner in the classic yachting event at Burnham, England

HE'S REALLY WORKING HERE. Buster Keaton in a serious mood as he looks after the feeding of Buster, Jr., at their Los Angeles home

NEW BATHING FAD—THE "SUNBURN TATTOO." The bathing beauties stencil the desired initials or design, and the sun does the rest

HEROIC SUBWAY GUARD. Frank Bradshaw, injured and gassed, stuck to his post, assisting passengers from the New York subway train

A. B. WILL, of Tennessee, gave General LeJeune, of the United States Marine Corps, cane he made at time of Pickett's charge

BIRD LOVER USES PHONOGRAPH TO TRAIN PETS. Harry Wilkes, of 1836 North Fifth street, and three of his eight parrots

ENGLISH WOMEN CRICKETERS get instructions. The proper way to hold the hands in catching the ball is demonstrated

GETTING READY FOR PARIS MEET. Miss Adeline Gehrig, of New York, will appear in international women's athletic games. She does good work in broad and high jumps

Bertha Specht knitting, as Emily Barth does some drawing

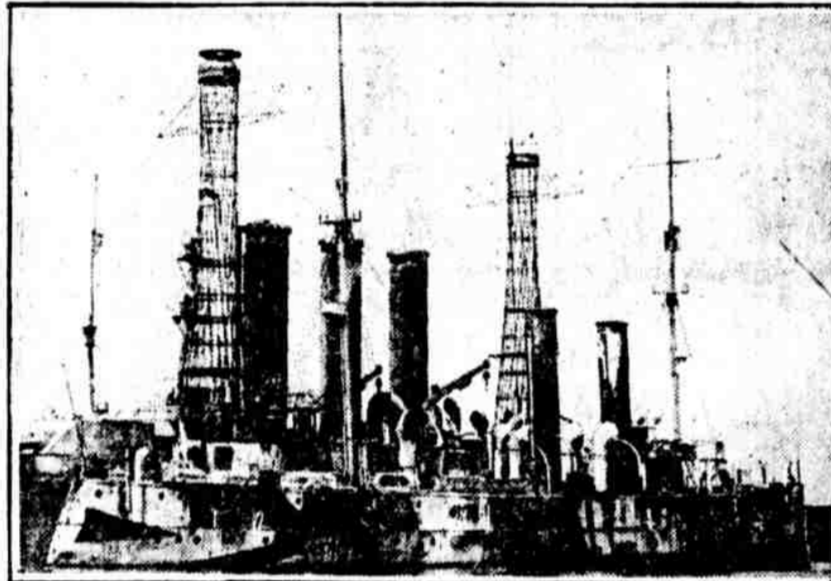

The checker pushers are John Riemppi (left) and Sidney Berfeld

MRS. EDGAR A. SHMYER will be missed as Washington hostess

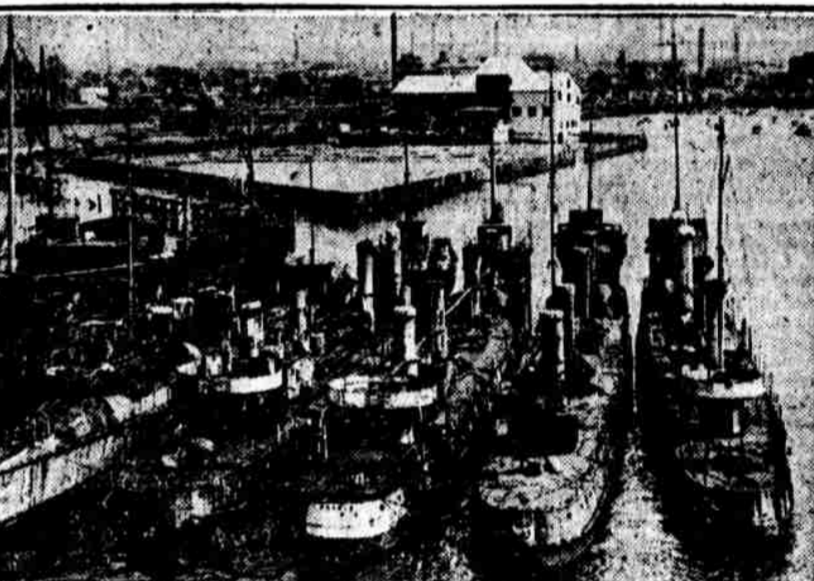

HERBERT C. HENGSTLER, chief of Consular Bureau

The United States cruiser Raleigh arrived at the yards early yesterday from Charleston

Dismantling a large gun on the old battleship Wisconsin

Five of the many destroyers now ready to be destroyed by hammer and the acetylene torch

GOING BACK TO THE FARM. John (left) and Calvin Coolidge, sons of Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge, to summer on Grandfather's farm, near Boston.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS OPEN THEIR CAMP. At Camp Lenape, conducted by the Philadelphia Campfire Girls, Martha McKeown was found combing the camp cat's fur. Main street also is shown

"EVERYBODY OVER!" Then, as they dived into the Delaware, off Pleasant Hill Park, one of the divers shouted "Ain't we got fun?" Indeed, they did have a lot of fun, even though it was rough on the canoe

W. J. COONS, of Arlington, N. J., holds the world's record at 100 yards indoor range for 100 consecutive bull's-eyes. He was photographed at Sea Girt

REGULATES TRAFFIC. Billy Wyrlek does his volunteer work at Seventeenth and Green streets

RADIO COMPASS. New device of Uncle Sam's is great aid to navigation during fog

ALL READY FOR ELKS ON WAY TO ATLANTIC CITY REUNION. The home of Philadelphia Lodge, No. 2, at Juniper and Arch streets, is well decorated. Charles Grakelov (left) is exalted ruler, Furey Ellis heads the mounted guards

IT WAS A BUSY FREIGHT CENTER. The Pennsylvania Railroad freight station that stood at Delaware and Washington avenues. It was torn down ten years ago. William Wissing, 1118 South Front street, is the contributor

DR. GEORGE T. HARDING, of Marion, O., kills a chicken for his son, when the President visits the old home

JOHN GLASS AND JOHN KARINS, of River-ton, returning home after a long camping trip through Canada

ANNA CLUIN in fairy tale review at Atlantic City. She is a clever dancer