COLLEGE LOAN FUND

General Society Daughters of the Revolution Will Establish One.

At the annual convention of the General Society of the Daughters of the Revolution it was decided that the Daughters take for their work the coming and succeeding years the formation of a fund to be at the service of any members of the Society of the Daugh-ters of the Revolution, a daughter of any member of the Society of the Daughters of member of the Society of the Daughters of the Revolution, or any woman eligible for admission to the Society of the Daughters of the Revolution, who desires to obtain a loan in order to secure a college education. The money is to be given as a loan, and when refunded, to be loaned out again.

Miss Sterling, president-general, stated that it would not require a large fund to enable the Daughters of the Revolution to make several $300 loans.

The $5,000 fund for the Valley Forge memorial was completed and it was decided to raise an additional $2,000 for incidental expectation with placing the monuraise an additional 2,000 for including ex-penses in connection with placing the monu-ment, macadamizing the approach, etc. The shaft is to be of granite, 40 feet high, with a bas relief in bronze reproduced from Wil-liam Bruerkner's painting, "Washington at

Prayer at Valley Forge."

It is expected that the monument will be unveiled early in the fall, a plot of ground, 30x33 feet, having been set apart in the field at Valley Forge where the revolutionary heroes are buried, for the monument.

The Brooklyn Eagle made the following comment on the meeting: "The harmony and dignity that characterized the proceedings of the convention of the General Society of the Daughters of the Revolution which was held in Brooklyn during the past week was in In Brooklyn during the past week was in marked contrast to the recent annual convocation held at Washington by the Daughters of the Revolution who add American to their title.
