

E. L. RIVENBURGH,

of CHICAGO, is at the NICOLLET HOTEL, this city, where he will remain a few weeks to cure Stuttering, Stammering, Hesitancy, Lisping and all forms of Speech Impediments. My method removes the cause of stammering, therefore the cure is permanent. The only scientific and successful method known and practiced. I GUARANTEE A CURE IN A FEW DAYS. I have made a specialty of speech impediments for the past 30 years and have cured over 2,500 cases. Read the following

Testimonials:

Owatonna, April 1st, 1900.—To Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that Dr. E. L. Rivenburgh has treated Judge Luce, of the municipal court of this city, and Clarke G. King, a boy of 16 years of age, for stammering, and the result in each case has been simply marvelous. I have no hesitation in recommending him to the consideration of all persons thus afflicted. John L. Gibbs, ex-Lieutenant Governor.

Owatonna, April 1st, 1900.—To Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that I have been an inveterate stammerer for more than sixty years and have tried many forms of cure recommended to me with no beneficial results. I placed myself under the care and treatment of Dr. E. L. Rivenburgh, for a few hours only, and now I am able to speak and read easily. I feel that a great burden has been lifted from my mind, and I do cheerfully recommend and advise every stammerer to place themselves under his treatment. Respectfully, H. F. Luce, Municipal Judge, City of Owatonna.

MINNESOTA

NORTHFIELD—The funeral of James H. Bourn was held from the residence of his father-in-law, F. A. Noble.

DODGE CENTER—The funeral of Mrs. A. Stebbins was largely attended yesterday afternoon. She was 72 years of age.

SAUK SAPIDS— Ed Brennan, a well-to-do farmer of Minden, died of la grippe, aged 50 years. He leaves a wife and five children.

ST. PETER-Mrs. Margaret Forsyth, the oldest resident of Le Lueur county, is dead. Had she lived until November she would have been a centenarian.

WILLMAR-John Anderson, Erick Borg, James Hockerson, Ole Lydeen, O. E. Fergu-son and Peter Norlander were arrested on the charge of selling liquor without a license. RED WING-Philip Talve, 37 years old, shot himself in the back of the head. It is expected he will die. Talve had been despondent for some time, because of consump-

MOTLEY—Miss Ruth Greenup, a school teacher of this place, went to Brainerd March and has failed to return home. She is known to have boarded the westbound train out of Brainerd, but no further trace of her can be The WINONA—Postmaster F. E. Gartside has received notice to be on the lookout for a swindling scheme. The swindle is worked by men who represent themselves as inspectors, who look over rural delivery boxes, and demand $3 or $4 for this service.

LAKE PARK—About two weeks ago Alfred Selvin was taken sick. Dr. Smith was called and pronounced it measles. Later the disease was found to be smallpox. The boy died Saturday night and was buried immediately. School was suspended by order of the board of health and all public gatherings are prohibited.

SOUTH DAKOTA

VIENNA-The smallpox quarantine has been raised by the president of the board.

ABERDEEN-Word has been received here that Lieutenant John McArthur, who was breveted captain for gallant service in Cuba and the Philippines, has been promoted to PIERRE—Dr. Dodge, the smallpox expert, reports the cases in this city to be genuine smallpox, but of a very mild type. Seven cases are under strict quarantine.

COLMAN-The Argus is the name of a new paper here, and Bert H. Berry is the editor.

GAYVILLE—On March 20 citizens will vote upon the question of incorporating as a city. It is thought the vote will be unanimous for Bought 21,600,000 Eggs.

E. M. Slayton of Chicago claims to have made the largest egg deal ever made. He bought at one time last year 150 car-loads of eggs, 21,600,000 in all. Most of these came from Iowa, the largest egg-producing state in the union. The amount of nourishment contained in one egg is probably greater than that contained in a similar amount of space in any other product, but "Golden Grain Belt" beer beer especially grateful at the end of your day's work, for it is refreshing and appetizing. Your wife will like it, too, so have a case at home; telephone "The Brewery," 486 Main.

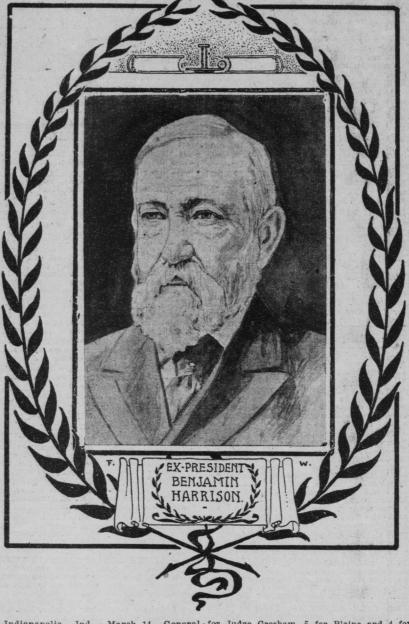

Harsh, purgative remedies are fast giving way to the gentle action and mild effects of Carter's Little Liver Pills. If you try them, they will certainly please

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS ST. PAUL = BENZ MINNEAPOLIS

STAMMERING HARRISON IS NO MORE

Ex-President Passes Away at His Home some of the Characteristics of the in Indianapolis---His Life and His Death.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 14.—General for Judge Gresham, 5 for Blaine and 4 for Harrison died at 4:40 yesterday afternoon without regaining consciousness. His death was quiet and painless. The gradual felling of strongth heavener regains. failing of strength became more notice-his illness occurred Tuesday, before he be-came unconscious. His little daughter, Elizabeth, was brought into the sickroom for a few moments, and offered her father a little pie which she had made. General Harrison smiled his recognition of the child and her gift, but the effort to speak was too much and he could do nothing more to express his appreciation. In his semi-conscious condition, he be-gan to speak of the Boers and their hopeless struggle for national life. The listeners bending over him could hear words of pity for the dying farmer republic.

BENJAMIN HARRISON

Sketch of the Twenty-third President of the United States. Benjamin Harrison, twenty-third president of the United States, was born Aug. 20, 1833, at North Bend, Ohio. His father was John Scott Harrison, son of William Henry Harrison, ninth president of the United States, who was the son of Benjamin Harison, one of the signers of the declaration of inde-pendence from Virginia.

Benjamin Harrison's early education was ceived under private instruction at home His first school was College Hill, near Cincinnati, and he was graduated from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, in 1852. He studied law with Storer & Gwynne in Cincinnati. He was admitted to the bar in 1854, and began practice in Indianapolis, which was fhereafter his home. Soon after he was ap-pointed crier of the federal court at $2.50 a day, which was the first money he earned.

Jonathan W. Gordon, one of the leaders of the Indianapolis bar, called young Harrison to help in the prosecution of a burglary case. Harrison was to make the plea for the state. The case was closed at night, and the courtroom was lighted only by candles, so that Harrison was unable to read the elaborate notes he had prepared. He laid them aside and talked entirely from memory, making an eloquent plea, which produced a marked impression and won the case. After was again chosen for the place.

War Record.

General Harrison's war record was notable He was in command of the Seventieth In-diana when it marched toward Bowling Green during the Bragg scare in southern Ohio and Indiana. His regiment was in the campaign under General Sherman against General Jo-seph E. Johnston. At Resaca, Ga., General Harrison, then in command of a brigade. was one of the first, if not the first, to cross the parapet in storming the southern redoubt. When the Peach Tree Creek fight was over, General Hooker wrote as follows to Wash ington:

My attention was first attracted to the young officer by the superior excellence of his brigade, in discipline and instruction, the result of his skill and devotion. With more foresight than I have ever witnessed in an officer of his experience, he seemed to act upon the principle that success depended upon thorough preparation in discipline and esprit of his command for conflict, more than on any influence that could be exerted on the field itself, and when collision came his command vindicated his wisdom as much as his valor. In all the achievements of the twentieth corps in that campaign, Colonel Harrison bore a conspicuous part.

At the close of the war Harrison was bre-

At the close of the war Harrison was bre-

His Administration.

failing of strength became more noticeable in the afternoon, and a few moments before the end there was an apparent breakdown.

Not one of General Harrison's children was at the deathbed. Neither Colonel Russell Harrison nor Mrs. McKee had reached the city. Elizabeth, the little daughter, was taken from the sickroom by the nurse.

The group at the bedside included Mrs. Harrison, W. H. H. Miller, Samuel Miller, his son; the Rev. M. L. Haines, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, which General Harrison of lands, which resulted in throwing open Oklahoma to settlement, and

"His Administration.

The seal controversy with Great Britain came to a head in the Harrison administration, and the agreement for arbitration was reached. The famous pan-American congress was held in Washington in the winter of 1839-to His Children.

New York Sun Special Service

Louisville, Ky., March 14.—"Public sentiment condemned General Harrison when he married the second time," said a Louisville judge, who was associated with General Harrison in legal cases. "But this would not have been so had all the circumstances of that marriage been understood." His Samuel Miller, he seal controversy with Great Britain came to a head in the Harrison administration.

New York Sun Special Service

Louisville, Ky., March 14.—"Public sentiment condemned General Harrison when he married the second time," said a Louisville judge, who was associated with General Harrison in legal cases. "But this would not have been so had all the circumstances of that marriage been understood." His Children.

On his retirement the president furnished a good solution of the problem of what to do with our ex-presidents, by returning to the and whatever I may make shall belong to my wife and any children God may bless with ' practice of law. He has been especially prominent in important cases involving con-stitutional and international questions. Re-cently General Harrison has not been entirely in sympathy with the attitude of the republi-can party on the question of expansion. He has written in advocacy of the theory that the "constitution follows the flag."

General Harrison's first wife was Caroline

Scott, daughter of Dr. John W. Scott, president of Oxford female seminary. Mrs. Harrison died during his term as president. Of by her. their children, Russell B. Harrison has served in the volunteer army until recently, and Mrs. McKee became known in social circles during her father's term in the White House. President Harrison later married Mrs. Mary Lord Dimmick, a niece of his first wife. They have one child, Elizabeth.

HIS LATER LIFE Harrison Appeared in Important

Casés-His Second Marriage. Soon after the close of his term as president, in March, 1893, General Harrison returned to his home city of Indianapolis and began again the practice of law in the most simple and unostentatious ma Although General Harrison never in the least sought notoriety, his reputation as a brilliant attorney and profound constitu-tional lawyer had spread until he was in the greatest demand in important litigathe greatest demand in important litigation, not only in this country, but abroad. Perhaps the most notable case in which he figured after his retirement from the presidency was that which involved a dispute between Great Britain and Venezuela concerning the location of the latter's boundary line. boundary line. General Harrison was given a large retaining fee as counsel for Venezuela in the noteworthy legal battle before the international tribunal at Paris was a uminous figure. He was chief counsel in the celebrated suits brought by the city of Indianapolis against the Citizens' Street Railroad company, which were, on his advice, transferred to the federal circuit

One of his most memorable legal addresses was delivered in the hearing of these suits before Judges Woods and Baker of the United States circuit and district courts. General Harrison's masterly argument in this case was taken down verbatim and printed, and has been in great demand ever since by corporation attorneys and courts all over the country. One of his notable speeches of late years was an address before the students of Ann Arbor on the expansion question. The last public address made by General Harrison in his home town was on the occasion of the dedication of the Columbia club the first of the year. bia club, the first of the year.

General Harrison also figured after leaving the president's chair as counsel before the United States supreme court in notable case involving irrigation lands

When Benjamin Harrison became vetted brigadier general for "ability and dent of the United States Mrs. Mary Dimmanifest energy and gallantry in command of mick, his wife's niece, left her home to the brigade."

General Harrison refused a nomination for supreme court reporter in 1867, and resumed teneral law practice. He took an active part in the presidential campaigns of 1868 and 1872, attumping in Indiana. In 1876 he was the return the president had become of secondary importance to her. The president had found more important work for her to do. stumping in Indiana. In 1876 he was the republican nominee for governor, and although the ran ahead of his ticket, he was defeated. He refused President Garfield's tender of a place in the cabinet, preferring to represent Indiana in the United States senate. He was senator from 1881 to 1887.

The republicans nominated General Harrison for the presidency in the Chianten of the country possessed at the senator from 1881 to 1887.

NEW RICHMOND—The claim for the relief of this city for money which was loaned by the state at the time of the cyclone of June, 1899, amounting to $23,000, will come up before the joint committee at Madison this was a discreet. He had found that the affairs of the country possessed a great interest for her, and that her knowledge of politics and the finances of the land was beyond that of many a sensitive production of the presidency in the Chianten of the cyclone of June, 1899, amounting to $23,000, will come up before the joint committee at Madison this was counsel; she was discreet. He had found that the affairs of the country possessed a great interest for her, and that her knowledge of politics and the finances of the land was beyond that of many a sensitive production of the president had found more importance to her. The president had found in the cyclone of June, 1899, amounting to state at the time of the cyclone of June, 1899, amounting to state at the time of the cyclone of June, 1899, amounting to state at the time of the cyclone of June, 1899, amounting to state at the time of the cyclone of June, 1899, amounting to state at the time of the cyclone of June, 1899, amounting to state at the time of the cyclone of June, 1899, amounting to state at the time of the cyclone of June, 1899, amounting to state at the time of the cyclone of June, 1899, amounting to state at the time of the cyclone of Mrs. Harrison her duties became even more arduous. After General Harrison laid down the burdens of office and returned to this city he felt the need of companionship, and the marriage to Mrs. Dimmick followed. But one child, Elizabeth, was born to the ex-president and his second wife. She is now 5 years old.

HIS METHOD OF SPEAKING

Ex-President.

Ex-President.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 14.—Speaking of General Harrison's methods, a prominent lawyer says:

"In a case at law he brought a moral force to bear upon any crooked work or concealment that was as powerful as any skill in handling it. His scorn and sarcasm had an 'ugly honesty' in its expression that would skin or scalp the victim, according to the degree of his culpability. In speaking he had a high, shrill voice, unpleasant to the ear for the first few moments, but a great clearness of enununpleasant to the ear for the first few moments, but a great clearness of enunciation soon absorbed the sense in the subject. His manner was very earnest, and at any proper point swept on like a cavalry charge. He had an aggressive streak in his nature, as his square, firm jaw and the 'clench' with which he shut his mouth indicated. He had abundant pluck in the use of it, and with an aroused conscience was no respecter of persons."

A typical example of the powerful ora tory of young Harrison occurred in 1860, when he was the republican candidate for reporter of the state supreme court. He did his share in stumping the state for his party. Colonel Lane and Thomas Hendricks were the opposing candidates for governor and it happened that Harri-son and Hendricks were booked to speak at Rockville at the same hour. The democrats cried for a joint debate. Young Harrison hesitated.

"Mr. Hendricks is at the head of the democratic ticket," said he, "while I am at the tail of the republican ticket. He is an experienced public debater, while I am on my first trip."

He finally consented. The courthouse was issumed. Lohn S. Derie and Mr.

was jammed. John S. Dayis and Mr. Vorhees, the "Tall Sycamore of the Wabash," occupied high seats dividing honors with Mr. Hendricks. Young Harrison went in unnoticed. Democrats feared him not; republicans knew him not.

For two long hours Mr. Hendricks extolled the democracy. When he had fin-ished Harrison's turn came. Directly he stated a proposition and charged that at some previous time the democrats had conceded it to be true. There was a stir in the house, and Mr. Vorhees reared his tall form and denied the truth of the statement. An electric flash is not quicker than the retort:

"Fellow citizens the denied induces me

"Fellow citizens, the denial induces me to amend my assertion. I now say that every democrat approved the proposition except Mr. Vorhees. He was then a wig."

A spontaneous yell broke out and the Rockville republicans knew they had an orator before them.

orator before them.

Harrison's campaign for the presidency in 1888 was marked by powerful and tell-ing speeches, always appropriate and win-ning the plaudits of his hearers. During the next four years Mr. Harrison's repu-tation as an orator was vastly enhanced. He talked well both in public and pri-vate. During the celebrated tour which vate. During the celebrated tour which he took through the south to the Pa-cific coast and to Rochester he made many apt and well-rounded speeches, each particularly pleasing to the people to whom it was addressed.

STARTED LIFE AFRESH

"He turned over to his son and daugh ter about $100,000 accumulated in the practice of law and saved from his sal-ary as president. Since his second marary as president. Since his second mar-riage he has accumulated about twice that much, and I am told his will will cut off his children by his first wife with a mere mention, and leave his second fortune to his second wife and his child

"Since the second marriage his son Russell and Mrs. McKee have not visited their father's home in Indianapolis."

GRINNELL—Dormer Evans, a teamster of Steamboat Rock, while feeding horses, fell under their feet and was trampled to death.

DUBUQUE—Miss Kate Lees, a young woman residing at Key West, ran a needlinto her arm. She withdrew it at once, bu blood poisoning set in and yesterday she was removed to an asylum, hopelessly in SIOUX CITY—The Porto Ricans have begun to eat good Iowa butter. The butter was sent to the island by a local creamery company for the purpose of creating a market for its product. The distribution is under the auspices of the United States government.

NORTH DAKOTA

FORMAN—A. C. Dewey received word of the death of his brother, John P. Dewey, in Florida, aged 72 years. He was a cousin of Admiral Dewey.

DICKINSON—The Stark county board of commissioners has issued $6,000 in county warrants under the provisions of the Sharpe grain law for the purchase of 6,000 bushels of wheat for farmers.

GRAND FORKS—Petitions have been filed for aldermen in all the wards for the election on the 1st day of April. All the present aldermen have been induced to serve another term except in the first ward, where Judge R. M. Carothers will run in place of J. B. Wineman, who declined.

CASSELTON—One of the finest opera halis in this state outside of Grand Forks and Fargo is that recently opened in this city.—A new brick school building is under consideration by the taxpayers, the present building being inadequate.—The farm of C. A. Malette, consisting of a section, one mile west of the city, was sold to Phil Austin for $22,000, or nearly $40 per acre.

SPARTA-Mrs. James Richardson is dead, also Mrs. Frank A. Bacon. The latter had been an invalid for three years.

WEST SUPERIOR—Mrs. Christina Tinder-holm took polson and died shortly after. She was 56 years old and had been in the insane asylum, and it is claimed she had an attack of her old malady.—Several sites have already been offered the library board for the new library.

MADISON—A party of thirty students of the school of pharmacy at the university, accompanied by Professors Richtmann and Fischer, started to-day on the annual trip of inspection of drug manufactories and chemical plants, the ultimate destination be-ing Detroit.

place in the cabinet, preferring to represent Indiana in the United States senate. He was senator from 1881 to 1887.

The republicans nominated General Harrison for the presidency in the Chicago convention in 1888. On the eighth ballot he received 544 votes to 100 for General Alger, 50

THE FIVE CENT CIGAR WORLD REVOLVES AROUND CIGARS THE GEO ITS GENEROUSLY GOOD QUALITY

SPORTS

MIL. MAY COME IN

Wilmot Would Break Into the Western With a Brewer Team.

THE CIRCUIT IS STILL IN DOUBT Football Games to Be Played by the Speculation as to the Final Makeup of the Circuit-Denver and Pueblo May Go Out.

Walter Wilmot is of the opinion that Milwaukee would fit much better into the Western league than Des Moines or St.

Joseph, especially if the Denver and Pueblo franchises go to Indianapolis and Louisville and he is doing what he can to bring about this change.

Wilmot never had a moment's use for Wilmot never had a moment's use for and his crowd and would shade to be chance to the work of the work placed in charge of the Western league to secure what players he required, he would have the American league team playing to empty benches if conflicting dates were arranged.

Still in Doubt.

Denver and Pueblo are still members of the Western league while Louisville and Indianapolis are looking for an opening. The Western league meeting to adopt a circuit and schedule of games may be held next Saturday in St. Paul, but even this is doubtful as all depends on the results of President Hickey's hustling down in Indiana. Speaking of the situation yester-day he said: I cannot say positively that Louisville and

Indianapolis will be taken in, because we have not had our meeting yet. It will take place in St. Paul on Saturday, I think, and then if the necessary arrangements are made with the holders of the Denver and Pueblo franchises, they will be transferred to Lou-isville and Indianapolis, respectively. W. H. Watkins would hold the Indianapolis franchise, which would be turned over to him by Hullen, and I think Packard of Den-ver will be willing to bring his club to Louisville. As Watkins has his club already signed, Louisville could also have the cream of the Pueblo team, thus making a splendid tal will be represented. We have all of the capital we need. The town is what we are after. We have the capital and we have all the players we want, and they are better players than the National League will cast off.

WESTERN TRACK MEET It May Be Postponed One Week and Begin June 8.

Chicago, March 14.—The managing committee of the intercollegiate track meet of the western conference schools is considering the advisability of holding the annual championship games a week later than usual this year in order not to con-flict with the championship meet to be held in connection with the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo. A number of west-pete in the national contests. Chicago, Michigan and Wisconsin have already ex-pressed their desire to enter teams. In order to give these a chance without inorder to give these a chance without interfering with the annual games, the above change is proposed, making the date June 8. In the contests at Buffalo the best athletes from the eastern schools will compete, so that the meet will be a test between the east and west. A plan has been suggested for selecting an all-western team to represent this section against the coast schools.

Indeor Events at the "U."

At the university this afternoon the last three events in the all round indoor athletic contest are being run off. The events are fence vault, three standing broad jumps, and long dive. Medals are to be presented to the five men having the highest percentage for the twelve events. The first five now are Knowkion, Tate, Pierce, Furber, Gillett, in the order named. Bockman, Smith and Francis all have good marks and any one of them may land in the front rank.

MAKES IT THE AXIS OF THE TRADE.

GEO. R. NEWELL & CO., Distributors

THE BADGER SCHEDULE Cardinal Team.

The football management has announce the Badgers' football schedule for next year, as far as completed. Two dates are still open, Oct. 5 and Nov. 9. There is a marked change in the schedule in that all out one of the games will be played in Madison. But two big games are arranged for, Minnesota and Chicago. The schedule

STATE FAIR RACE PROGRAM About $20,000 in Purses Will Be Hung Up. The citizens of St. Paul have hung up purse of $5,000 for the 2:15 pace at the state fair this fall. Citizens of Minneapolis have offered a purse of the same size for the 2:21 trot.

The race program will be made up at the meeting of the board of managers to be held in St. Paul to-morrow. Secretary Randall says that the entire amount of

"Flour City Cyclists" Move.

There will be a special meeting of the Flour City Cyclists to-morrow, at 8 p. m., at the old clubhouse, the last that will be held in the old quarters. April 1, the club will move to 601 Second avenue S. The new quarters will be the best ever offered the wheelmen of this city, with gymnasium, pool, baths, etc.

Entering Their Dogs.

New York Sun Special Service.
Sioux Falls, S. D., March 14.—Great interest is being taken by owners of dogs in various parts of the United States in this year's meet of the South Dakota Field Trial Association, to be held near Sloux Falls. The local officers of the association have already received letters from persons living in New York, Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota, Nebraska and other states, in which they express their intention of entering dogs. The trials will begin Aug. 20. Entries will close July 21.

Special to The Journal.

Winona, Minn., March 14.—The Meadow-Brook Golf club is anticipating the early opening of the golfing season and has made arrangements for improvements in the club buildings that will call for an expenditure of close to $600. A new kitchen will be built and a porch dining-room constructed. The ladies' and gentlemen's locker rooms will be remodeled.

Special to The Journal.

Fargo, N. D., March 14.—The championship of the local basket ball league remains a tie between the Agricultural college and the Fargo college teams for this year, and as a result of the illness of some of the players, it may not be definitely decided. The Y. M.

Shoes. Retail parlor, 4 N 4th st, Kasota Block.

If you are suffering from indigestion or any other stomach trouble, Kodol Dyspepsia Cure can't help but do you good. It digests what you eat.

Tied for the Championship,

C. A., which has been the leading aggregation for a year or two, was hopelessly out of the race this year.

Indoor Events at the "U."

IN A NUTSHELL

San Francisco—The United States transport Buford has arrived from the Philippines. She brought 555 men of the Thirty-seventh volun-teers.

Washington—The battleship Wisconsin has sailed from San Francisco for Magdalena bay, Mexico, to try her guns preparatory to going to the Asiatic station.

Chattanooga, Tenn.—Miss Mary Bolton, assistant postmaster at Stockville, Tenn., has been arrested on the charge of robbing the malls. She is the daughter of Rev. Joseph Bolton, who is a preacher of high standing. She confessed the crime and turned over a quantity of stolen goods.

Denver, Col.—Jimmy Coogan, local light-weight puglilst, was shot through the head and instantly kilfed by Frank Salter, better known as "Plunk" Salter, early to-day in a saloon. According to witnesses Coogan first shot at Salter, declaring Salter had slandered him. Salter is under bond on charge of conspiring with J. E. Wannemaker to assas-sinate his son-in-law, ex-Senator D. C. Web-ber.

CABLE FLASHES

London-King Edward has appointed the Duke of Abercorn, the Earl of Mount Edg-cumbe, Lord Wolseley and Earl Carrington special ambassadors to inform the foreign courts that Queen Victoria is dead and that King Edward has succeeded to the throne. King Edward has succeeded to the throne. London—The Times asserts that the government's proposals for the civil list shows a total of £170,000, being £110,000 for his majesty's privy purse, and the rest for the expenses of the royal household. The queen consort's allowance is £50,000, and is included in the total already given. This will be increased to £70,000 in the event of the death of the king.

Pullman Tourist Sleeper to California via the Sunshine Route-C., M. & St. P. Ry.

Every Tuesday a splendid up-to-date Pullman tourist sleeper leaves Minneapo-lis at 7:50 a.m. and St. Paul 8:00 a.m., via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry., and runs through without change to Los Angeles, Cal., via Kansas City and the A., T. & S. F. Ry.—the famous Sunshine Route-arriving there the following Saturday morning.

Through berth rate Twin Cities to Los Angeles only $6.00. Each berth in this sleeper will comfortably accommodate Tickets, for use in this tourist sleeper, from Minneapolis and St. Paul to Los Angeles, San Francisco, etc., now being sold at the unusually low rate of $32.90. For further particulars and descriptive folder address J. T. Conley, Asst. Gen. Pass. Agent, St. Paul, Minn., or see "Milwaukee' ticket agents.

YOU WILL LIKE THEM If you try them—Dr. Reed's Cushion Shoes. Retail parlor, 4 N 4th st, Kasota

