

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.
ASCONDED on the 21st of July last, from the subscriber, (manager at the farm of Mr. Isaac Duckett, on South river, near Annapolis) Negro TOM, a small black fellow, lost the sight of one eye. Had on when he absconded, osnaburg shirt and trousers. Any person taking up said Negro and bringing him to the subscriber, or securing him in jail, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward.

This Negro was purchased of Capt. J. S. Brooks about five years since; it is probable he may be in the neighborhood of Upper Marlborough.

HENRY BASFORD.

HOUSEHOLD & KITCHEN FURNITURE. The Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M. if fair, if not the next fair day.

N. L. & H. M. QUEEN, Aucts.
Sept. 13-44.

MONEY LOST.

ABOUT the 20th of July last, a Letter containing two bank notes of one hundred dollars each, was put into the Post office at Winchester, directed to Joseph Janney, Alexandria, which letter has not been received, and is supposed to have been (by mistake) put under a wrong cover, or may have been misdirected, and gone to a post-office different from that to which it was intended to be sent. It is therefore requested of the different post masters throughout the U. S. if any letter directed to Joseph Janney, should come under their notice, that they send the same either to him, or to the subscriber. If the letter has in any way fallen into private hands, I will give fifty dollars reward for the money and no questions asked.

DANIEL LEE.

Winchester, Sept. 4-44.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

I WILL sell the tract of land on which I reside, called RUSSARD ISLAND, lying on Patuxent river, in Calvert county, and nearly opposite to Benedict, containing by estimation, seven hundred three and a quarter acres of as fertile land as can be found in the state of Maryland, one third of which is in wood and very heavily timbered, and as well watered for the convenience of stock as any tract of its size in the state.

The arable part of this plantation is level and much of it covered with oyster shells, and is divided into three fields, each of which will produce two hundred barrels of corn with a reserve of prime tobacco land sufficient to grow fifty hogsheads of tobacco annually, and with very little labor more meadow may be reclaimed than will be found sufficient. No land can be better adapted to the growth of corn, tobacco and wheat, and few plantations hold out stronger inducements to stimulate an industrious man. It binds for a considerable distance on the river & lies nearly in a square. Fish, oysters, and wild fowl are to be had at all times. Stock of every description, particularly sheep, thrive and improve wonderfully when removed to this land, a convincing proof of the nutritious quality of the grass, which it produces in great abundance. The improvements are sufficient to accommodate a small family.—A more particular description is not necessary, a purchaser will naturally view the premises. My price for the above tract of land is sixteen thousand dollars—one sixth part of the purchase money to be paid on the day of possession, and the balance in five equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale.

I will sell at public sale on the 20th December next, in the town of Upper Marlborough, all the personal estate on the above premises, consisting of a number of valuable negroes, horses, mules, cattle, sheep & hogs, plantation utensils, household and kitchen furniture on a credit of twelve months, the purchaser giving bond with approved security; for all sums under $20 cash will be required.

N.B. If the above tract of Land is not disposed of, it will be for rent the ensuing year.

RICHARD W. HARWOOD.

Sept. 1-44 to Dec.

PRINCIPAL OF AN ACADEMY AND PASTOR WANTED.

THE Rev. W. L. TURNER, Principal of the Raleigh Academy, and Pastor of the city, having signified his intention of resigning his situation at the close of the present session, the Trustees of the Academy and the inhabitants of the city are desirous of procuring a suitable character to supply his place. To a Clergyman of finished education and unexceptionable moral character, a liberal salary will be given, or the whole profits of the Academy (after paying the Assistant Teachers) with a handsome subscription from the inhabitants of the city and neighborhood, for his services as a Preacher.

This Academy has at present one hundred and fifty students, about sixty of which are females, principally in the care of a female teacher, under the superintendence of the principal of the academy (taught in separate buildings erected for the purpose on a four-acre square of the city, granted to the trustees by the Legislature) and the number of students heretofore has annually increased.

Raleigh being the seat of government of North Carolina, a very healthy and pleasant situation, in the hilly country, containing a moral and respectable society, where every necessary of life can be had in plenty on reasonable terms, and where most of the principal inhabitants are guardians of the academy, it is presumed that this seminary will always have a preference to any other academy in the southern states.

A Lady, of talents and acquirements equal to the undertaking, is also wanted to take charge of the Female Department of the Academy; and a Young Gentleman, suitably qualified, as an Assistant Teacher of the Latin and Greek Languages, &c.

Applications for any of these situations, made to the Trustees of the Raleigh Academy, by letter, post paid, will be duly attended to, and immediately answered, and such further information given as may be required.

N. JONES, President.

Sept. 6-3w.

IN COUNCIL.

Annapolis, June 26, 1809.

ORDERED, that the act, entitled, An act to alter the thirty-second and thirty-seventh Articles of the constitution and Form of Government, be published twice in each week, for the space of three months, in the American and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore, the Maryland Gazette, and Maryland Republican, at Annapolis, the National Intelligencer, the Eastern Star, Mr. Grievess's paper at Hagarstown, and Mr. Hartig's paper at Fredericktown.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council

AN ACT

To alter the thirty-second and thirty-seventh Articles of the Constitution and Form of Government.

BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That hereafter, upon the death, resignation or removal out of this state, of the governor, it shall not be necessary to call a meeting of the legislature to fill the vacancy occasioned thereby, but the first named of the Council for the time being shall qualify and act as governor until the next meeting of the general assembly, at which meeting a governor shall be chosen in the manner heretofore appointed and directed.

And be it enacted, That hereafter no governor shall be capable of holding any other office of profit during the time for which he shall be elected.

And be it enacted, That so much of the thirty-second and thirty-seventh articles of the constitution and form of government as is repugnant to, or inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same is hereby abrogated and abolished.

And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly, after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election as the constitution and form of government directs, that in such case this act, and the alteration and amendment of the constitution and form of government therein contained, shall be taken and considered, and shall constitute and be valid, as a part of the said constitution and form of government any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

July 3-taw3m.

THE SUBSCRIBER,

HAVING invented an improved STUCCO, or Ferruginous Calcareous Cement, intended as a covering for upright walls, offers the same to public notice.

It resembles stone, and in a very few days after it has been applied to a wall, it possesses a firmness as durable as stone itself. Rain, wind or frost will not injure it, but rather accelerate the hardness of its texture.

The inventor will at present rely on its real merit to bring it into use; and, that it may appear he is not palming an indifferent or useless article on the public, he deems it highly essential to the character of his stucco, to publish the following paragraphs contained in a letter he had the satisfaction to receive from B. H. Latrobe, Esq. Surveyor of the Public Buildings of the U. S. who has taken the trouble to examine its properties and give his opinion upon it.

B. H. LATROBE, Esq. to HENRY HORT, dated, "Washington, Aug. 23, 1809

"Dear Sir, I have examined carefully the three specimens of calcareous cement, which you have sent me, and considered the ingredients of which they are composed. There is no doubt in my mind, that for the purpose of building and incrusting walls, calcareous cements are the only ones on which dependence can be placed in our climate, and your composition, if carefully prepared, and of good materials, has certainly all the principles from which durability must result."

In another part of his letter, Mr. Latrobe observes—

"Your other ingredients add undoubtedly to the durability of the Stucco, and among them, I do not know of one which is not advantageously employed."

"Your's truly,

(Signed) "B. H. LATROBE."

If any person of respectability is disposed to join with the inventor in the undertaking, and by an advance of funds promote its utility, such person will be received as a participant in the profits; and, should a patent be taken out, become a sharer in the right according to agreement. In the mean time a proper agent will be selected to superintend the fidelity of its application, if used within the district of Columbia, or at a moderate distance therefrom; and, that the more remote parts of the country may partake of the advantages of this Stucco, the principal ingredients will be prepared with written directions as a guide for its use.

Its qualities are, that it prevents the decay of old walls, gives them a new and handsome appearance, and will insure durability to new buildings, as well as secure them from leaking through walls, if any defect is in the original workmanship or materials.

Letters post paid, addressed to the subscriber in the City of Washington, will receive immediate attention.

HENRY HORT.

Washington, Sept. 6-74.
Cf. Printers in commercial towns are requested to give the above a few insertions in their papers.

Superintendent's Office, Washington, 9th August, 1809.

WHEREAS the late Commissioners of the city of Washington, on the 24th December 1793, sold or contracted to sell to Robert Morris & J. S. Greenleaf, all the then title, interest and estate of the public in the squares following, among others, in the said city, viz. 626, 628, 634, 687, 723, 726, 727, 729, 738, 760, 782, 786, 789, 814, 816, 818, 841, 843, 866, 868, 895, 897, 899, 918, 919, 922, 923, 943, 966, 967, 968, 970, 972, 992, 1014, 1016, 1037, 1039, 1040, 1062, 1074, 1075, and 1076. Which sale was upon the terms and conditions of a certain stipulated price being paid therefor at certain fixed periods of time subsequent to the contract. And whereas in the course of certain transactions between the said James Greenleaf and the said Robert Morris, and a certain John Nicholson (who had acquired an interest in said squares) and between the said James Greenleaf and Mordecai Lewis and Edward Burd, a certain interest, estate and title of the said Greenleaf, Morris and Nicholson, in and to the same squares, became pledged, by way of mortgage, to the payment of certain debts due to the said Lewis and Burd, respectively. And whereas, the Chancellor of the state of Maryland, in a certain suit lately pending in the Chancery Court of that state, between the executors of the said Mordecai Lewis and the said Edward Burd complainants, and Robert Morris, the heirs of John Nicholson, the Commissioners of the city of Washington, James Greenleaf, Henry Pratt, Thomas W. Francis, John Miller, Jr. John Ashley, Jacob Baker, George Simpson, William Cranch and Thomas Law, defendants, did, among other things, decree, that all the right, title, and interest, which at the time of executing a certain mortgage mentioned in the bill and proceedings filed and had in the suit aforesaid, was in the said Morris and Nicholson, Thomas Law, and the Commissioners of the city of Washington, in and to 295 lots and 3/4ths of a lot, of 5265 square feet each, contained in the squares before enumerated, should be sold, and the proceeds applied to the payment in the first instance, of the debts due as aforesaid, to the said Lewis and Burd, and the residue of the whole proceeds, if any, to the payment of certain other debt or debts in the said decree mentioned. And whereas E. S. Burd, having been duly appointed and qualified, as a trustee, to carry into effect the said sale, did, by deed bearing date the 23d June, 1809, and recorded in the land records of Washington county in the district of Columbia, for the considerations in said deed mentioned, duly convey to Thomas Morris, Samuel Coates, Joseph Morris and Edward Burd, all the right, title and interest of the said Morris and Nicholson, Thomas Law and the Commissioners of the city of Washington, of, in and to the said 295 3/4ths lots, as by the said decree was directed. And whereas, at the time of sale or contract for the sale of the before-mentioned squares by the commissioners, to Morris and Greenleaf, as herein-before recited, the public interest in the said squares, or in any or either of them, was not then specifically ascertained and known, but was to depend on and be determined by a division thereof, to be thereafter made, between the said commissioners and the original proprietors of the land on which the same were laid out, pursuant to law and certain deeds of trust, which had been executed by the said proprietors and others for all their lands lying within the city of Washington, and such division was accordingly afterwards made, by which it appears that no part or portion of four of the said squares, to wit, Nos. 687, 726, 966 and 1016, was allotted or assigned to the public, and consequently no estate therein was passed to the said Morris and Greenleaf by the commissioners, under or by virtue of the said sale. And whereas there are in the public's part or portion of the aforesaid squares obtained on the division aforesaid, and exclusive of the said Nos. 687, 726, 966 and 1016, 68 lots of 5265 square feet each, over and above the said 295 3/4ths lots sold as aforesaid by the said E. Burd, pursuant to the decree aforesaid, and whereas the purchasers and grantees of said 295 3/4ths lots hold the same in an undivided interest and possession or tenancy in common with each and every person and persons entitled to the said 68 lots. And whereas the purchase money for the said 68 lots has not been paid & satisfied to the said commissioners, or to any other person or persons for the use of the public according to the terms and conditions of the sale, and the same having been due for more than thirty days after it ought to have been paid, and for at least two years prior to the first of May 1809, and being still due and unpaid—by reason whereof and by virtue of the statute of the state of Maryland, entitled "A further supplement to the act concerning the Territory of Columbia and the city of Washington," and of the act of Congress, entitled "An act to abolish the board of commissioners in the city of Washington, and for other purposes," the superintendent appointed in pursuance of the said act of Congress is authorized and required to proceed to sell the said 68 lots. Now this is to give notice that the undersigned, the Superintendent appointed as aforesaid shall and will at 11 o'clock A. M. on Monday the 23d day of October next at Rhodes's hotel in the city of Washington aforesaid by reason of the premises and by virtue of the statutes aforesaid, sell to the highest bidder at Public Auction for cash, all the said 68 lots of ground of 5265 square feet each, contained in some or all of the squares above enumerated, except the said four squares Nos. 687, 726, 966 and 1016, the purchaser or purchasers thereof to take and hold the same in an undivided and common possession with the purchasers and grantees of the aforesaid 295 3/4ths lots; subject to have the possession severed, and due partition made between the several parties according to their respective interests and proportions by consent or in due course of law.

THE BRITISH ESSAYISTS.
With Prefaces Historical and Biographical.

By ALEXANDER CHAMBERS, A. M.
In about Sixty volumes.

Containing the

Tatler,	Looker On
Spectator,	Lover and Reader,
Guardian,	Shenstone's Essays,
Rambler,	Goldsmith's do.
Adventurer,	Tracts do.
World,	The Babbler,
Commoisseur,	Microcosm,
Miller,	Olla Podrida,
Mirror,	Fitzesborn's Letters,
Lounger,	Lyttleton's Dia-
Observer,	logues of the Dead.

When the edition of the British Essayists was first undertaken by the London booksellers, the office of Editor was intended to be confined chiefly to the collation of the several papers with the folio originals, or with the best editions in other forms. The best editions, however, were, on examination found to be so incorrect, that Mr. Chambers was led to suggest, what the proprietors readily acceded to, that this edition should be distinguished by some account of the history of each work, and the lives of such of the writers as were less generally known, in the form of Preface. For the plan, therefore, as well as the execution of this, he is solely accountable. Mr. Chambers acknowledges with respect and gratitude many valuable communications from various literary friends, particularly Mr. Nichols, Dr. Burney, Rev. G. Cambridge, Rev. John Warton, Samuel Rose, esq. of Chancery lane, Dr. Charles Coote, Mr. Duppa, and Isaac Reed, esq. of Staple Inn, a gentleman who in questions of literary history was never consulted in vain. By such assistance it is hoped something has been done to revive the attention of the public to a species of writing peculiarly and highly honorable to the genius of the British nation, and which has so eminently contributed to its advancement in refined taste and decorous manners.

The distinguished reputation and high estimation in which the British Essayists have, from their earliest appearance, always been held in G. Britain, indeed wherever the English language prevails, has induced the republication in the United States. The Spectator, Guardian and Adventurer have long been popular with American readers. The other Essayists, of rival merit, although less familiar, certainly deserve an equally extensive publication. This correct, cheap and elegant edition will constitute an invaluable portion of every domestic library. What more precious present, the Holy Bible excepted, can the fond parent bestow on his darling child, than these instructive essays? which may be truly called the manuals of morals and manners; which will not only inspire the juvenile reader with a refined taste for polite literature and criticism; but also imbue the tender mind with a lively sense and relish of prudence and virtue. What gift can be so delicate and appropriate from the generous courteous lover, for a Gage d'Amour, to his fair mistress, as these interesting volumes? The perusal of which will enlighten and embellish the mind and add lustre to those native charms of grace and beauty which first attracted his attentions and captivated his heart. To the constant study of the British Essayists, from the day of Steele and Addison to the present period, successive generations of British youth, of all ranks and degrees, are unquestionably indebted for the first germs of those correct principles, the observance and practice of which have led to after fame and eminence, in every department of church and state.

CONDITIONS.

The work is now in the press, and shall be published with as much expedition as elegance and correctness will admit of, on superfine wove paper, with a beautiful new type, cast on purpose, by Binny and Ronaldson of Philadelphia.

The volumes on an average will contain about 300 pages, 12 mo. and be delivered to subscribers, in extra boards at one dollar each, payable on delivery.

Subscriptions will be received for any of the above works separately, at one dollar and twelve and an half cents per volume.—Each work will have title pages exclusive of the general one, so that those who wish can have any one of the works bound separately.

Any person subscribing and becoming accountable for the payment of six copies shall have the seventh gratis.
