

"NOTHING TO ARBITRATE"

Familiar Declaration From Steel President Schwab. REJECTS BURNS' PLAN Window Glass Workers' President Suggested Arbitration.

SAYS STRIKE HURTS BUSINESS

Mr. Burns, Not Discouraged, Will Again Take the Matter Up With Mr. Schwab. Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 29.—The plan of arbitration for the settlement of the great steel strike submitted by Simon Burns, president of L. A. 3002, the national organization of window glass workers, was also the head of the Knights of Labor, has been rejected by President Schwab of the steel trust. Another proposition will be submitted to him by Mr. Burns to-morrow.

Mr. Burns thinks that if Mr. Schwab would agree to arbitration, J. P. Morgan and his assistants in the steel combination would not interfere. He believes that the entire matter, so far as the trust is concerned, could be left in the hands of Mr. Schwab, and that it will depend on him whether or not the strike is for the present settled by arbitration.

PITTSBURG RESUME

Disbursement of Strike Funds to Begin Next Week. Pittsburgh, Aug. 29.—The strike situation continues quiet and devoid of interesting features. SCHLEY AND HOWISON COQUETTING WITH FRANCE

LATTER STAYS ON THE COURT This Suits the Schley Adherents, Who Can Claim the Court Is Packed. From The Journal Bureau, Room 45, Post Building, Washington.

Washington, Aug. 29.—It is distinctly asserted by officials of the navy department that no notice of withdrawal has been received from Admiral Howison, but so much secrecy and mystery attends all such announcements as to give rise to all sorts of speculative conjectures. It is generally assumed that the Schley adherents do not really desire to have Howison taken off the court, but rather to go as far as they can without accomplishing that result.

SEERESS WAS STRAIGHT

Chicago, Aug. 29.—Mrs. A. H. Hoffman of this city was formerly a merry skeptic when fortune tellers and seeresses were mentioned. She averred that the seventh daughters were seven-ply frauds and that they should be run out of business on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

Georges Dorys, son of the late Prince of Sarnos, a former minister of the Sultan of Turkey and formerly governor of Crete, has been condemned to death by the sultan's court in the direction of Abdul Hamid II. KILLED BY CHEWING GUM

Special to The Journal. Fargo, N. D., Aug. 29.—A death from peculiar circumstances occurred here to-day. Two days ago the family of J. E. McLaughlin moved to this city from Litchfield, Minn., and yesterday, their little son, Roy Francis, was found to be eating something which made him very sick. Investigations brought out the fact that the little fellow had found several discarded quids of chewing gum sticking in different places about the house, and he had picked them off and chibbed like, put them in his mouth. The doctors say that the saliva on the partly chewed pieces had become rank poison and the chewing of them by the little one was the cause of the death. The body was taken to Litchfield for interment.

BEAVER RANCH IN THE HILLS

Special to The Journal. Lead, S. D., Aug. 29.—Down on Box Elder creek, near Silver City, August Peterson owns an interesting little stock ranch, the only one of its kind in the United States. He raises beavers for their fur and it is stated that his crop of beavers for next year will bring him several thousand dollars. It costs him nothing to feed the little animals and as they are not subject to cholera or other diseases common to the stock ranch, Mr. Peterson's losses are very small.

EDITOR KIDNAPPED AND THEN TARRED

Cox of Brainerd Arena Roughly Handled by Three Men Having Faces Painted and Wearing False Beards. Another Chapter in the Strenuous Life of the Editor—The Outrage Condemned on All Sides.

Special to The Journal. Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 29.—It is a strenuous life that W. S. Cox, editor of the Arena, seems to be leading these days. Only the other day, after having indulged in some innocuous in his gladiatorial paper he was chased up street and into a butcher's ice box by Al Ferris, lawyer, banker and political boss of Crow Wing county.

Mr. Cox is apparently not popular in this community. At least, he seems to have acquired some enemies who have not liked the utterances of his paper. But the community, while it laughed at the spectacle of the fleeing editor and the enraged legislator brandishing a hammer in hot pursuit, does not at all approve of the whitewash method of showing disapproval of the Arena's course and last night's outrage is condemned roundly by everyone.

It is generally believed that the white cappers are friends of Mr. Ferris, but it is not believed he inspired or was even cognizant of the plot. Cox has made other enemies than Ferris and is cordially disliked by many for the policy he has pursued in his paper.

How the Deed Was Done. Mr. Cox and a friend, Fred Stout, chief clerk in the office of the Missabe & Iron Range road, went calling on two young ladies at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McCullough.

Mr. Cox was not intimidated, but tried his best to save his friend Cox, whereupon the man with the revolver struck him over the head with his weapon, cutting the scalp and making a bad wound. Cox was then incalculably lugged off and Stout hurried down town to give the alarm.

Cox Returns All Betrayed. There was great excitement and parties were formed to pursue the bold trio and rescue the unlucky editor. But no trace of either could be found. But a little before midnight Cox straggled into town in a pitiable condition. His hair and face and clothing were covered with tar and he was laboring under great excitement.
